

At The Boat Races In Murray Harbor Yesterday

Hold Impressive Service At Montague Church

A very impressive special devotion marking Marian Year at St. Mary's Church at Montague was held last evening with the celebration of Solemn High Mass by Rev. J. B. Croken of St. Theresa's. Assisting him were Rev. Urban Gillis of Vernon River as deacon, and Rev. F. L. Mullaly of Sturgeon as sub-deacon. Rev. Leonard McKenna, Iona, acted as master of ceremonies.

A very large number was in attendance from neighboring parishes, since this particular devotion was held only in parishes which were named in honor of Mary. Other similar services were held at North Rustico, Souris, Indian River, Wellington, Bras. Mt. Carrol and Palmers Road.

Rev. J. P. E. O'Hanley, Cardigan, preached a very inspiring sermon in a special devotion of Marian Year to Mary, the mother of God, and her role in the redemption of mankind.

The choir, which sang the Mass of the Angels, was under the direction of Rev. Sylvester Gallant of Charlottetown. Mrs. Earl MacDonald of Cardigan was organ accompanist.

Present also at the devotions were Rev. Owen Kiggins, Georgetown and Rev. Phalen McKenna, Morell.

St. Mary's Church in Montague was erected in 1871 as a mission parish, and its first pastor was Rev. William Phalen. Rev. J. W. McCordie, the present pastor, became the first resident pastor only a few years ago when St. Mary's was made no longer a mission parish.

Murray Harbor Boat Wins Feature Event At Races Yesterday; Large Crowd

Warm weather, a light breeze and a partly clouded sky made a perfect setting for the boat races and afternoon tea held at Murray Harbor yesterday which was attended by a very large crowd.

Premier A. W. Matheson was present, together with other Government members.

The main feature of the day, the boat races, drew the attention of the crowd, and they received many thrills from the fast racing and close finishes.

Laurie Herring Murray Harbor captured the free-for-all contest, and finished well out in front. Angus MacNeill won the 8-cylinder class, and other winners included Merrill MacDonald, 6-cylinder, second class; Dave Irvine, 6-cylinder, first class; and Laurie McHerron, 4-cylinder. Several outboard motor boats staged a race which was greatly enjoyed by the crowd and which was won by Everett Platt, Charlottetown.

On the grounds, patrons enjoyed many games and refreshments booths, climaxed by a delicious supper served by the ladies of the club, which was a formal comment or open confirmation for the moment.

..*BENEFIT PERFORMANCE — "The Feminine Touch" 3-act play, presented by the Y.P.U. of Trinity United Church, Montague, was staged at Yeo's Theatre before a packed house last night in a benefit performance for the O'Halloran family of Greenfield who lost their home, farm buildings and almost all their possessions in a recent fire. The play was received with the highest appreciation by the delighted audience who spontaneously applauded the actors time and again. The audience also enjoyed several special numbers: A solo by Miss Florence MacDonald, "She's My Daisy"; tap dancing by Miss MacDonald, Kay MacLean, Glenda Jamieson Carol Ann Sullivan, and Elaine Poole. Two numbers "It Is No Secret" and "Sometimes" were beautifully sung by Mrs. Doug Coffin and Mrs. Arnold Wightman. Miss Marcia MacDonald and Miss Heather Jamieson presented an entrancing and delightful waltz ballet on toe, followed by Misses Veronica and Gillian Taylor with a selection of songs "For Me And My Gal", "Aint Got A Barrel of Money" and "Red, Red Robin." The two girls also sang "River Seine" in both English and French which was much appreciated. Miss Judy MacDonald, Cardigan, delighted the audience with a sword dance and Highland Fling. Accompanists were Mrs. D. M. MacDonald, Mrs. Ralph Beck, Mrs. Horace Fraser and George Boudreau. Total gross receipts from the benefit performance was $171.35, and following a few small expenses, the remainder will be turned over to the fund for the O'Halloran family.
