Big Game At Toronto

TONIGHT finds Montreal Canadiens at Maple Leaf Gardens in a National Hockey League battle that means a whole lot to each club.

The Leafs and Habs are deadlocked for second place, five points behind the league-leading Chicago lack Hawks who have played one more game than either of the second-place clubs. The winner of tonight's struggle at Toronto will naturally be cheering for the Rangers to upset the Black Hawks who are visitors in Bigtown.

THE Toronto club has had the better of the argument so far this season with the men of Toe Blake. It has usually been the other way but so far in the 1962-63 campaign Punch Imlach's boys have been able to play their best hockey against the Montrealers. This doesn't necessarily mean that the Habs will lose this one tonight. Home ice means little or nothing this season. In fact many of the clubs of late are showing their best form on enemy territory.

If the Black Hawks come out of this weekend with their five point lead intact, it would appear as though it would be a difficult task to dislodge them for first place. However, should either Canadiens or Leafs gain ground in weekend action, then the battle for first place would still be raging.

Sunday Action

SUNDAY night the Leafs visit the Motor City for a game with Sid Abel's Wings and Chicago returns to friendly home ice for a tussle with Red Sullivan's Rangers. The Habs are visitors at Boston. It would appear as though the Hawks have the easiest looking weekend, but then you never do know what these lowly teams are going to do.

Bruins and Rangers are the very ones to hurt you and they usually do it at the most unexpected times. Canadiens found out what the Rangers can do. They fell 6-3 victims to Sullivan's crew last Wednesday in New York. Perhaps the Rangers can give the league leaders a taste of the same medicine.

Blame The Referees

IT'S LIKELY that the losing coach of tonight's game in Toronto will blame it all on the referee.

Toe Blake went wild and heaped insults upon Eddie Powers when Leafs triumphed 6-3 last week in Montreal. The easiest looking weekend, but then you never do know what these lowly teams are going to do.

Imlach kept shooting his mouth off all night about Frank Udvari.

It undoubtedly will be either Powers or Udvari tonight in Toronto but we have the strong idea that the referee will not be the cause of a team losing this battle. As Red Fisher wisely remarked last week in the Montreal Star, it's hockey teams that lose games, not referees. Too often coaches try to cover up for their ineffective clubs and we think that's exactly what Punch and Toe were doing when they made their recent silly utterances.

IT'S all the way you view this thing. Undoubtedly Leafs thought Powers was a great fellow after they beat Canadiens in Montreal. He had awarded them a penalty shot and chased Geoffrion from the rink with a game misconduct. Blake, on the other hand, shouted to high heaven about Power's inefficiency. He thought the guy was horrible and he told the men of the press what he was thinking.

To a slightly lesser degree, Imlach tried to belittle Udvari for his handling of the game in Chicago. His Leafs had lost and this guy Frank Udvari was the cause of it.

Probably next week Blake will be singing the praises of Powers and Punch will be telling everybody what a splendid fellow Mr. Udvari is.

It's all pretty silly.

Coach Mulligan Happy

PLAYING on the St. Dunstan's Varsity hockey team isn't all the hockey clones that Vince Mulligan has at the Malpeque Road College.

Vince is coaching the St. Dunstan's High School team, an entrant in the P.E.I. intercollegiate 'A' league. Vince's boys are flying, winning their first three starts, 5-1 over S'side High, 11-0 over PWC and 9-2 over Montague. He has a well balanced squad, with good scoring forwards and a strong defence. His goaltender, Carl McDuald, sports a 1.00 average.

Today the Saints play S'side at the college rink at 3.30 and Vince hopes for a large turnout of fans.

You'll enjoy the brand of hockey these fellows play. Go out and see them in action.

JACK Ready, physical educator at Queen Charlotte High School, informs us that the general public is invited to take their youngsters to the High School rink Saturday afternoon and all day Sunday. However, he stresses that no persons with hockey sticks will be allowed on the ice.

