

Swim Record Is Impressive

BORDEN — On Saturday the often called best marathon swimmer competing in the world today will have to be the odds on favorite to win the $1-200 first place money in the Northumberland Strait Swim.

Herman Willense, a 30-year-old grade school teacher from Utrecht, Holland, turned profeasonal after being amateur champion of Holland 13 times. In 1928 Willense competed professionally for the first time in the last race held across the English Channel. He finished second.

That same summer he competed in and won the 24 mile Atlantic City swim. His victory was termed a "lucky win" by the sports writers in Atlantic City. He has returned and won the swim every summer since then, last year beating his closest rival by an hour and seven minutes.

In addition to his five wins at Atlantic City, he has twice won the Lake Ontario swim and is the current record holder for those 15 miles. He has been a three time winner in the 24 mile Lake St. John swim. He has placed in the top four in the Suzer Canal swim and the 30 mile Santa Fe - Cordoba swim in Argentina.

Herman Willense is about six feet tall and weighs 170 pounds. When asked what he said he said "between swims I eat almost anything I can get my hands on. When I swam the English Channel I was in the water 12 hours and I lost 12 pounds. Last year when the season was over and I returned to Holland I was 22 pounds lighter than when I left in the beginning of the summer."

During the winter in Holland he teaches grade four and five in small Dutch village near Utrecht. This spring he was

Tories Complain About Heckling

OTTAWA (CP)—David Orlow (NDP - Winnipeg North) protested Tuesday night against heckling in the Commons of Conservative speakers during debate on a government interim supply bill for August and September.

Mr. Orlow said the organized heckling was being conducted by members of the Credit Mife group who banged the top of their desks repeatedly during speeches by Conservative members. With the exception of Justice Minister Favreau, only Conservative spoke in the debate.

He asked Deputy Speaker Lucien Lamoureux to maintain order in the chamber stating it was useless to appeal to the common sense of Creditistes.

Gordon Churchill (PC—Winnipeg South Centre) supported Mr. Orlow.

Gilles Grogreire (Creditiste—FAIR COST Estimated cost of the 1967 World Exhibition in Montreal is $47,500,000.
