Heavy Entry List Makes Qualifying Round A 'Must'

MONTREAL (CP) — The Royal Canadian Golf Association announced Tuesday that a heavy entry list has necessitated a qualifying round for the Canadian Open golf championship.

The qualifying round will be played Tuesday, July 24, two days before the official championship play starts for the $30,000 prize money.

Entries now are near the 200 mark and more are expected by Sunday's deadline. Further entries are expected from Philadelphia where the U.S. PGA championship is to be played this week.

This will be the first time the 18-hole qualifying round has been necessary for the open in Montreal and the second time in Canada. The first qualifying round was held at the Toronto St. George's club two years ago.

Exempt from qualifying are players in specific categories outlined by the RCGA, the Canadian PGA and the US. PGA.

Covering amateurs and professionals alike, the RCGA has exempted past Canadian Open champions, former Canadian amateur titleholders, the amateur champions of the U.S., Britain, Mexico and Canada, and members of the Americas cup squads of the U.S. Mexico and Canada.

The Canadian PGA exempts players who were in the top 10 and ties at last year's CPGA title tournament in Quebec City, five leading pros in the 1961 Canadian Open, CPGA champions of the last five years and the pro at the host club—this year Jules Huot at Laval-sur-le-Lac.

U.S. PGA exemptions include the current U.S. Open champion, Jack Nicklaus, who already has entered the Canadian Open; the low 25 Americans at the 1961 Canadian Open, 40 leading money winners of last year and the low 60 players at the PGA championship which winds up Sunday.

Jacky Cupit of Longview, Texas, winner of top money last year at Winnipeg, is the defending Canadian Open champion.

The starting field July 26 will be restricted to 156.

Sport Is Raised To A New Dignity

By GEOFFREY MILLER

LONDON (AP) — Sport was raised to a new status of dignity this week. A sub-four minute-miler joined the British government.

Just seven years ago, Christopher Chataway was the hero of every British schoolboy.

He helped Roger Bannister crack the four-minute mile barrier in May, 1954. Then he did it himself — in 3 minutes 59.8 seconds. With the crowd standing and roaring in excitement he once beat Olympic champion Vladimir Kuts of Russia over 5,00 meters.

Since then he's been a television newscaster, captivating British housewives with his smooth manner and pearly white teeth.

Now he becomes parliamentary secretary to the ministry of education. And he's still only 31.

The British runner, elected to the House of Commons in 1959, will represent the British government in all House of Commons debates involving education in the absence of the minister of education.

"While studying at Oxford I wanted to be a newspaper parliamentary correspondent," Chataway says. "I soon found it was very hard to get in, so I gave up the idea.

"But the lure of the House was still there. I always thought I would be a member of Parliament, eventually."

In 1959 he was elected as Conservative member for Lewisham North, a South London suburb.

Those track victories seem a long way back now. As a parliamentarian, Chataway has been busy campaigning for the European Common Market, seeking help for refugees and colored immigrants and the end of capital punishment—plus, of course, more help for British and international sport.

"Sport remains one of the best ways of breaking down racial barriers," he said Tuesday.

EDMONTON (CP) — Edmonton Eskimo head coach Eagle Keys has trimmed the 1962 version of his Western Football Conference team to 47 it was announced Tuesday.

The roster must be reduced another 11 before Edmonton's first regular game Aug. 9. The seven cuts were all Canadians.

Dropped were fullbacks Ron Kelly, who has played with Saskatchewan Roughriders and Winnipeg Blue Bombers; centre Geoff Lucas, a University of Alberta Golden Bears graduate; quarterback Tony Rankel; end Dennis Beattie of Montreal; halfback John Klein of Regina; fullback Des Murphy, who has played with Regina Rams on the Manitoba - Saskatchewan junior football league; and Jim Meritt of Vancouver.

Eskimos are host to Toronto Argonauts in an exhibition game July 25.

FLAGS LOWERED

NEW YORK (AP)—The flags of nine nations dominated by the Soviet Union were lowered in silence at a ceremony across the street from the United Nations opening Captive Nations Week. More than 1,000 persons attended the ceremony to protest the domination of Albania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Estonia, Hungary, Lithuania, Poland, Romania and Latvia.

Shamrocks Defeat Pistons In City Softball Fixture

Benevolent Irish Society Shamrocks trounced Canadian Tire Pistons 5-1 in a well played City Softball League fixture at Victoria Park's old diamond last evening.

It was Joe Thistle who emerged as hero in the Irish triumph. Joe subdued the Pistons on four hits and didn't walk a single batter. He had the batters popping up all evening and 16 of the putouts were fly balls to the infield or outfield. Joe retired one by the strikeout route and four were out on infield grounders.

'Teet' Gregory went the distance on the mound for the Pistons and suffered the loss. His hardest knocks came in the third when he was tagged for five hits and three runs. The Irish had opened in the top of the first with two markers on a double, single and an error. In all 'Teet' gave up eight safeties. He fanned two and walked one.

Junior Dowling and Joe Thistle led the winners' hitting attack with two for three performances. All were singles.

