We feel proud to be able to boast that we have a friend that is one of the hardest men in the world. He has been reading the Patriot for twenty years and he is not dead yet.

As a result to the extensive improvements he is making at present, our friend Mr. John Murphy, of Southport, will soon be in a better position than ever to cater to the wants of the travelling public. Owing to his unfailing geniality and courtesy Mr. Murphy has won the respect and esteem of every one who has had the pleasure of accepting his hospitality.

The picnic at China Point on Monday was a success in every respect, and not one event occurred excepting a shower of rain in the morning to mar the harmony of this pleasant social gathering. The steamer brought a large number of people from the city. The band of the League of the Cross was there, while the strains of the bagpipes and violin also added to the enjoyment of the occasion. The tables and saloons were filled with all the delicacies and good things of the season, while some of the finest and best looking ladies in the province graced the grounds with their presence.

A curious custom—marriage by neighbors. We have been recently reading about some curious marriage customs in foreign lands. But we think the most curious marriage customs of all are in vogue in many parts of this province. Briefly there are three 'stages' in this drama. No. 1: A young man goes twice in one month to a house where a young lady lives. He is immediately reported to be "courting" the girl. No. 2: He is seen speaking to the lady at a concert, picnic, etc. Then the neighbors "engage" them. No. 3: These two young people are seen walking or riding together. That settles it. Their doom is sealed; and their friends proceed at once and "marry" them.
