

THE KELLY MURDER.

Proceedings at the Inquest.

OFFICERS TESTIMONY

Patrick Shea, policeman, sworn: About a quarter to 12, on the night of the 15th, I accompanied the City Marshal to go in search of the prisoner Johnston, who was on board a schooner at Duncan's Wharf. After some time searching, we found the boy in the main hatch. After assisting the boy out of the main hatch, he said: "I will go with you; I will have to suffer for what I have done." We took him on to the wharf, and the Marshal commenced to search him. He asked him for his pistol, and he said he gave it to his father. When taking him up the wharf, he said to the Steward: "You have made a big thing of selling my life." The Marshal told him to give over talking, as he was our prisoner. The Marshal gave me in charge of him to take him from the Station to the Courtroom. After being some time in the Court room I heard him say, "There were three shots fired, but with no bad intention." He asked how long the boy lived after the shots were fired. I said about fifteen minutes. I know nothing further. To Mr. Palmer—I was there when the person gave information of the prisoner being in the vessel. He said, "If you give me five dollars I will tell where Johnston is." He did not get that amount, to my knowledge. He had liquor in him, but he was not drunk. I would not arrest him for being drunk. He was able to take charge of himself. I do not know whether he thought he would get the money or not when he would give the information.

Peter Bradley, Policeman, sworn: About a quarter past twelve, on Friday morning last, the Marshal told me to accompany Officer Shea with the prisoner Johnston to the court room. When we got there I asked him how he felt. He said, "Much better than when in the schooner; he was nearly crushed to death." He said he did not care only for his father and mother; that he would give himself up in the morning only for his lawyer—mentioning Mr. Palmer's name. He said it was not so bad here as if at home. I think he said, "So help me God he had no intention of killing the man. It was all done through devilry and wildness." He asked if we knew how long the man lived after he was shot. I said I thought about fifteen or twenty minutes. I said, "You might have got a better way than going in the schooner." He said he did not know the man was dead until eight o'clock, and he then told his father. If he knew he was dead he could have went in the morning in the five o'clock boat. I said it was a strange thing that a young man like him would make up and drive around with those fellows. He said he enquired into Millner's character, and was told he had a good one. I said there was no occasion for these revolvers here. He said he never wanted to see one again. He seemed to be very dull, and I told him not to be uneasy, that perhaps he might get a little imprisonment. He said he expected that.

To the Jury: I asked no more questions than I told you.

Robert Hughes, sworn: About a quarter or twenty minutes past nine, on Wednesday night, I was standing at Dr. Mackinson's corner, I saw a carriage coming along with two men in it. As they passed they said, "Cut it short," and then proceeded to Black Sam's Bridge. I thought the person who spoke was Millner. I knew his voice. The horse seemed to be a light pony, dark color. The wagon seemed to be a light constructed one. I know Millner by eyesight. I know his voice.

To Mr. Palmer—I am not personally acquainted with Millner. I know him to see him. I spoke to him once on Queen Square when the House was in session. I spoke to him often in his shop when I would go to get things repaired. I swear I spoke to James Millner in his father's shop twice. I am not altogether sure of Millner being in the wagon. I am pretty sure it was him by his voice.

To a Juryman—I have no doubt in my mind but it was Millner's voice.

George W. Johnson, sworn: The statement that my son gave me a pistol is not correct. He did not give me a pistol. I have no pistol in my possession nor under my control. I had a pistol since the night of the 14th. I cannot say whose pistol it was. I cannot say where that pistol is now. It was in my possession last, on Thursday, the 15th. I took it to the Gas Works with me, and put it in a valise in my office with gas work. I found it in my own room at Mr. Higgins' boarding house. My son's room adjoins mine. The valise is not in the office at present. It is in my son's possession in the jail. I have no recollection of taking the pistol out. I heard the police were there searching. I thought they might take it out. I have no knowledge of how the pistol got out. The valise was not locked. The office was locked only part of the time. My son had access to the office. The pistol was not in the valise when it was sent to the jail. I never spoke to any person about the pistol.

