S'side Breeder Biggest Winner In Fox Exhibits

AMHERST, N.S. (Special) — George A. Callbeck of Summerside was the biggest winner in the Maritime Winter Fair fox show here thus far. Despite the fact that most people regard it as a dead industry some 250 foxes of top quality are competing here for supremacy.

Standard silvers and standard platinums has been completed and a start had been made on the pearl platinums when failing light brought an end to the judging yesterday afternoon.

Callbeck had taken the male and female championship and the grand championship and the reserve grand championship in the standard silvers and had easily outdistanced his nearest competitors in the number of prizes won and the amount of money earned. Ernest T. Mills and Son, Kensington, R.R. and Lloyd K. Lockerby were other foxmen from the Province who were in the competition and in the money. Lockerby did not get into the show until the pearl platinums were reached.

Mr. Callbeck also took the championship and reserve in male standard platinums.

Other championship winners included W.R. Church of Gunningsville, N.B. with a reserve champion standard silver male and Adam Neilson of Salisbury, N.B. with a reserve champion standard silver female.

Mrs. Fleming Was Chairman

Social Action conveners from all the sub-divisions of the Catholic Women's League between Summerfield and Tignish met in conference Thursday afternoon at the Knights of Columbus Home in Summerside.

Mrs. J.E. Fleming, C.W.L. provincial convener of Social Action, Child Welfare and Nutrition was chairman of the meeting which was addressed by Rev. George MacCormac, provincial director of the C.W.L. by Rev. Mother Loyola, superior general of the Sisters of St. Martha who spoke on nutrition, training of young girls in the home by their mothers in the science of home making, cooking, etc. so much stress she said "Is laid on careers forwomen but certainly not enoughon courses in homemaking".

Sister Mary Eugene, director of the Social Welfare center in Summerside outlined the work being done there and of the many ways that the layman can assist in the work they carry on.

The meeting was also addressed by Mr. John Eldon Green, social worker with the Family Allowance board of Charlottetown.

MacNaught Is Nominated In Prince Fifth Consecutive Time

Mr. J. Watson MacNaught, Q. C., of Summerside, last night received his fifth consecutive nomination to represent the Liberal Party in Prince County in the next Federal election.

MR. MACNAUGHT

Mr. MacNaught, who represented Prince County in the House of Commons in Ottawa for twelve years preceding the Federal election last June, was Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Fisheries in the former Liberal Government.

The only other nominee at the convention was Mr. Fred C. Ramsay, M.L.A., of Montrose, representing the 1st District of Prince County in the Provincial Legislative.

In the official count of ballots submitted by voting delegates, Mr. MacNaught had 272 while Mr. Ramsay received 45.

Mr. MacNaught's nomination was moved by Charloes Moreshead of West Devon, seconded by Hon J.A. Bernard of Tignish, and supported by T.J. Inman of Bedeque and James McCardle of Kinkora.

Mr. Ramsay's nomination was moved by Ralph Gaudet of Alberton, seconded by Russell Stewart of Elmsdale, and supported by Lloyd Gaudet of Alberton.

The convention, which extended from about 8 p.m. to almost 11.30 p.m., was prolonged for more than an hour when a controversy developed between two groups from the Tignish West poll, both claiming voting rights as official delegates, and finally resulted in a ruling by co-chairmas Arnold Wood of Cape Wolf, president of the West Prince Liberal Association, who was then presiding, which disqualified both groups from voting privileges.

Of the 72 remaining polls eligible to vote, each was entitled to 5 voting delegates.

The other co-chairman who conducted the latter part of the convention was A.S. Johnson of Belmont, Lot 16, president of the East Prince Liberal Association.

Platform secretaries were Ken Matthews of O'Leary and Neil MacLeod of Summerside secretaries respectively for the West and East Prince Liberal Association.

When the vote was announced Mr. Ramsay moved that the nomination of Mr. MacNaught be made unanimous, and was thanked for his support by the successful nominee who expressed his appreciation of the honor conferred on him and stated his belief in the future success of the Liberal Party in the next Federal election.

On motion of Mr. D.O. Stewart it was agreed that three representatives from the County who will attend the national Liberal convention in Ottawa in January, be chosen, one each being appointed by the executive of the East and West Prince Liberal Associations, who would also by mutual agreement choose the third delegate.

The meeting was briefly addressed by Premier A.W. Matheson, and also present on the platform were Hon. George MacKay, Hon. E.P. Foley, C.C. Baker Morley, M. Bell, and Frank Mac Nutt, all members of the Provincial Liberal Government.

Church School Convention Held At Tryon

The teachers and officers of Church Schools comprising the South East Prince District met in annual convention in Tryon United Church, on October 28.

The afternoon session opened with a service of worship led by Rev. A.D.C. Earle the theme being "The Great Commission".

The president, Mrs. John Simmons presided during the business period.

Mrs. Simmons introduced the convention leader, Rev. L.M. Murray of Kensington who took charge of the meeting.

DISCUSSION

A dialogue "A Church School Receives Its Marching Orders" was presented. This led to a number of questions which were discussed by six groups in a Buzz Session. When the groups reassembled the finding were presented and discussed.

The afternoon session closed with prayer led by Rev. L.D. Graves. Those who were able to remain enjoyed the fellowship of the supper hours.

The Worship Service which opened the evening session was led by Harold Leard of Bedeque.

OFFICERS

The nominating committee presented the following report. President: Mrs. Howard Schurman, Bedeque; Vice-Pres: Mrs. Harold Coggins, Borden; Sec'y-Treas.: Florence Mabey, Tryon.

The courtesy committee thanked the officials and members of the Tryon United Church for the use of their building and Rev. A.D.C. Earle and Harold Leard for the conduct of their splendid devotions; the President and Secretary for the excellent manner in which they carried on the business period; and Rev. L. M. Murray for the efficient and inspiring leadership he gave the convention.

TEMPERANCE

Mr. Murray stressed the importance of Temperance and Missionary teaching in the Church School. He also spoke of the benefits to be received from a Church Vacation School. He emphasized the need of regular teachers meetings and the study of the Teachers Training Courses.

A short dialogue "Bring Them In" was presented and again discussed in Buzz Session and the findings brought back.

The climax of the Convention was a closing devotional talk by Rev. Mr. Murray. Prayer and the Benediction by Mr. Earle brought an inspiring convention to a close.

Poppy Campaign At S'side Got Underway Last Evening

The 1957 poppy campaign in Summerside got underway officially last evening when 65 members of the Summerside Branch of the Canadian Legion conducted a house to house canvass and collected a total of $319.58.

This was the largest sum ever realized in a local poppy campaign and the thanks of the Legion executive and members was expressed by the president Dr. H.B. MacNeill, to the citizens for making this year's poppy campaign a great success.

Those who were not at home last evening or were not contacted for some other reason will be able to procure poppies through the street sales which will be conducted Wednesday until Saturday.

Mr Harold Harkness was chairman of the wreath and poppy campaign.

Mr. G. H. Hardy Died Monday
