

low who can put a pint or two into his skin will henceforth be able to refute the calumny, that the country people get nothing from the town. The learned Doctor will prescribe for all kinds of diseases, from a cut finger to a scolding wife—"free, gratis, for nothing"—if the "free and independent electors" will only promise him their votes; whilst Mr. Gaul will make work for the Temperance Society for the next twelve months at least, and give Mr. Cunard's tenantry long leases and moderate rents—in expectation so distant of fulfilment as to be quite enchanting to the view.

Want of space compels us to omit an account of the presentation of the Government Bounty to the Indians, by his Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, on Thursday last. For the same reason, we have to defer the publication of an "Elector's" address to the constituency of Prince County, together with a lot of new advertisements. We shall supply these omissions by issuing an extra in a day or two.

By our Colonial exchanges received to-day, we observe that the Hon. Mr. Howe is creating a strong feeling in favour of the Halifax and Quebec Railway, in the province of New Brunswick. The New Brunswickers were supposed to be unfriendly to the projected line.

The steamer Asia arrived at New York, from Liverpool, on Wednesday last. She has brought the important intelligence, that the British Government has expressly declared its determination to afford ample aid to the Halifax and Quebec Railroad.

News from Constantinople state that Kossuth and his companions had been set at liberty by the Porte, through the intervention of the British Ambassador.