Immediately before adjournment Mr. Hodgson asked the Coroner if, at present, there was sufficient evidence for the jury to bring in a verdict of how the deceased, Kelly, came by his death. If so he would suggest that they do it, and then leave it to other tribunals to try by whom the deed was done.

The Coroner said he would be glad if he could adopt his suggestion, as it would help to facilitate matters, but he could not find a precedent to do so. The law is that jurors do find a verdict, and it then goes on to explain how, and, if possible, by whom the deceased came to his death.

The inquest adjourned until to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

VIENNA, Aug. 19.

Troops, ammunition and material are constantly leaving for the South and great depression prevails here, and the people do not believe the official assurances that the Porte, Servia and Montenegro do not support the insurgents.

PERTH, Aug. 19.

Opposition journals and leaders are taking advantage of popular excitement about the occurrences in Bosnia to denounce the Imperial Cabinet with unmeasured violence and charge them with sending the Magyars to slaughter, with the object of securing their extermination. Hungarian troops have been the principal sufferers at Maglay, Tuzla and Stolatz.

LONDON, Aug. 19.

A Vienna despatch to the Times says the Porte's attitude towards Greece and its delay in evacuating Batoum, the resistance to Austria's occupation in Bosnia, the refusal to surrender the territory assigned by Congress to Montenegro and the organized movement of the Albanians in Old Servia in threatening the Servians in their newly acquired lands, are regarded as so many evidences of a deliberate policy which aims at stultifying the Berlin Congress and its results. It is the general opinion that by such policy the Porte is playing a dangerous game. The Austrian press and people are extremely bitter against Turkey. No body now countenances the idea of eventual restoration of the occupied provinces to the Porte, and public opinion is unanimous against the conclusion of the convention.

A despatch from Constantinople says: "The Porte, in replying to the representations of some ambassador, declares that it has no money to organize gendarmerie, employ judges, or otherwise realize promised reforms."

Rearstern Pasha, a Roman Catholic and governor of Lebanon, will probably be appointed governor of the new Provinces of Eastern Roumelia.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in. Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, plains and oceans, and thousands of means for enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worried out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct cause of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10 cents. Try it.

SYDNEY COAL.

REDUCTION IN PRICE!

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC!

THE GENERAL MINING ASSOCIATION (Limited) beg to intimate to the Public that the price of SYDNEY COAL has been a price which it is hoped will place it within the reach of all consumers.

Reduced to $2 per ton of 2240 lbs.,

The opening of the new winning at "THE SYDNEY MINES" and the fact that the SYDNEY COAL now being shipped is all from the DEEP taken in connection with recent improvements in the process of screening, affords purchasers a positive guarantee of the very superior quality and condition of the SYDNEY COAL now offered for sale.

It is a well-known fact that for many years past the prices of other Cape Breton coals have been regulated by the rates fixed for SYDNEY COAL; but while it is true that other coals, to get a sale at all, have been pressed on the market at various prices under the current rate of SYDNEY COAL, it is no less true that, taking into account the superior lasting qualities of SYDNEY COAL when compared with other Cape Breton coals, the advantage, both as to economy and convenience, is in favor of SYDNEY COAL, even at a much higher price.

The General Mining Association (Limited) regret that they should again have to caution the Public against the attempts being made from time to time to induce them to buy inferior coals purporting to be "EQUAL TO SYDNEY," "SUPERIOR TO SYDNEY," etc., etc., while some yet more unscrupulous vendors have not hesitated to advertise their coal as SYDNEY COAL (from some designated locality). All these efforts to sell coal by such means are only so many admissions on the part of those who make them of the STANDARD character of SYDNEY COAL.

It has come to the knowledge of the Association that in frequent instances parties giving orders to truckmen and others for SYDNEY COAL have been furnished with other and inferior coal. The Public are cautioned against permitting themselves to be imposed upon in this way.

Every vessel loaded at THE SYDNEY MINES is furnished with a certificate of the cargo being Sydney Coal. Parties purchasing should satisfy themselves by demanding the production of this certificate.

The "Sydney Coal" is registered under the laws of the Dominion, and unauthorized parties using the Trade Mark "SYDNEY COAL" are liable to prosecution.
