THE BUDGET.

Summary Report of Speeches Delivered by Messrs. Yeo and Ferguson.

Mr. Yeo, in reply to the Budget speech, said that the House had heard the comparison between the Davies Government and the present administration instituted by the Leader of the Government for about the eighth time. He would leave the hon. members for Murray Harbor, Summerside and Georgetown, who were prominent members of the Davies Government, to answer their present Leader. But he did not think the present Government could justly take credit for all that they claimed. The expenditure in connection with the administration of justice, for instance, was an expenditure which could not be controlled by the Government, for it is governed largely by the crime in the country, and the amount of business before the courts. Then it must be remembered that the expenditures for roads and bridges, etc., were very much larger in 1877 than they have been in late years. For wharves, the late Government made large expenditures, of which the present Government have been relieved, and by which they have profited; for they have actually received back again the money that their predecessors paid out. In 1878 there was spent upon wharves and breakwaters money that the present Government have reaped the benefit of. But it is to be regretted that the wharves are being allowed to fall into ruin for the want of attention and care. Again, for rights of way the expenditures of the late Government were larger than those of its predecessors. But it cannot be said that new roads and rights of way are not required by the public. In 1878 over $14,000 were expended in macadamizing the highways in the vicinity of Charlottetown and Summerside. That was an expenditure which was called for; but the present Government have expended nothing in macadamizing.
The late Government also expended a large sum in the erection of the Lunatic Asylum; in late years the present Government have had no such expenditure as that.
It appears that the Leader of the Government now thinks that the Province is not much in debt; but if he really does think so, he must have changed his opinion very much since 1879. He thought the debt of the Province at that time quite alarming—a very large amount indeed. But it was not so great as it is now. There is now a balance of about $112,000, and yet he seems to think that the finances of the Province are in a very flourishing condition.
Early in the session certain returns were asked for which were necessary to a clear understanding of the financial position of the Province. But these returns were for some reason held back as long as possible.
One of these returns shows that very large amounts have, from time to time been due the banks. In February last there were due $9,063, in March over $14,000, in April, $47,869; in May, $63,383.76; in June, $75,- 183; in July, $44,384; in August, $55,- 882; in September, $60,327; in Oct., $91,- 500; in November, $103,744. Still the Leader of the Government says our indebtedness to the banks was very trifling.
In January, 1886, there was due $24,988; in February, $35,749; in March, $42,290.
If the Leader of the Government should remain in power it is hard to say what his ideas of large indebtedness may be. The hon. gentleman's estimates of expenditure for the current year are very much below the mark. It is probable that more than $6,000 will have to be expended on account of smallpox, and there are several other items which are erroneous. It cannot be expected that $48,000 will be received from the Land Office unless the crops be very good and the prices for produce high; and the Leader of the Government is not justified in putting down as revenue an eighth of a quarter of a million dollars ($125,000) which he says he expects to receive from the Dominion Government. Is that the meaning of the resolution passed here a few days ago? It is insulting to the intelligence of hon. members of this House to lay before them such an estimate without any explanation.

Hon. Mr. FERGUSON referred to the charge of the leader of the Opposition, that the Government improperly withheld information from the House and country, and remarked that judging by the tactics of their press, the Opposition are most desirous of keeping back information and misleading the people. The reports of the Patriot newspaper are grossly one-sided and deliberately unfair to the Government and the public; and as many in the Opposition Party are shareholders in the concern, and some have admitted that they are responsible for what their organ says, it must be presumed that its suppression of the information afforded by members and supporters of the Government is with their consent, if not by their direction. One would think from reading the reports in the organ of the Opposition, that members and supporters of the Government said little or nothing.
Very different the conduct of the press supporting the Government, which gives the statements and arguments of hon. members of both sides. It therefore ill becomes the Leader or members of the Opposition to stand up in their places and speak of the people being misled by the Government.
The Leader of the Opposition forcibly protests against depending upon the payment of debts due the Province for a revenue during the present year. This reminded him of the equally forcible protest the Hon. gentleman had made concerning the Pier money. Three years ago the hon. gentleman made a very strong speech against the idea of hoping to obtain any revenue from a refund of the Pier money; and on that occasion he submitted the following resolution:

