THE BROWN WIND OF CONNAUGHT.

The brown wind of Connaught
Across the bogland blown
(The brown wind of Connaught)
Turns my heart to a stone,
For it cries my name at twilight
And cries it at the noon—
"Oh, Mairgread Ban! Oh, Mairgread Ban!"
Just like a fairy tune.

The brown wind of Connaught,
When Dermot came to woo
(The brown wind of Connaught),
It heard his whispers, too,
And while my wheel goes whirring
It taps on my window pane
Till I open wide to the dead outside
And the sea salt misty rain.

The brown wind of Connaught
With women wailed one day
(The brown wind of Connaught)
For a wreck in Galway bay,
And many the dark faced fishers
That gathered their nets in fear,
But one sank straight to the ghostly gate,
And he was my Dermot dear.
—Shan Van Vocht.

Individual Odors.

Every human being has a specific odor of his own, according to A. Bethe in the Archiv der Gesammten Physiologie, by which he can be recognized not merely by dogs but by persons with sensitive organs of smell. The case is mentioned of a man who blindfolded could pick out each individual in a company of 20 by his odor.

The smell is not born with us, but develops gradually till the age of puberty, after which it remains unchanged. Members of a family have a kind of common odor, which persists even when they have lived apart for a long time.

Piles Cured Without the Knife by Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. Geo Crowne, painter, of Woodville, Ont., Victoria Co, says:—"For thirteen years I was a sufferer from bleeding piles and the intense agony which I passed through during those years and relief I obtained by Chase's Ointments prompts me to give this testimonial. My physician wished me to have an operation but I felt I could be cured without the knife. Three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment stopped the bleeding and effected a permanent cure.

You Ought To See

The magnificent display of goods in the window of the Modern Jewelry and Fancy Goods Store. The Chinaware and Glassware is simply immense and the stock of CLOCKS is unparaelled, but the window is merly a sample in comparison with the showcases and shelves; they are loaded and yet artistically arranged. The exclamations of delight from the many customers who have visited our store since opening show us that they appreciate our well arranged goods at the Modern Jewelry and Fancy Goods Store.

A Stinging Retort.

Not more than a thousand years ago there came to one of the Brooklyn parishes a young rector who had been reared under the traditions of the very highest of high churches. Among these traditions was that which holds that the clergymen of all other denominations are without authority, and therefore not worthy to be called ministers of the Gospel.

One evening at a social gathering he was introduced to one of the Baptist clergymen of the City of Churches. Taking the Baptist by the hand the young rector, with much flourish and ostentation, said:

"Mr. ——, I am glad to shake hands with you as a gentleman, though I cannot admit that you are a clergyman."

"And I," said the other, quietly, "am glad to shake hands with you as a clergyman, though I cannot admit that you are a gentleman."

Rev. Plink Plunk on Prayer.

Smallest Printing Press.

A firm on Wall street, New York, has in operation and on exhibition what is probably the smallest working printing press in the world. It is an interchangeable cylinder and prints from a continuous roll with a cut-off. It is but twelve and one-half inches in length, and seven and one-half inches in height. Its width in the widest part is less than seven inches. In the office where it is in use it has been necessary to furnish brokers and others with a daily letter of financial news. Until the invention of this miniature press, the service was performed by the manifold system. Nine manifolders, each working very rapidly, were required to perform the service. With this little lightning press, after the types are set, two hundred copies per minute of any circular can be printed. With the dynamo machine lately attached it has printed as high as seven hundred copies per minute.—Exchange.

MRS HOOPER ESCAPED

Because She Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and so Cured Female Weakness.

NORWICH, Ont., Oct 3.—Mrs. J. S. Hooper, wife of Mr. J. Stanley Hooper, of North Norwich township, is a living proof of the unapproached value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, in the treatment of diseases of women.

Mrs. Hooper was a martyr to Female Weakness and Kidney Disease for twelve years. Norwich, Detroit and Buffalo physicians treated her unavailingly. She then tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes cured her thoroughly, and made her as healthy, strong and vigorous as she ever was. Dodd's Kidney Pills are women's best friends.
