Saigon riot policemen order away a Buddhist monk who was with a group of anti-government demonstrators Monday in front of the downtown student headquarters. The monk and other demonstrators retreated to the Buddhist National Institute, the "Vien Hoa Dao." Demonstrations continued through the day and night against the government of South Vietnamese Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, as well as the United States. (AP Wirephoto by radio from Saigon)

Canadian-American Issues Are Discussed At Meeting

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) A major problem in Canadian-American relations is most Americans—and some Canadians—do not think of Canada as an independent nation, representatives of the two nations said here.

In foreign policy, a panel of four agreed Canada can best co-operate with the United States by acting independently in such roles as mediator and experimenter.

They addressed about 75 Canadian and American college students at a conference on Canadian-American relations.

"The American people seek so much from a country whose independence they recognize so little," said Douglas Bailey, former research fellow at Harvard's school of international relations.

If Canada does not act independently, "what is the sense in being a different country?" asked Gerard Pelletier, Liberal member of Parliament for Montreal Hochelaga. But, he

Hate Literature Curbs Suggested

OTTAWA (CP)—New criminal laws are needed to curb the dissemination of hate propaganda aimed at ethnic or religious minorities, a special committee reported Monday.

A committee set up a year ago by the federal government and headed by Maxwell Cohen, McGill University law dean, recommends three new Criminal Code sections to prohibit the advocacy of genocide and incitement to group hatred.

Advocacy of genocide would be punishable by five years' imprisonment. Inciting hatred against any identifiable group, where such incitement is likely to lead to a breach of the peace, would be punishable by two years' imprisonment.

MONTAGUE

A shower was held in Valleyfield hall in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Keir Squires (the former Linda Sorrie of Montague). Verses were read by Ethel Knox. Gifts were opened by Kathryn McLeod and presented by Linda Hicken. Lunch was served by the ladies and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mrs. Seliger Warren and two children, Montague, will leave in the near future to return to Norway.

Shirley Adams, Victoria Cross, will spend some time visiting friends and relations in Boston, Mass.

Barbara Matheson, Charlottetown, was a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Matheson, Albion Cross and Nancy Kerr, Montague.

The Brooklyn 4-H club members bowled Saturday at the Murray River alleys. Score keepers were Hector Matheson, Mrs. John McKinnon and Mary Heather MacKinnon.

Mrs. A.N. MacPherson, Kilmuir, left recently for Millinocket, Maine, to visit her brother and sister-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. John MacLeod and to visit with relatives in Boston, Mass., before going to Hamilton, Ont., where she will spend some time with her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Merrill MacPhail and their family.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Tatterlie, Heatherdale, left last week to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Tatterlie, and other members of their family in Brantford, Ont., and their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart in Centralia, Ont.

DAMAGE ART WORKS LONDON (Reuters) — Three portraits owned by the Queen were pricked through the eyes while on view to the public at Kensington Palace, a royal spokesman said Monday. "The damage is not very bad and it is believed the portraits can be restored," he said.

"some Canadians say Canada can't afford to have a foreign policy of its own." Wallace Nesbitt, Progressive Conservative MP for Oxford, objected to interference by the U.S. state department in Canada's foreign affairs and in the activities of American subsidiary corporations in Canada.

NEED EACH OTHER "The general wish is that Canada remain independent but have the closest co-operation with the United States," he said. "The two nations cannot survive without each other."

U.S. Representative Frank Horton (Rep., N.Y.) said an American problem is that people are not aware of the potential of Canadian-American relations, especially as an example for the rest of the world.

Pelletier said Americans are uninformed about Canada and generally take their neighbor for granted.

He added, "There is a degree of American displeasure we can stand." He would go to any lengths to oppose sending of a Canadian expeditionary force to Viet Nam.

Nesbitt suggested Canada might send medical personnel, but could not send military forces because of its membership in the International Control Commission, which with India and Poland supervises the 1954 Geneva accords on Indochina.

Only Nesbitt opposed Canadian membership in the Organization of American States.

Bankruptcies Heavy In Que.

OTTAWA (CP)—The province of Quebec has consistently reported more than half of Canada's bankruptcies in each of the last six years, the Commons was told Monday.

Justice Minister Cardin revealed in a written return for Gerard Laprise (Creditiste-Chapleau) that of 27,213 bankruptcies registered in Canada since 1959, 14,781 occurred in Quebec.

The return reported the Canadian figure in 1965 as 5,003 and the Quebec figure as 2,524.

Mr. Cardin said the government has no information to indicate that any money was lost to the government because of loopholes in the Bankruptcy Act. In reply to another question by Mr. Laprise, Mr. Cardin said the federal government has no way of knowing how many fraudulent bankruptcies have occurred because their investigation and prosecution is a provincial responsibility.

Studebaker Corp. Meeting Delayed

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) Federal Judge Noel P. Fox Monday ordered an indefinite postponement of Studebaker Corp.'s annual meeting scheduled for April 28 in New York.

The order restrained both Studebaker and an insurgent group of stockholders from soliciting further proxies.

Studebaker filed a complaint before Judge Fox last Thursday charging that Allied Products Corp., Burt S. Kleiner and Kleiner, Bell and Co. of California were engaged in "an unlawful conspiracy" to take over its assets.

The suit was filed in Grand Rapids since both Studebaker and Allied Products have plants in the west Michigan area.

The court order makes a scheduled date of next Monday only an appearance date to fix a time of hearing.

Canada's Wealth Needs Watching

TORONTO (CP) — Canada must be more careful with its wealth than the United States because Canada has less, Citizenship Minister Jean Marchand said Monday.

He said at a Canadian Club luncheon here that many forms of free enterprise known in the U.S. are not possible here because of limited resources and markets.

The minister said Canada couldn't afford such things as several airlines competing over the same routes, because of the limited market for air transport. "That doesn't mean that there shouldn't be any free enterprise in Canada—I think there should be and is freedom for enterprise in Canada."

Truck Fires Are Reported

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP)—Strikebound trucking companies in the Hamilton, Brantford and Kitchener areas are stepping up security measures in the wake of a rash of truck fires.

A spokesman of the Motor Transport Bureau said that five truck fires have been reported at Hamilton and three at Kitchener. There was vandalism in Welland as well, the spokesman said.

Spokesmen for the Independent Teamsters union said they did not condone violence by strikers. They denied any knowledge of the fires until they read about them in the paper.