THE FERN SEEL rink from RCAF Summerside was crowned champion of the ladies' provincial Silver 'D' bonspiel following a lopsided 14-2 victory over the Marion MacDonald foursome of Charlottetown at the City Curling Club last night. Jerry Carroll (centre) manager of the Charlottetown Dominion store, presents the Silver 'D' shield, emblematic of Island supremacy to members of the winning rink (l to r) Fern Seel, skip; Bernice Cook, mate; Kay Hoare, second and Elsie Farquhar, lead.

Seel Tops MacDonald 14-2 To Clinch Silver 'D' Ch'ship

"I am certain after the way they curled all week that they will represent P.E.I. well in the Diamond 'D' bonspiel in Saint John later this month".

These words by Mrs. Inez Gallant, president of the Island Ladies' Curling Ass'n, generally expressed the feelings of curling enthusiasts who watched the Fern Seel rink from RCAF Summerside capture the provincial Silver 'D' bonspiel last night by defeating the Marion MacDonald rink of Charlottetown by a 14-2 score.

The Seel foursome, playing perhaps their best game of the week, were magnificent at both the draw and knockout game, and no matter how difficult the ice play appeared they always managed to find the solution.

This was the second conquest for Seel over MacDonald and the westerners suffered their only setback to the City Club finalists.

The RCAF quartet allowed MacDonald to score in only two ends, singletons in the second and fifth while they scored one in the 2nd, one in the 3rd, two in the 4th, and blanked the locals in the last four ends with the MacDonald rink conceding the victory at the end of the ninth.

The new champs were sparked by a 9-2 margin after taking a 4-ender in the seventh and clinched the victory with another 4-ender in the ninth.

OTHER VICTORIES

Other rinks that the Seel quartet defeated along the road to the championship were Berdie Howatt 14-3, V. Sheen 9-7, I. MacLellan 12-4, M. Nicholson 8-7 and Pauline Burden 14-6.

The RCAF foursome, comprised of Elaine Farquhar, lead; Kay Hoare, second; Bernice Cook, mate and Fern Seel, was the only formed a short time ago and the only stiff competition they encountered prior to the provincial event was the Crockett competition, won by Pauline Burden.

Their only other competitions came in exhibition games. Two of the curlers had flown in from western provinces and two from the Maritimes. Bernice Cook is from Brandon, Manitoba and skip Seel, the veteran on the rink with something like eight years experience, comes from Calgary, Farquhar is from Mahone Bay and Hoare from Westville, Nova Scotia.

Members of the runner-up rink are Velma Audrew, lead; Isobel MacDonald, second; Marie Toole, mate and Marion MacDonald, skip.

Following the deciding contest last night Jerry Carroll, manager of the Charlottetown Dominion store presented the Silver 'D' shield, emblematic of Island supremacy to skip Seel along with Silver 'D' pins and crests to each member of the winning rink.

Members of the runner-up rink were presented with bronze pins and crests.

Here is the final linescore:

Acadia, SDU Play 6-6 Tie In Intercollegiate Tussle

Acadia Axemen and St. Dunstan's Varsity battled to a 6-6 tie in a Maritime Intercollegiate Hockey League fixture at St. Dunstan's rink last night.

The Axemen, trailing 3-3 early in the final period, fired three goals to grab a 6-5 lead at the 12.37 mark and the Red and Whiters were forced to battle from behind to gain a split in the two-point contest. It was George Dalton's goal that forced the stalemate.

The Jack Kane coached crew were far below their form of their last three outings and all out blew the game to the visiting Nova Scotians. The locals couldn't seem to get their passing plays clicking and they showed a definite weakness behind their own blueline.

On the other hand, the Axemen fought hard throughout and, although underdogs before the battle commenced, they richly deserved the split in the points.

Murray put the visitors ahead at 4.14 of the first from a wild scramble close in. The Saints had trouble getting the equalizer and it didn't come until 15.56 when Jimmy Cullen sank Vince Mulligan's pass. Less than two minutes later Billy, the other half of the Mulligan duet, rifled one home to give the Mapeque Road lads a 2-1 edge entering the second.

