Play And Varities Enjoyed At Richmond

The Richmond Dramatic Club presented the play "Deacon Dubbs" on May third, fourth and fifth in the church hall.
 On Sunday afternoon the hall was filled with children and a goodly number of grownups for the matinee. On Monday evening they played to a full house. Music for the three performances was supplied by the Deighen brothers, Wallace, Urban, Arnold and Erwin.
 Urban Deighen step-danced to the enjoyment of all and took a well deserved encore. All enjoyed the music and singing of Adres Cameron and Clarence Arsenault who were called upon for an encore.
 Young Miss Rhetta Ellis entertained with a song while accompanying herself on the guitar. She was also accompanied by Russell Ellis on the violin. This brother and sister act was loudly applauded and brought back on for an encore.
 On Tuesday night the hall was again filled to capacity. Urban Deighen danced with the same success, and the next specialty was a song beautifully rendered by Raymond and Peter Sark. Their exceptionally fine singing caused them to be called back for two encores, and then Rhetta and Russell Ellis returned to delight the audience again. Candy was sold during intermission at all three performances.

 Mr. Linus MacDonald directed the play and he received many words of praise for a wonderful job.
 Scenery and makeup were by Mrs. Alex Clark.

Those taking part in the play were: Leon McNeill, Emmett Cameron, Zeno O'Brien, Arnold McEntee, Jerome McNeill, Margaret McNeill, Mrs. Joseph Bolger, Marie McNeill, Eileen Chappell and Mrs. Vernon Fitzgerald.

hind foot slipped off the edge of the bank. She tried to scramble back, but the other little hind foot slipped off, and down the slippery slide, flat on her stomach, she went tail first. That is the way she hit the water, tail first, and disappeared. She had gone down that slippery slide so fast that when she entered the water, she went right down out of sight.
 For just a minute Taddy Bear was a frightened little Bear. It seemed to him his sister never would come up again. But she did. She was strangling and choking just the way he had done. It was the water she had swallowed and it had gone up her nose also. Now she began to splash frantically. She didn't know which way she was going. She was so frightened to do anything but kick and splash. All the time she was going straight away from that steep bank with the slippery slide. She was heading for the opposite shore, and presently she crawled out on that side, looking as frowled as had her small brother so short a time before.
 As for Taddy Bear, he was hugging himself now and dancing about in glee, but he was taking great care not to do it too near the edge of the bank. It was his turn to laugh, and he was making the most of it.

PROCLAMATION BEAUTIFICATION WEEK

We, the Mayor and Corporation of the City of Charlottetown, hereby proclaim the week beginning Monday, May 18th, as Civic Beautification Week, and, in doing so, we urge upon all our citizens to make their premises look as neat, tidy and beautiful as they can.

If your house is in need of paint now is the time to give it a coat. Even if you cannot paint your whole house at least paint the window casings, doors, and trimmings to the extent that your ability and nature of your property will permit. We are endeavouring to keep our streets clean; please help by keeping your sidewalk clear of litter and papers. Tell your children about this and get them to help too—and above all, never to drop papers or litter on the streets or sidewalks but put them in the receptacles provided for this purpose. Tell them, too, never to injure or destroy their own or any one else's flowers or shrubs. As you can see, we are beautifying our squares and public buildings. Let's all get together and put this over!

J. DAVID STEWART, Mayor.
