OUR poetic friend Dr. Ford, of Souris East, is in the city looking hale and hearty.

ONE of the salmon recently caught by the Princess Louise was packed in ice and sent to the Queen.

SUPREME COURT.—The Jury retired, in the case of Cantello vs. Beales, at three o'clock this afternoon.

THE reports from the North West with regard to Indians invading the territory of the United States and killing the Indians south of the line, turn out to be without foundation.

THE charge against Mr. Weldon, M. P., for alleged embezzlement has fallen through. Justice Wortman, of Moncton, decided that there was no evidence to convict.

TALKING of green peas, we were shown yesterday some very fine specimens from the garden of John Ball, Esq. They were fully equal to any we before noticed.

THREE young vandals attacked the Free Church, Upper Prince street last evening. After breaking several of the windows, they were frightened off by the police. One of the number named Blackburn, was arrested and to-day sent to jail for one month. The police are in search of the others.

A FARMER named Archibald Ross, was brutally assaulted at Rocky Point by Mr. Weatherbie, yesterday evening. Ross was in the city to-day. His head presents the appearance of a severe punnelling. He will take proceedings against Weatherbie.

A YOUNG man named Guthro, the only support of his parents, was drowned at Tracadie, N. B., on the 4th July, by the upsetting of a boat. On the 5th inst., at the same place, Watson Clarke had both legs broken while entangled in a rope on the wood boat.—Autumn Belle.

ONE of the great difficulties of the location of the new Penitentiary at Dorchester, is the absence of water. So far, although pretty extensive boring operations have been carried on, no water sufficient to supply an institution so extensive as this one, has yet been reached.

A BOY named Michael Duffy was arrested for setting of numerous fire crackers in the streets last evening. The Magistrate lectured and afterwards dismissed him. W. Wise, arrested for being drunk and incapable was fined $1.00 and costs or 4 days.

RICHARD HUNT and Archibald McMillan, Esqs., left here on Tuesday on a fishing excursion. They will be away about a month, and purpose taking in most of the trout streams west. The first consignment—the result of one evening's fishing—reached here on yesterday's train, consisting of about four dozen fine sea trout. We wish them luck.—S. Journal.

THE Methodist Brick Church, on Prince street, was literally crowded last evening on the occasion of the marriage of the Rev. M. R. Knight to Miss Louise W. Beer, daughter of Councillor Beer, of this city. The bridal party was a very pretty and tasteful one. Rev. H. P. Cowperthwaite, assisted by the Rev'ds T. Smallwood and T. J. Deinstadt, performed the ceremony by which the happy pair were made one for life. Most heartily do we join in the congratulations of their friends and wish them a useful and happy career. The bridegroom—who was but recently ordained—is, we understand, stationed at Gibson, N. B., and thither he will repair with his bride.

MR. W. F. BURROUGHS, with the dramatic company now playing at the Academy of Music (Halifax), intends visiting Charlottetown, P. E. I., where a short season will be inaugurated. We congratulate our friends in the island on the opportunity that will then be afforded them of witnessing the performance of such plays as the "Lady of Lyons," "The Ticket of Leave Man," and other pieces of equal prominence in dramatic literature, by a dramatic company of sterling merit—equal to any similar organization that may be met with in leading theatres in America. The dramatic world of Charlottetown may rely on a series of theatrical representations of a high order.—He. Reporter.

THE Journal says:—A serious accident, which almost terminated fatally, occurred at Little Channel, Lot 11, on Friday, the 27th ult. In consequence of their having been a heavy swell in the Gulf an ugly line of breakers extended all along the bar outside the entrance to the harbor. One of the fishing boats in attempting to cross this got upset, and the occupants—a Mr. Morrison and his two sons and Mr. Carr (an old man)—were nearly drowned before they were taken off. Some of the men who saw the accident rendered prompt assistance. The rescuers were Mr. James Palmer, Mr. William Hardy, Ed. Kinsman, and G. McArthur. It is said if they had been in the water many minutes longer they must have perished. They were taken to the lighthouse and Mr. Hardy, the keeper, and his wife, rendered every assistance in their power to have them restored. Had there been even no house to take them to when they were taken ashore, the lives of some would scarcely have been saved. A life boat, buoys, and bedding, should, as at other lighthouses, be kept here for such cases of emergency.

JEFFERSON GARDINER, of North River, appeared before Theoph. DesBrisay, Esq., J. P., to-day, at the instance of Charles White, carpenter. White charged that, on Tuesday evening last, Gardiner met him at Mr. Woodside's, and there called him all description of names, including thief, liar, etc.; and stated that he (White) stole a leg of pork, and then assaulted him with a stone. Gardiner denied the charge preferred against him; but a witness was called who fully substantiated what had been stated by White. Gardiner's witnesses were not up to time, and he asked for an adjournment of the case that he might be able to bring them forward. An hour's adjournment was granted. During the adjournment Gardiner issued a summons against White for that he, on Monday last assaulted Gardiner at North River; and by the firing of stones drove him into the channel of the river, thereby greatly endangering his (Gardiner's) life. White, seeing that Gardiner was bound to prosecute, suggested a compromise, which was duly effected. When the Magistrate resumed his seat the first case was withdrawn by consent of White, as was also the second by consent of Gardiner.