SQUARE MATCH

However the Axemen didn't take too long to square the affairs in the second, Murray beating Butch Callaghan at 2.59. The Wolfville students kept up the pressure and Saints' guard was down again when Hogan fired the third Acadia goal and Axemen led 3-2. Less than a minute after Hogan's tally, Bob Marshall took Vince Mulligan's pass and slid a true job of hitting payd'rt. Six minutes later Dick Tingley closed out the scoring for the session and the Kanemen once again had a one goal margin.

That set the stage for the third and Billy Mulligan's goal at 49 seconds looked like the clincher. But the Axemen roared back and shot forced the locals to the limit before giving up the equalizer.

Referee Judson called eleven minor penalties and the Axemen led 7-4 in this department.

Saints host St. Thomas Tommies here Sunday afternoon at 2.30. The Tommies are rated one of the best outfits in the circuit and the locals should have a busy afternoon if they hope to upset the Chatham scholars.

SUMMARY

Penguins Down Combines 5-2

SUMMERSIDE — The Old Spain Penguins struck for three goals early in the first period, and then held the Combines even for the rest of the game to defeat the Prince County team 5-2 at Civic Stadium before a rather small crowd last night.

The Combines played disorganized hockey until the score was 4-0 against them in the second period, then woke up to force the play for the greater part of the remainder of the game. But a penalty to Walsh at 13.21 of the third period gave the Baby Birds a man advantage which they capitalized on to score their fifth goal and salt the game away.

Fisticuffs developed between Garry Bursey and Hook Walsh late in the third period, and two minutes after when a Penguin player was cut by Vance Harris's stick, and lay on the ice, Bucko Trainor jumped on the ice with the play still going on, and the Penguins were assessed a bench penalty which McConnell served.

When coach Trainor protested this penalty too vigorously he was given a game misconduct by referee Don Whelan.

SCORES FIRST GOAL

Stan Peardon got the first goal at 3.44, firing a shot when he was almost even with the net. The puck hit Mann and caromed behind him. Two minutes later Bursey set up Ronnie Gallant at goal mouth to make the score 2-0. Whitlock batted home Peardon's shot rebound to make it 3-0 a short over a minute later, and there was no further scoring for the remaining 13 minutes of the period.

The teams split a brace of goals in each of the other two periods. Peardon's flip shot eluded Mann at 12.41 and Alan Andrews fired the puck past Frizzell from almost 15 feet out five minutes later.

Vance Harris netted the disk after 5 minutes of play in the third period, faking a shot and then letting go from left wing to catch the upper left corner of the cage. The Combines forced the play after that and kept Frizzell busy, but Whitlock's goal with Walsh off at 14.39 seemed to take a lot of the steam out of the Combine attack.

SUMMARY

First Period — 1. Penguins-S. Peardon 3.44; 2. Penguins R. Gallant (G. Bursey) 5.50; 3. Penguins — G. Whitlock (S. Peardon, D. Lawlor) 7.02. Penalties - G. Whitlock, 8.24, C. Sark 8.24, B. Grady 19.06.

Second Period: 4. Penguins-Peardon (Whitlock) 12.41; 5. Combines - A. Andrews (U. Gallant) 17.04. Penalty — G. Bursey 17.22.

Toronto-Montreal Game Features Weekend NHL

BY THE CANADIAN PRESS

If a coach's frame of mind has anything to do with winning hockey games, Toronto Maple Leafs should whomp Montreal Canadiens at Toronto tonight.

The teams are tied for second place in the National League standing and go into this rare clash intent on shaking loose from one another. Canadiens have been chased out of their Forum home by an ice show.

Both want a clean shot at Chicago Black Hawks, who hold a five-point bulge at the top of the six-team circuit. And Hawks have a comparatively easy weekend with a home-and-home series against weak-sister New York Rangers.

All of this makes the Montreal-Toronto game an important one and the rival coaches have been preparing in different ways.

