BRISTOL

With the lobster season over the packing plant at Red Head will swing into the processing of other kinds of fish we understand, with that old veteran of the packing plant Gerald Barry, as foreman.

Mrs. Margaret Sinnott, and some members of her immediate family left on Monday by car on an extended visit to Upper Canada, after spending three days at the shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre, during the annual pilgrimage they will go to Ottawa to visit Mrs. Sinnott's daughter and husband and from there to Toronto, and Hamilton, where other members of the family are married and last to Mitchel, Ontario to visit a son Owen, a butter maker there and his wife the former Lois Eldershaw, of Morell, they will not return home until the first week in August.

It is with regret that the people of this vicinity bid farewell to the pastor of the two Catholic churches here this week Right Rev. Msgr. John Sullivan, after a one-year stay the ever popular father is going to duties in Souris, and despite our regret it is only right to wish him success in his new field. The first pastor this vicinity ever had after the new church was made a separate parish was that beloved and late Father Joe Rooney.

Fifty years is quite a while but Mrs. Florence Condon, who last visited Bristol, as a girl in 1913, is coming back this summer for the first time to visit relatives and old friends and see again her mother's old home and visit her last living aunt, Mrs. James A. O'Brien, who resides at the Sacred Heart Home. Well along in life now, Mrs. Condon, says "I have long waited for this day." While here she will be the guest of Mabel O'Brien, and her sister, Mrs. P.R. Sinnott and Mr. and Mrs. W.A. O'Brien in Charlottetown

Welcome visitors here now are the Kelly sisters Bernadette and Patricia. Pat as she is known, is Mrs. Billy Clark, and resides in Florida while Bernie lives in New York City. They are visiting their mother, Mrs. Viney Kelly and their sisters and brothers here and in Charlottetown and Summerside and plan to be home a few weeks to see their scores of old friends.

Miss Geraldine O'Brien and her cousin Mazie Burns, will leave here Sunday for Halifax, N.S., for a week's vacation with relatives. Mazie will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Roach, while Geraldine will stay with her cousins Donna and Bronnie Campbell, daughters of the late Mary O'Brien Campbell.
