YOU CAN MAKE A BIG CHRISTMAS CANDLE
You can make a big, long-burning candle to fit into your Christmas decorations if you have a number of odds and ends of partly burned candles around the house. Melt them and pour into cardboard containers and remold. Use ice cream containers, oatmeal containers or others. Use plain cord for a wick. When the wax is beginning to set, tie the wick to a pencil and suspend it in the wax. Let set hard, remove carton and there is a nice candle for your table.

Yes, Virginia, There Is A Santa Claus

Is there a Santa Claus? Millions of children have asked that question, since visits from St. Nicholas began to be associated with the observance of Christmas. In 1897 one girl wrote to the editor of the New York Sun, asking him about Santa, and the next day an editorial appeared, an editorial that has been reprinted thousands of times since. Here is that famous editorial: We take pleasure in answering at once and thus prominently the communication below, expressing at the same time our great gratification that its faithful author is numbered among the friends of The Sun:

Dear Editor — I am 8 years old. Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus. Papa says, "If you see it in the Sun, it's so." Please tell me the truth, is there a Santa Claus?
VIRGINIA O'HANLON,
115 West Ninety-Fifth Street

Virginia your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe unless they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole truth and knowledge.
Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas, how few are there who do! Many of the world's woe and misery are due to the lack of these things. No Santa Claus! Thank God, he lives and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, may, ten times ten thousand years from now he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

GIRLS STILL LIKE DOLLS

In spite of all the advanced ideas of the rising generation, the average small girl still likes a doll as well as she likes any other Christmas present.

Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children or man can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not. But that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive all the wonders there are unseen and unseeable in the world.
You tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering

SERVING OF BOAR'S HEAD ONE OF OLD CHRISTMAS CUSTOMS

Of the customs that grew up around the Christmas festival in Merrie, England, the serving of the boar's head was one of the most stirring. It endures to this day at Queen's College, Oxford, where the 50-pound tusked head—is borne in on a great silver dish, escorted by trumpeters and candle bearers.
In the olden days there was an appropriate chant, half carol and half ritual, that the gentlemen used to bellow at the moment the dish troubled the board:
Then set down the swineyard, The foe to the vineyard, Let Bacchus crown his fall. Let this boar's head and mustard Stand for pig, goose and custard. And so ye are welcome all.