Whereas, A delegation of three members of the Executive Council have recently visited Ottawa with a view to effect an arrangement with the Dominion Government, that the latter would assume the charges for improving and maintaining all piers on the coast of this Island, and refund to the Government of this Province all moneys expended upon the said piers since the 1st July, 1878.
And Whereas, By the despatches laid upon the table of this House relating to the mission of the said delegation, and the negotiations now pending with the Dominion Government, there is no promise, guarantee or assurance given on the part of the latter that they will assume hereafter the improving and maintaining of said piers as a charge upon the Dominion Government or refund this Province all or any of the money expended on the aforesaid structures since this Island entered Confederation.
Therefore Resolved, That this House believe that in providing "ways and means" for the expenditure of the Province for the current year, the Government are not justified in depending upon one-seventh of the revenue being raised from refunds from the Dominion Government for piers, which refund the said Government have not so far acknowledged their liability to pay.
Yet in spite of this strong protest of the honorable gentleman the piers money was afterwards obtained.
Notwithstanding his belief nearly $78,000 were obtained as a refund of the money expended by the Province upon wharves and piers belonging to the Dominion. We have still large claims against the Dominion every whit as good as that, which remain unsettled, and the present Government are not going to levy a tax upon the people while there is a good prospect of obtaining the money we require in settlement of these claims. The piers money is not all paid yet, and according to the British North America Act there is to be a readjustment of assets, under which a large amount will be transferred from Ontario and Quebec to the Maritime Provinces. In the readjustment of these assets a large sum will be due Prince Edward Island which we confidently expect to obtain. The people of the country know that the Government have, regardless of party, stood up for the rights of the Province, and they have every reason to believe that the Government will, in this matter, be as successful as they have been in the past. The Leader of the Opposition says that the Government have received back as revenue the money that former governments have paid out. If the hon. gentleman had searched for a complimant to bestow upon the present administration, he could hardly have found a better one than this. It surely is greatly to the credit of the Government that they have, by their strenuous exertions, obtained a refund of the money erroneously paid out by their predecessors.
Certainly it should not be a charge against the Government that it has managed to get the money back.
There was, no doubt, something in what the Leader of the Opposition said respecting the expenditures in connection with the administration. But one great cause of the large expenditure of the late Government under this head was the fact that the Atorney General (Mr. Davies), while drawing his salary in full when away off the Island on other business, retained other lawyers at the public expense to do his work.
Although there were two very serious and expensive murder trials in the early part of this year, yet it is not at all probable that the cost of administration of justice will be nearly as large as in 1877 and 1878.
The Leader of the Opposition has also referred to the neglected wharves. It is very unfair to bring this as a charge against the Local Government, because all the public wharves in the Province passed to the Dominion at the time of Confederation, and are now the property and under the care of its Government. One of the unfair tactics of the Opposition has been to encourage people to press upon the Local Government claims concerning wharves, with which the Local Government have nothing whatever to do. The Leader of the Opposition says the present Government did not spend much on the construction of the Lunatic Asylum. The hon. gentleman must surely forget that the Davies Administration left it to the present Government to build and furnish.
It is pleasing to know that the honorable gentleman is mistaken in this respect; for it is, apparently, in the estimation of the Opposition, one of the highest marks of statesmanship to be able to spend money freely. If the present Government had only spent more, they would have pleased the Opposition well. But the present Government think it best to spend money so that it will produce the best results. It cannot be said that they have been very sparing in their expenditures for the encouragement and improvement of agriculture; and what little they have been able to spend they have contrived to make go a great way and produce the best results. Look at the state of the Stock Farm to-day. But the Hon. gentleman says that the Davies Government made economical reforms. This puts one in mind of the well-known couplet:
When the devil was sick, the devil a saint would be,
When the devil was well, the devil a saint was he.
Suddenly, just before they lost the reins of power, they became great economists.
Their sincerity may be gauged by one fact: When seized with the fit of economy, they proposed to reduce their own salaries, and one of them even went so far as to refuse to take any salary at all—until the elections were over. But after the elections, he demanded his salary, and was paid in full.
Another fact might, also, be mentioned.
After they knew full well that they would be obliged to go out of office, they had revised lists of voters struck off (for the benefit of the printer) though they were aware that one of the first acts of their successors would be to abolish registration of voters and that therefore the revised lists would be utterly useless. The Leader of the Opposition spoke with a smile about the approaching elections. He can smile with an aching heart as well as any man. He knows that there is no hope for him or his Party in the coming elections. He boasts that at the last general election the majority had a majority of only one—the correct figure was two; but he failed to note the remarkable alacrity with which the people at the first opportunity hastened to strengthen the hands of the Government.
It was as if they thought a good strong Opposition would have a wholesome effect upon the Government; but after they saw they rather overdid the matter, and that the Government was in some danger, they sent to its support the hon. member for Murray Harbor, the hon. junior member for Belfast, as well as several supporters in the Upper House. The people have recently given abundant evidence of their continued confidence in the Government, and they are not likely to turn the Government out to make way for a party whose panacea for all the ills that afflict the body politic is high taxation.