Sterling Simms, centrefielder, banged out a double and a single in four attempts.

The Pistons scored their lone marker in the bottom of the first when they collected two of their four hits. No other Pistons managed to get as far as third base.

Paddy Shephard led the losers at bat with two singles in five trips.

This evening league action continues when National Park All-Stars entertain Parkdale Lions. Action starts at 6.30.

Yanks Blank Boston's Sox

BOSTON (AP)—Ralph Terry's four - hitter and rookie Tom Tresh's clutch single in the eighth inning produced New York Yankees' fifth straight victory tonight—a 1-0 decision over Boston Red Sox.

Tresh delivered a sharp single to right with two men out to score Hector Lopez from second base. Lopez and Clete Boyer had singled off loser Gene Conley in the eighth after the Sox pitcher had allowed only two singles in the first seven frames.

Terry, running his record to 12,8, struck out nine and walked three.

He went the distance for the seventh time this season, completing nearly half of New York's 16 full games by the pitching staff.

A crowd of 34,386—largest at Fenway Park in two years—saw Conley hold the Yanks in almost check through the first seven innings.

Mickey Mantle was playing centre field for New York for the first time in nearly two months. He had been playing right field since returning to the lineup after a leg injury.

June Byrd Does It Again

ONCE again the Greenbrier Farms mare, June Byrd, has proved her superiority over the other free-for-aliers in the Maritimes.

Monday night at Moncton, June copped both dashes of The Monctonian breaking the track record with her 2.04:4 performance. She again was the victor in the second trip in 2:05.1.

This is five straight dashes that the Poplar Byrd pacer has emerged as the winner in Maritime free-for-alls. That single dash at Sackville Downs started the victory parade. Next came The Evening Patriot Inaugural at Charlottetown Driving Park where June copped both miles over a track slowed by week long rains. After that came the excursion to Moncton and the breaking of that track's record.

Naturally Island racing fans are delighted with the showing of this great pacer. She has surely established herself as one of the speediest ever to campaign in these parts. We'd still like to see her get a crack at the Charlottetown record some hot sunny afternoon. That 2:03.4 mark made by Mighty Lee would be in real jeopardy.

We understand her next battle is at Saint John this Saturday night where another leg of the Maritime Circuit free-for-all will be raced. Once again June will undoubtedly be favorite and once again Island supporters will be looking for a double victory.

So to the owners and driver, Jack Ferguson, heartiest congratulations on this outstanding success. Sports Front hopes you have plenty more of the same.

Bill Gets New One

AND speaking of top notch free-for-allers, we must doff our hat to Bill Boyles who has added another speedster to his already classy stable.

Bill has Hi Jay coming to The Charlottetown Driving Park this week and according to the data on the Jay Herbert gelding, he should prove a mighty tough customer in future Maritime free-for-alls.

He has been in 2.03:4 this season and this alone should make other free-for-all owners sit up and take notice.

Bill is a great addition to the harness racing game in the Maritimes. He has one of the top stables and his aim certainly is to produce winners.

Undoubtedly a terrific rivalry will develop between Hi Jay and June Byrd. We aren't going to get into any controversy on the merits of either horse. But you can can bet your last dollar that Bill's idea in buying the Hi Jay was to attempt to stop the winning ways of June Byrd here in the Maritimes.

Bill faces a big task in checking the victory parade of the Greenbrier mare but he is quietly confident that Hi Jay will get his share of firsts in the Maritimes' big races.

Best of luck, Bill.

Schedule Nears End

THE City Softball League is in its last week of regular schedule play. The schedule was to have ended Monday night July 16 but several postponed games had to be run off. Now things are due to terminate on this coming Saturday afternoon. After that comes the playoffs.

The semi-finals and finals should produce some exciting contests. No team appears to have any great superiority over any other and nothing will be classified as an upset in the playoffs.

The loop has enjoyed fair success this season. We think that the players did more to keep spirit in the game than they did a year ago. Crowds haven't been too good but those things will all change in the playoffs.

You can expect a battle royal before The City Softball League produces a champion to oppose the Prince County winner for the provincial crown.

If you haven't been a regular softball fan, get in the mood now. Games will be plenty interesting from here on.

Shoot Starts Thursday

THE annual shoot of The Prince Edward Island Rifle Association begins tomorrow morning and continues through Saturday.

We understand a bigger number of entrants are ready than was the case a year ago. All we need now is for good weather to favor this annual get-together.

Good shooting, gentlemen.

Great Race Card Going At S'side

Another sizzling harness racing card goes tonight at Summerside Raceway where a large Lobster Carnival crowd is expected to witness the action.

Nine dashes make up this program and every one of them has a bumper list of entries. One single dash opens the night's show and after that four double dashes will complete the card.

Races five and nine appear like the pick of the excitement. Sid Stead has his good mare Jean Clegg on the choice rail position. Jean will be out of there in a hurry and it may be tough to upset her in that first trip of this feature. The other contenders are Sunny King, Myrtle E, Security Scott, Callie Hal, Victory Mac and Gay Laird.

