

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

FEBRUARY 18, 1895.

THE HON. SENATOR ARSENAULT.

There are few persons in this Province who will not unite with The Examiner in heartily congratulating the Hon. Joseph O. Arsenault upon his promotion to the Senate of Canada.

them to take the figure of $36,000,000; they can take no less. How are they going to raise it? What can they raise taxation upon? They can raise a portion on liquors and tobaccos; but they cannot raise $500,000 more upon them than we raise now, because they are taxed to the highest point, and a higher taxation would bring less money, because it would be an incentive to smuggling.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Mr. W. B. Newsome, President of the Young Men's Liberal Conservative Association in the city of Toronto declares that the interests of Canada and of the Liberal Conservative Party are identical and claims that an enthusiastic young Canadian can be nothing but a Conservative.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

UNFAITHFUL REPRESENTATIVES SHOWN UP.

Sir,—On the 13th instant, I received what I thought was a special favor from the Patriot newspaper; viz— a copy of the Daily Patriot of the 7th, with an article entitled "The Tory Phonograph," marked very clearly with red ink. A little enquiry has revealed the fact that this same issue of the Daily Patriot has been scattered broadcast over the District with this editorial marked in red ink in the same way, so that the Patriot has not, after all, been paying me a special favor, beyond what I believe has been done in hundreds of cases all over Belfast and Murray Harbor.

The lame excuses of the Patriot will not be accepted as far as the railway to Belfast and Murray Harbor is concerned. In view of the whole course of the Patriot and the Grit Party in regard to the Branch Railway to Belfast, I would suppose they would be last to go to any such lengths.

—The Examiner's correspondent "Truth," a prominent and respectable resident of Belfast—declares that shortly before the last election Mr. L. H. Davies "promised faithfully" if returned, to advocate and carry out strong resolutions to have the Belfast and Murray Harbor Railway built.

—The Montreal Witness described Mr. Patterson's effort in the recent Grit meeting in Montreal in extravagant terms as demolishing protectionist arguments and lifting the audience up to clear heights of economic vision.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

Hon. J. O. Arsenault Called to the Senate.

REV. DR. CARMAN IS MISTAKEN.

OTTAWA, Feb. 18. At the meeting of the Cabinet held on Saturday every minister was present, Senator Ferguson coming up from P. E. Island to attend it.

Two official announcements were made: one that Hon. J. O. Arsenault, formerly a member of the P. E. Island Government, has been called to the Senate in succession to Lieutenant-Governor Howland, and the other that Tuesday, the 26th, has been set apart as the day for hearing the appeal of the Roman Catholic minority of Manitoba for remedial legislation.

The statement made by the Rev. Dr. Carman that the Government paid for a Requiem Mass for the repose of the soul of Sir John Thompson, is given a direct denial by the Premier.

Terrible Experience at Sea.

HALIFAX, Feb. 18. The steamer Salisbury, four days from Gibraltar for New York, was towed in here yesterday by the steamer St. Jerome. The former had a terrible experience, being obliged to burn spars and masts for fuel.

A Short Session Probable.

HALIFAX, Feb. 18. The Halifax Herald's Ottawa correspondent is of opinion that a short session of parliament will be held before the elections.

A Large Railway Deficit.

LONDON, Feb. 18. The Grand Trunk Railway accounts for the half year ending Dec. 31st are available. They show a deficit of £174,400.

DR. CARMAN'S MISTAKE.

This denial by the Premier of the false report that a requiem mass for Sir John Thompson was paid for by the Government will, we presume, be accepted as satisfactory upon the point. If the report had been true, there would certainly have been ground for the protest entered by Dr. Carman. In this country of civil and religious freedom we are all at perfect liberty to worship God in our own way. But it is a well established principle that public money contributed out of the pockets of all sorts and conditions of men shall not be spent in payment of the cost of religious services, whether ordinary or special. In the case of a State funeral, however, there can be no objection to payment out of the public exchequer for all those emblems of sorrow and hangings in the church by which the national mourning is expressed. "If," as the Montreal True Witness remarks, "Sir John Thompson were still a Methodist at the hour of his death, his state funeral would have been conducted according to the forms of that church and no Canadian would find fault." No Roman Catholic member of any other denomination found fault when Sir John was buried at the public expense according to the forms and ceremonies of the Church of England. The True Witness repeats Dr. Carman's charge in strong terms, and says:

