arrangement, ought to show some consideration for the interests and the convenience of a place which supports it so well as Summerside has ever done. We hope that the Company will reconsider its decision and time the arrival of the Steamboat here in such a way as will best accommodate the mercantile part of the community, and the travelling public generally.

POSTAL ARRANGEMENTS.

We publish below a letter from Charles DesBrisay, Clerk of the Executive Council, to our public-spirited fellow townsman, Finlay McNeill, Esq. Our readers will see from it that some changes are likely to be made in the postal arrangements of this county. The Postmaster General is coming himself to enquire about matters. We assure him that the end of the world will not be hastened, or any dire calamity accelerated if some changes are made in this department. We are very sorry that it is not in our power to apply Pope's celebrated line "Whatever is is right," to matters connected with our post office and mail carriage. Indeed if the truth must be told it is a good deal the other way. If Mr. Owen will distinguish his tenure of office by making even a moderate number of improvements in the postal arrangements he will merit the lasting gratitude of every printer and reader of newspapers, and every writer and reader of letters on the Island and a good many off of it.

COUNCIL OFFICE,
Charlottetown, 8th June, 1867.

SIR,—His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council having referred the Communication from the Inhabitants of Summerside, regarding their postal arrangements, to a Committee of the Council, who, with the Post Master General, have had the subject under consideration, and have reported that, in their opinion, it is not advisable that the Mails be opened and assorted on board of the Steamer. I am, however, directed to acquaint you that as the Postmaster General is about to visit Summerside and other parts of the Island, on matters relating to the Post Office department, it will then be his duty to investigate the subject of the postal arrangements connected with the rising town of Summerside, and the Western section of the Island interested therein.

I have the honor to be, sir,
Your most obedient servant,
CHARLES DESBRISAY, C. C.

Finlay McNeill, Esq.
Summerside.

A man named McInnis fell from a stage in Hon. J. C. Pope's shipyard, yesterday, and received severe injury.

It affords us much pleasure to add to our subscription list for New London, the handsome number of sixty new subscribers since our last issue. This speaks well for the estimation in which our paper is held in that part of the Island.

A large quantity of flour and cornmeal has been landed here during the past week.

FLOUR has declined one dollar per barrel in Boston. It is supposed that it will continue to fall now, as the new wheat will soon be in the market. There is plenty of room for a come down.

THE EMPRESS CHARLOTTE.—We regret to learn that the mental condition of the Archduches Charlotte, Empress of Mexico, shows no signs of improvement. Under the stress of the peculiarly distressing symptoms with which mental alienation is accompanied in her case, the committee who have been charged by the Emperor of Austria with the administration of her affairs and her personal charge have proposed to have a consultation of eminent European alienists, naming for the purpose Dr. Griesinger, Berlin; Dr. Morel, Paris; and Dr. Maudsley, London.—British Medical Journal.

SUPREME COURT.

The June Term of the Supreme Court for Prince County was opened on Tuesday last, His Honor Judge Peters presiding. The Judge's charge to the Grand Jury was very brief. There were only three criminal cases; these were for larceny, and were very trifling. There were, we learn, a large number of civil cases before the Court. The following gentlemen composed the Grand Jury:—

William Beairsto, Esq., foreman; Alex. Hooper, Dugald Wright, Peter McNutt, Benj. Miles, Solomon Schurman, Gordon Darby, Thomas Sims, Hebert Bell, Arthur Irving, James Reid, Alex. Anderson, Thomas Beattie, Jessie Wright, Wm. Montgomery, James McNutt, Wm. Strong, Geo. Price, Thomas Moubry, Geo. Compton, Esquires.

Married.

At the Manse, Port Hill, Lot 13, on the evening of the 7th inst., by the Rev. J. D. Murray, brother of the bride, Mr. John Deyarmond, of Stewiacke, N. S., to Miss Hannah M. Murray, daughter of Mr. Alex. Murray, New Glasgow, N. S.

At the Manse, on the 5th inst., by the Rev. Thos. Duncan, Mr George Pethick, Cornwall, to Miss Elizabeth Beers, DeSable.

Died.

At Princetown Royalty, on the 4th of June, after a lingering illness, aged 23 years, Mary Ann, youngest daughter of Mr. Neil McGowan sen. The deceased was highly esteemed by her acquaintances, and is by them deeply regretted.

At Tryon, on the 30th of May, Mr. Samuel Leard, at the advanced age of 89 years, save one week, much and deservedly regretted by a large circle of relations and friends, and in the happy enjoyment of a hope blooming with immortality and eternal life.

On the 7th inst., of water on the brain, Arthur Frederick, aged 9 months, infant son of Mr. James McNeil, of Lot 3.

At his residence, at Banbury, on Wednesday, 5th June, Mr. John Bovyer, senr., aged 61 years.

London, June 5.

It is understood to be the intention of the Sultan to visit Queen Victoria at London some time during the month of July, after he has completed his visit to Emperor Napoleon, and the Paris Exhibition.

Berlin, June 5.

The plan for the Zolverein for all Germany, including the states of South Germany, as well as those comprised in the North German Confederation has been formed. The Chamber of Deputies of the Grand Duchy of Hesse have voted in favor of entering the North German Confederation.

Another attempt upon the life of the Emperor Napoleon was made on the 6th while he was returning from a grand review given in honor of his Imperial visitor the Czar of Russia on the Champ du Mars that afternoon. A pistol was fired at the carriage by some person in the crowd, but fortunately neither of the Emperors was injured. The incident created great excitement, which, however was dispelled when it was found that the intended assassination had failed.—Up to this time the assassin has not been arrested but he cannot escape.—The party of Fenians who were arrested a few days ago, while attempting to land in the county of Waterford, Ireland, say that they are from Boston, Massachusetts.—Lord Naas, Secretary for Ireland, announced in the House of Commons, on the 6th, that the sentence of all the convicted Fenian prisoners had been commuted.

The Panama Herald of the 1st inst., says, the march of destruction and bloodshed has already commenced in the interior States of Columbia. The Isthmus is yet tranquil but Mosquera threatens to send troops there. There had been an angry discussion as to the ownership of the steamer R. R. Cuyler, now called Kayo. The Secretary of War insisted that she belonged to Mosquera, and finally declared the country in a state of war and closed Congress. A number of the members of Congress were arrested by order of Mosquera and a majority declared traitors. Mosquera's actions were condemned by his own partizans. The Attorney General of the nation and two of the Supreme Court Judges have resigned. The President of Panama having ordered a commercial tax for war purposes, the foreign merchants, consuls and commanders of vessels in the harbor united in a protast.

New York, 8th.

A telegram from New Orleans narrates the immediate cause of the fall of Querctaro and the capture of Maximilian and his army. It appears that Gen. Lopez, who is represented as the bosom friend of Maximilian, sold out the entire Imperial Corn for $48,000 in hard cash. The work of treachery was arranged so completely, and carried out so successfully, that Maximilian and his entire army were handed over to Escobedo without a hostile shot being fired.

Maximilian, however, acted his part heroically; he sent his sword to Escobedo stipulating thrt he should not be subjected to insult, but awarded the consideration due to a prisoner, and that if any one must be shot he should be the first to be led to execution. Up to the latest advices no execution had taken ptace.