There's a honey of a trot going in dashes three and seven. Seven high steppers are ready to fight it out in what should be one of the greatest trots of the season.

Harry Poulton has The Sheik on the rail. The Sheik trotted a mile in 2.08 Monday night at the CDP to give him a new race tab. Undoubtedly he will be the favorite with the mutuel bettors. But he has his work cut out for him with an opposition composed of Mary Leah, Miss Tom Scott, Ted Genessee, Stormy Song, Poplar Flash and Avalon Worthy. Here is a race that no harness racing fan should miss.

The rest of the action should have its own share of excitement and some juicy pays are most likely.

Action starts at 8 o'clock sharp.

Moss Goes A Few Yards

LONDON (Reuters)—Stirling Moss, Britain's ace car-racing driver who was seriously injured in a racing crash about three months ago, said Tuesday night he has driven since his accident.

But he added: "I have only driven a few yards so far."

Asked about reports that he had driven at 100 miles an hour since his crash, Moss said:

"That is completely untrue. What I may have said is that I am fit to drive at that speed if I want to.

"I could have done so the day I left hospital but I have not. A speed of 100 miles an hour means no more than 30 miles an hour to the average motorist."

Jets Beat Angels Team

Canadian Tire Jets picked up a Charlottetown Commercial Softball League decision last evening when they walloped Guardian Angels 20-11.

Barry Stevenson and Myron Weeks shared pitching duties for the winners. Barry went the first six innings before retiring in favor of Myron. The Angels collected ten hits off their combined offerings.

Bernard MacKinnon, the losing hurler, went the distance and was tagged for 11 hits.

Ernie Sellick led the Jets at bat with three hits in four trips. Ralph Kneebone of the Angels had a perfect night, going three for three.

Four Games Are Played

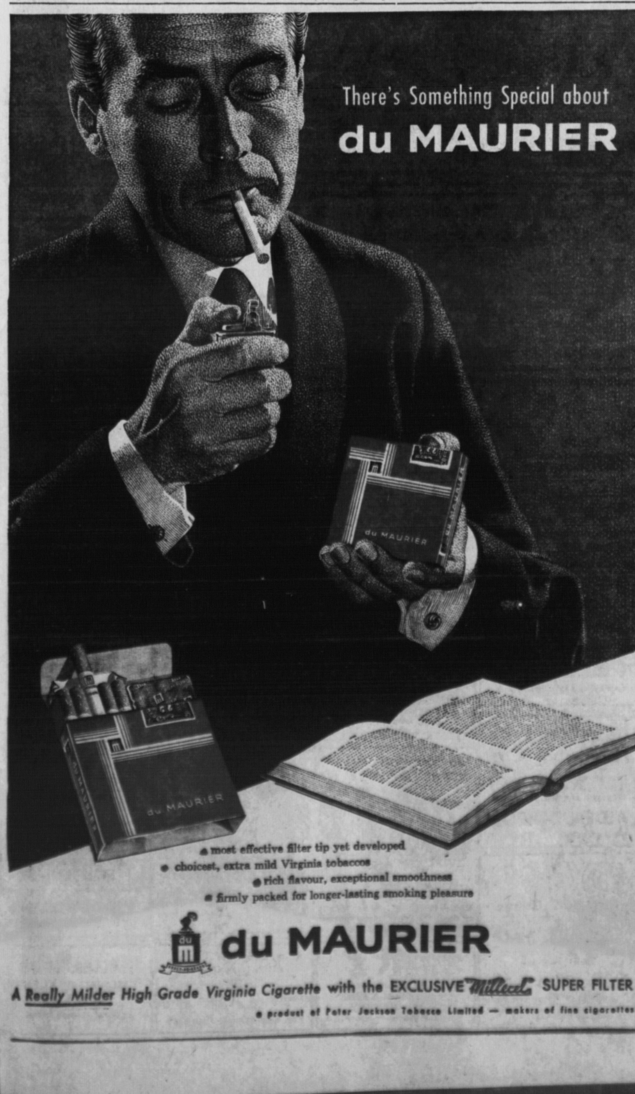
In minor league action yesterday, the Giants defeated the White Sox 13-5.

Andy MacKinnon pitched the win, while the hitting stars were Grant Killorn, Mike Connolly and Donnie MacLean. All had two hits.

In Little League action the Pirates edged the Braves 2-1. Wallie McCallum and Urbie MacDonald were hooked up in this tight pitchers' duel. Leonard Malone was the leading hitter with a two for four performance.

In other Little League action Dodgers downed Indians 12-7. Philip Ward gathered the win and also blasted a homer. Ronnie Carmichael and Gordie McCarville each had two hits.

In Bantam action, the Angels downed the Yankees 13-7. Allan Doucette got credit for the victory as he struck out 13.

Hitting stars were Brian Foley, Jimmy MacDougall, Ricky Gallant and Ian MacDonald. Each member of this quartet had two hits.


Ballem and MacDonald each blasted homers.
