LAWN TENNIS.—A special meeting of the Lawn Tennis Club will be held to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock at Victoria Park, to consider the representatives who are to be sent to the Lawn Tennis Tournament at Windsor, N.S.

A GREAT SUCCESS.—The Zion Church picnic at Morell yesterday was a decided success in every respect. There was a large attendance, and the day passed most pleasantly. The various tables were well filled and patronized, and there was no scarcity of amusements.

ANOTHER EXCURSION.—The steamer St. Olaf arrived from Pictou this forenoon with an excursion party numbering about two hundred, including cricket teams from Stellarton and Albion Mines and a tug-of-war team from Westville. The steamer will leave on return about five o'clock. This afternoon the visitors are playing cricket at the Park.

CITY COUNCIL.—An informal meeting of the City Council was held last evening to discuss ways and means for the reception of the Governor-General and Lady Aberdeen, but as several members of the board were absent from the city, action was deferred till another meeting. Mayor Dawson was to interview Premier Peters to-day respecting the intention of the Government in the matter.

THE GREEN GOODS TRADE.—The names of one thousand customers were found on the books of a single green goods concern investigated by the New York police. These patrons all paid in good money for brown paper and sawdust. The transactions covered two years. But notwithstanding the publicity given to them, the next two years will probably see an equal number of victims.

THE OPPOSITION POLICY.—An Ontario paper asks any intelligent Brit to take a copy of Hansard for the session now drawing to a close, read it from beginning to end, and then tell it just what the policy of Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. Laurier is. He would have no difficulty in arriving at a conclusion—it is opposition to every Government proposal, good, bad, or indifferent.

MAJESTIC DECISIONS.—In the case of Matthew vs. William Rodd, for obstructing a reeve in the execution of his duty, and same plaintiff vs. William H. Rodd, for an assault, Stipendiary-Magistrate Palmer gave judgment this morning. In the former case he dismissed the information and in the latter case the defendant was fined $1.00 and costs.

THE SALVATION ARMY will be reinforced by Ensign Harry and the Halifax Brass Band, on Saturday, Sunday and Monday. The object of the meetings is to bring before the public the claims of the Rescue Work which has been recently started in Halifax as one of the General's Jubilee schemes. This home is open to any in the Maritime Provinces and is worthy of support. The first meeting will be held on Saturday evening at the Salvation Army Barracks. Silver collections at the door. Special meetings all day Sunday, and on Monday night the Rescue Work will be particularly brought to the front.

CHANGES ON THE STANLEY.—The Pictou Standard says: The steamer Stanley arrived in port on Sunday to land Chief Officer Melick, Second Engineer Ferguson and four firemen, who, in company with Nautical Inspector McEllinney and Capt. Noulton, will leave Halifax on the 19th for Glasgow, to take charge of and bring the new steamer Aberdeen to this side of the water. Mr. Curry, third engineer of the Stanley, has been promoted to second officer on the Stanley. Boatman Smith, of the Stanley, has been made second officer of the Stanley.

Sir Charles Russell, lord chief justice of England, is a Roman Catholic. But for this fact, says an exchange, he would long ago have been elected to the wool-sack on the nomination of Mr. Gladstone, but under the British constitution the lord chancellor of England, as the custodian of the Queen's conscience, must be a Protestant. No such limitation applies in the case of the lord chief justice, although no Roman Catholic has held the post since the days of the reformation.

BENEDICTINE INISH SOCIETY.—The Benedictine Irish Society of this Province intend celebrating the 119th anniversary of the birth of Daniel O'Connell (August 6th) by a grand picnic at Scotchfort.
