Card Of Thanks

I wish to thank the Doctors, Nurses, teachers and priests, also all my friends at Provincial Sanatorium for the spiritual and medical care given to me there as a patient, also all kind friends who sent me letters, cards and treats.

Clara Croken, Emerald, P. E. I.

Card Of Thanks

I take this opportunity to extend my sincere thanks to my Drs. J. A. and Frank MacMillan and Dr. Coady, the clergymen, Sisters, Nurses, Orderlies and staff of the City Hospital for their many acts of kindness during my stay and successful operation, those who sent gifts, letters, cards, flowers etc. To the many nurses and others from Charlottetown and Country who called to see me in my convalescent days.

Adrian Murray, Albany P. E. I.

Card Of Thanks

I wish to extend my sincere thanks to the Doctors, Nurses, Nurses aides, and staff of the Prince County Hospital for their many acts of kindness, those who sent letters, flowers, cards and fruit and those who visited me during my illness.

Mrs. Alex B. MacFarlane, Bedouque.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

boy to have his arm around his girl while walking down the street? M. J. R. ANSWER: My dear, it is deplorable etiquette! However—it is romance, and whenever does the protocol of social procedure decree that love must hide in the background? I guess as long as we have young people, bless them, we'll have young sweethearts walking down the street with their arms around each other, and only the most hardened misanthrope will criticize.

DEAR MISS DIX: I'm 17, and have been going with a boy for the past few months. Last night he walked home from town and asked if I would accept an engagement ring. Do you think I should? After all, I've only known him a few months.

ANSWER: You should refuse the ring on the grounds of your extreme youth, as well as for the short acquaintance.

Miss Nilsen cannot reply personally to readers but will answer problems of general interest through this column.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Albert J. MacDonald, who departed this life May 20th, 1951.

Peacefully sleeping Resting at last. The world's weary troubles and trials are past In silence he suffered, in patience he bore Till God called him home to suffer no more.

Inserted by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear Father, Hessel MacNevin, who departed this life, May 5th, 1951.

Sad and with sorrow was the call Of our dear Father loved by all. We little thought that on that day Our dear Father would be called away. He is gone, but not forgotten, And, as dawn another year, In our lonely hours of thinking Thoughts of him are always dear.

Always remembered by daughter, Jennie and Son-in-law, Abbie, and Family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband, William MacKay, who passed away May 20, 1950.

Somewhere back of the sunset Where all is good and fair In that land of perfect beauty I will meet my husband there.

Sadly missed by wife Mrs. Christine MacKay 214 Queen St., Charlottetown.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Percy Affeck, who died May 20, 1951.

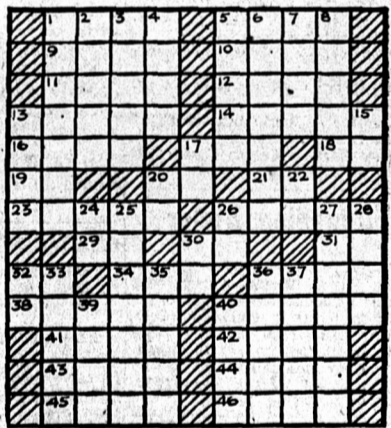

I have only your memory dear father, To remember my whole life through But the sweetness will linger forever,

As I treasure the image of you. Lovingly remembered by son Fred.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it: A X Y D L B A A X R is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation: A E A T J H E O, E W W K N W T E E W K N A V E E N O M Y V H K A - O W G J C

Yesterday's Cryptogram: HAUGHTILY HE COCKS HIS NOSE, TO TELL WHAT EVERY SCHOOLBOY KNOWS—SWIFT.