Hector Blake and George Imlach, better known as Toe and Punch, are no strangers with the different frames of mind.

PUNC HBASKS

Imlach, the Leaf boss, has been basking in sunny California on a scouting mission. He should be in a relaxed frame of mind.

Things have been warm for Montreal's Blake, too. But the heat wasn't from the sun. In addition to his thoughts of beating the Leafs, Mr. Blake must have been devoting some time to thoughts about the outcome of a league investigation.

On top of this, Blake's frame of mind wasn't helped during the week when Canadiens blew a 3-1 lead to the Rangers and eventually lost 6-3.

NHL President Clarence Campbell is looking into Blake's reported description of referee Eddie Powers' ability as an official. He had some unkind things to say about Powers last week after a game at Montreal.

It could cost him money—depending on Mr. Campbell's frame of mind.

HAWKS FAVORED

The big, strong Hawks will be favored to pick up points against the fifth-place Rangers. They meet tonight at New York and Sunday at Chicago.

With this in mind, Canadiens and Leafs will be shooting hard for a win.

The rested Leafs have had a great time while Imlach was away. The effervescent King Clancy, assistant coach and manager, took over and three days in a row only volunteers indulged in light ice manoeuvres.

They rollicked through a 75-minute scrimmage Thursday and Clancy figured the layoff did them some good.

"But if it hasn't done them any good then I'm in trouble," he said. "I might lose my job. I've been too soft with them all week but it does seem to be getting results. I have never seen this crew in better spirits or better physical condition."

No one can say for sure who the goaltenders will be. Montreal has been using lanky Cesare Manaigo as a replacement for injured Jacques Plante, but Plante is reported ready to return.

Leafs are expected to go with Don Simmons, although veteran Johnny Bower, too, seems ready to play now that his injured ankle is sound.

"I'd have to say Simmons will play goal," says Clancy. "I don't know what Punch has in mind, but I think he'll go with Simmons. Bower is okay, but a little more rest won't do him any harm."

When the teams finish with one another Saturday, Canadiens head for Boston and Leafs go to Detroit for Sunday games.

The fourth - place Red Wings have given Leafs trouble all season.

Bruins? They haven't given anyone much trouble.

Birds Going To Halifax

Old Spain Penguins are off for Halifax today for an exhibition game with an all-star team from the Halifax Dartmouth Junior League.

The Baby Birds are being hailed by Nova Scotians as one of the strongest junior clubs since the Royals of 1939. Halifax-Dartmouth promoters were expressing these views in statements to the Halifax press.

The locals are expected to give a good account of themselves in the Nova Scotia capital. It will be their third straight game in three nights but youth has a way of overcoming fatigue.

Reg 'Nails' Profitt will play in nets for the Penguins in Halifax and Cliff Sentner, newly acquired goaltender is not making the trip. However, it is expected that Sentner will start action in the Island Intermediate 'A' League next week. Also missing on this jaunt to Halifax will be Dave Lawlor, Dave Gaudet and Jim Cullen. The latter is busy performing with St. Dunstan's Varsity. Saints entertained Acadia Axemen last night and put out the welcome mat for St. Thomas Tommies Sunday afternoon.

The Penguins are making the trip by car and will return to the province Sunday.

Tignish Takes Game

Tignish Regional High School hockey team defeated Alberton High 5-3 in an exhibition game in Tignish.

In the opening frame Roger Pedersen chalked up a pair for Tignish and R. Profit, Kerry Campbell and Peter Larter got one each for the visitors to make the score 3-2 for Tignish.

In the middle frame Tignish outscored Alberton for three markers as Bill Harper, R. Pedersen and R. Shea got one each.

There was no scoring in the final period.

Referees Hilton Barbour Jr., and Gerald Kepugh handed out two penalties to each team.

Hoop Game Goes Tonight

A City Basketball League game is slated tonight at 6 o'clock between the Phalanx and St. Dunstan's teams at the YMCA.
