Wynn Picks Up 300th Victory

NEW YORK (CP) — Gus finally got No. 300.

Early Wynn (Old Gus) became the 14th pitcher in major league baseball history to reach 300 victories Saturday when Cleveland Indians defeated Kansas City Athletics 7-4 in the second game of their double header at Kansas City.

The 43-year-old righthander, who had made seven previous attempts for the coveted 300th, barely gained it in his eighth try. He went only five innings, the minimum number necessary for a starter to qualify as a winner, and left after a shaky fifth with Cleveland ahead 5-4.

Wynn, in his 23rd big league season, has a lifetime record of 300-243. He started his career in the majors with Washington Senators in 1939, went to Cleveland in 1949 and to Chicago White Sox in 1958. The White Sox released him this spring and he rejoined the Indians as a free agent Junt 21.

Cleveland knocked over the Athletics with a four-run fifth inning, started by Wynn's lead off single against loser Moe

Alvie Thompson Finally Wins Millar Golf Trophy

By ALLAN BAILEY

WOODBRIDGE, Ont. (CP)— After two consecutive years coming within putting distance of the Millar Trophy Canadian professional golfers' match play championship, Alvie Thompson of Toronto finally won it.

He defeated little Peter Hildrop of Mount Hope, Ont., 4 and 2, Saturday in the final round.

Two years ago, Thompson was eliminated in the semi-finals and last year he made it to the quarter-finals before being sidelined. But there was no stopping him this year at the Pine Valley course.

The 27-year-old Thompson shot a four-under-par 67 Wednesday in the qualifying round to share the lead with three other golfers, and he never looked back. In fact, he was never over par on any hole in his next five matches.

The Thompson-Hildrop final match was overshadowed by a thrilling semi - final between Thompson and pre-tournament favorite Al Balding of Toronto, four-time Millar Trophy winner.

But Thompson matched Balding stroke for stroke and when Balding three-putted the 16th it gave him the break he needed to win the match. Thompson was one up at the 18th.

In the final, Hildrop took an early lead with a birdie on the first hole and they both shot par three's on the second.

Hildrop ran into a stroke of bad luck when his ball struck a tree about 100 yards down the fairway on the third and the match was even again.

BIRDIES FOURTH

Then Thompson had a birdie three on the fourth hole to take the lead for the first time. He was never behind from this point. They both had par fours on the fifth and sixth holes and Thompson took a two up lead sinking a five-foot putt for a birdie on the seventh.

They split on the eighth and Thompson went three-up when Hildrop's ball dropped into a sand trap beside the green. Hildrop was one over par on this hole, while Thompson settled for even par. They split the 10th, but Hildrop had to sink a 40 foot putt to do it. Both had par fives on the 11th, but in the 12th another sandtrap plagued Hildrop and Thompson won the hole with a par three to go four-up. Hildrop fought back to take the 14th hole with a birdie four.

Both golfers were deadlocked with par fours on the 14th and 15th holes, but Thompson took the 16th by one stroke to win the match.

Thompson was presented with the Millar Trophy, known as "the old lady" and first prize money, $1,000.

This match - play championship, the only one of its kind for professionals in North America has been an annual event since 1928.

Last year's champion, Frank Whibley of Kitchener, was eliminated in the first round of match play by Wilson Paterson of Whitby.

Hildrop, in his climb to the finals, had to defeat another tournament favorite George Knudson of Toronto.

In the semi - final Hildrop downed Harry McIlree of Hamilton one up after an extra hole. They were all even after the regulation 18 holes, then Hildrop sank a 20-foot putt on the first playoff hole to win the match.

Marlene Stewart Streit Wins Ladies' Golf Title

By W. R. WHEATLEY

OTTAWA (CP) — Marlene Stewart Streit of Fontnill, Ont., calmly sank a six-foot birdie putt on the 18th green Saturday to win the Canadian women's close golf title for the eighth time.

The trim little golfer, wearing canary-yellow shorts, white blouse and narrow - brimmed straw hat, grinned happily as she holed out for a three-over-par 77 on the final round of the 54-hole competition with an aggregate medal score of 231.

Gail Harvey of Toronto struggled through an unsteady back nine to finish second with 232, missing a 30-foot birdie putt at the 18th. Sue Hilton of London, Ont., defending champion, was third with 235 and Betty Stanhope Cole of Edmonton fourth with 237.

Cathy Galusha, 16 - year-old youngster from Red Deer, Alta., rallied on the last five holes with two birdies and three pars to win the junior Canadian title with 246, one stroke better than Marilyn Palmer of Kamloops, B.C., and two ahead of Jocelyn Bourassa of Trois-Rivieres, Que.

The formidable Mrs. Streit, who will go after her seventh Canadian open title this week, started the final round with 154. Mrs. Cole, in the same three-some, had 155. Miss Harvey had 156 and Miss Hilton 158.

MARLENE STEWART STREIT

CATCHES LEADER

After 45 holes Miss Harvey, playing behind Mrs. Streit, had caught up. Each made the turn with 192 totals. Mrs. Cole had 194.

In the final round Miss Harvey was two under par with a 36 on the front nine but ran into trouble coming home and took a four-over-par 40.

The worst grief befell Mrs. Cole. She went two strokes over par at the 11th, 14th and 18th and another stroke at the 17th, with a last-nine score of 43 for an 82 total.

Miss Hilton, playing far back of Mrs. Streit, finished her last round with a 77.

Mrs. Robert Lyle of Montreal equalled the women's course record of 34 on the back nine to finish with 75 and a 54-hole total of 237 in fifth place.

For the three rounds Mrs. Streit shot 81-73 — 77, nine strokes over the Ottawa Rivermead Club's par for women over the full distance. Mrs. Cole had the same one-under-par on her second round, that figure equalling the course record set by Joyce Wethered of England in 1963, who also set the back - nine record of 34 equalled by Mrs. Lyle.

Pontiacs Beat Kinkora 4-1

SUMMERSIDE — The A. E. MacLennan Pontiacs made it three wins in a row Saturday night when they defeated Kinkora 4-1 in a Prince County Baseball League fixture at the Kinkora park.

Dee Lefurgey started his first ball game of the season and handcuffed the losers allowing only three hits. He struck out eight and walked one.

Charlie Sark went the route for Kinkora and struck out four, not giving up a walk.

Pontiacs scored three runs in a big second inning as Green got on an error and Cooke was allowed first base on an interference call. A passed ball put them in scoring position and Deryl Newson smacked a single to bring the two runs in.

Charlie Sark was robbed of extra bases in the sixth inning when Donnie Arsenault ran deep to right field and pulled down an over the shoulder catch.

Deryl Newson, Don Arsenault, Greg Deighan and Jackie Pate had two-hits nights for the Pontiacs.

Wally Sherry had two hits for Kinkora and Gerald Smith picked up the other.
