I tended you with loving care

OBITUARY

MRS. JOHN R. WHITE
The many friends of Mrs. John R. White, 222 Weymouth Street, city, learned with deep regret of her sudden passing at the Prince Edward Island Hospital on November 13th, 1961. Born at Springton, P.E.I., on August 31, 1874, she was the last surviving member of the family of the late Murdoch Lamont, and Catherine (Stewart) Lamont.

After her marriage she resided in Stanchell for sixty-two years, during this time living among friends, and relatives whom she loved, and developed many lasting friendships. A lover of good music, a visit to her home was one to be experienced and never forgotten, always taking an interest in the activities of her community and church.

Those who knew this amiable lady, know that even through her trials and difficult moments she maintained a quiet and steadfast hope and faith.

Her husband predeceased her in 1939, also two sons, Harold and Wesley passed away in early manhood. She leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother, two sons, Russell in Nanaimo, B.C., and Edward, with whom she resided, and one daughter Katherine, (Mrs. Dr. L.P. Hart), Marlboro, Mass., also three grandchildren whom she loved dearly.

The funeral service which was held on November 14th at the Cutcliffe Funeral Home was conducted by Rev. Donald A. Campbell and was largely attended. The hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Abide With Me". Two close friends Alan Cameron and Chester Martin feelingly rendered a favorite hymn "The City of God".

The pallbearers were Wesley MacNevin, Lester Cairns, William Campbell, and Derrill White. The interment took place in Springton cemetery. "Till the day dawns, and the shadows flee away, beyond the sunset for evermore."

There the sun never sets, And the leaves never fade; There the righteous forever Shall shine like the stars, In that beautiful city of gold.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. J.R. White wish to extend their thanks to all their friends and neighbours who helped in so many ways during their recent sad bereavement; to Rev. Donald A. Campbell, organist and choir, Dr. Lea, nurses and staff of the Prince Edward Island Hospital and to all those who made calls, sent flowers, Bibles, letters and cards of sympathy. To all our most sincere thanks.

CHANDLER — In memory of Arthur E. Chandler, passed away, Jan. 26th, 1957. Lovingly remembered by the family.
