Hampton and Vicinity

Friends residing in this district of Mr. Maynard Foy, Tryon, are pleased to learn of his convalescence, following an operation in the P. C. Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Capwell have arrived here from their home in Florida and will spend their annual summer vacation among relatives and friends, guests of Mrs. Capwell's mother, Mrs. W. A. MacQuarrie.

A large representation of district citizens attended the funeral services for the late Mr. C. E. Shaw, at Trinity United Church, Charlottetown and at Crapaud Cemetery, where interment took place, and where the services of the Orange Society and Masonic Order were beautifully carried out.

The P. W. College Valedictory by Clair MacLeod, Bonshaw, merits the congratulations of his many friends. Clair is also gifted along musical lines, which talent, no doubt, descended from a musical family, his father, Mr. Stephen MacLeod being a member of the well known Bonshaw Quartette, that fine group of singers.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Villett have announced the date of the approaching marriage of their daughter Florence, who has been one of the staff of the T. Eaton Co. Ltd., store in Toronto, during the past two years. Best wishes for a happy wedded life are extended by her many Island relatives and friends.

Friends residing here are interested to learn of a recent visit to relatives and friends in Tryon, of a number of young people who have been absent from their native province, namely: Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Mabey, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mabey, St. John, N. B. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Rogerson and family Truro, N. S., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hapener, Chatham, N. B. "Should Auld Acquaintance be forgot".

Notwithstanding other conflicting events, the evening of May 26 witnessed a capacity audience in Hampton Hall, to hear and enjoy a variety concert, sponsored by the W. A. of Hampton Church. Each number on the program was well received, responses to the vocal numbers were generously given. The respective accompanists were: Miss Kathleen MacFadyen, Mrs. E. V. MacLeod, Mrs. James Gordon, and Mrs. Edwin Ferguson. Ice-cream and cake were served during intermission, financial receipts were quite satisfactory.

It was with deep regret that relatives and friends of the late Mr. C. E. Shaw, learned of his death at the Prince Edward Island Hospital on May 28. He will be greatly missed in the church, home and community, and in those societies of which he was a member, and in which he was always active. To the surviving widow, son and daughter, deep sympathy is extended, and prayer that the power by which they have been blest, may lead them on o'er moor, fen or torrent, till the night is gone, and with the morn those angel faces smile, which they have loved long since and lost awhile.

Congratulations are cordially extended to Prince of Wales College students, whose homes are situated in this and merging school districts, whose names appear on the graduation list of the first, second, third, and fourth year students, including: Clair MacLeod, Norman Carruthers, Barbara Stewart, Elizabeth Carruthers, Mary E.
