ST. DUNSTON'S COLLEGE.—The scholastic year of St. Dunstan's College closes this year on the 8th of June. The new rooms, gymnasium, etc., at the Lyceum are a special attraction to the majority of the men and of great value to the corps. We learn that besides special prizes for the top scores, old and new shots in the coming league matches, that the officer commanding has announced that prizes, medals or badges are to be awarded to the men for individual work. One prize will be for the best man in the ranks, each man having a record kept of his attendance at drill, neatness, discipline, and general efficiency. This will no doubt be an incentive for conscientious work on the part of all. A prize for the best section in the Company will also be given.