"If the general doctor refers to the Ottawa requiem service we can inform him that he has never had to contribute one cent to it, nor has any other unbeliever in Transubstantiation and Purgatory. He will find that the whole proceedings, decorations, music, ceremonies, service, &c., were paid for by Catholics—whether they were members of the government, in the employ of the government, or otherwise, matters not."

In view of this statement, and of Premier Bove's positive denial, it is greatly to be regretted that Dr. Carman preferred his charge and accompanied it with such remarks as "sleepless aggression," etc., clearly unwarranted in this case. Dr. Carman ought, before he spoke, to have been sure of his facts.

FARMERS AND PRICES.

We make the following extract from the speech of the Finance Minister at Sherbrooke:

"Now, farmers, one more thought to you. They say you should get better prices for your products and better prices for your farm lands. Well, give you better prices for your products to have no single advantage in any market in the world open to you, and with exports of nearly $400,000,000 a year from the United States right along through your doors. Does not every farmer know he can only send a small proportion of his stuff to Great Britain? Does not every farmer know that a large proportion of his products, and the most profitable to him, are those he raises and makes merchandise of right in his own markets, Montreal, Sherbrooke, Coaticook, and in the villages and towns all about you—products of a class which you would not send to Great Britain, but which you must sell, or it would be impossible to farm? . . . The price of the products you can raise upon a farm depends on the case and facility with which you can put them into the consumers' hands. (Applause.) If your own home market is taken from you, and as it will be by Mr. Laurier's policy, and you are obliged to depend for the most on what you will make merchandise of on a market three thousand miles away, where the competition of the United States will make your prices lower, how do you propose to get better prices for the products of your farms? When Sir Richard says that free trade would add $10 to the value of every horse, $4 to the value of every pig, $40 to every cow and so much to every acre of land, is it a high-sounding thing, but bring it down to your own analysis as farmers, and is it not moonshine? It is worse; it is deception. There is not a shadow of truth in an assertion of that kind."

The second difficulty with Mr. Laurier's policy is, if you have free trade as it is in Great Britain, and take away a protective tariff, you have still to raise your revenue, and I defy anyone to go into power at Ottawa and run the affairs of the country as they must be run, unless on a taxation or import or revenue of $36,000,000 a year. We have spent during the last five or six years from $36,000,000 to $45,000,000 a year. Give them the margin, and ask them to take the figure of $36,000,000; they can take no less. How are they going to raise it? What can they raise taxation upon? They can raise a portion on liquors and tobaccos; but they cannot raise $500,000 more upon them than we raise now, because they are taxed to the highest point, and a higher taxation would bring less money, because it would be an incentive to smuggling. You can get $10,000,000 from them, and it is every cent you can get. The earnings of this country are $8,000,000. Suppose that out of things not grown or made in this country, foreign goods of luxury, tea and coffee, etc., you can raise $4,000,000 more, and that on the outside, you still have $14,000,000 more to raise. How are you going to raise it? Under the principles of free trade, as in England, there is no way under Heaven to raise it except by a direct tax of some kind or another taken from the pocket of the people; and in direct taxation it invariably happens that the poor man pays the largest share. But this country is not ready for direct taxation."

—The Examiner's correspondent "Truth," a prominent and respectable resident of Belfast—declares that shortly before the last election Mr. L. H. Davies "promised faithfully" if returned, to advocate and carry out strong resolutions to have the Belfast and Murray Harbor Railway built.

—The Montreal Witness described Mr. Patterson's effort in the recent Grit meeting in Montreal in extravagant terms as demolishing protectionist arguments and lifting the audience up to clear heights of economic vision.

—The Halifax Herald's Ottawa correspondent is of opinion that a short session of parliament will be held before the elections.
