Racy Literature.

ACTIVITY AND DECISION.—A man now-a-days, must have something of the steam engine in him. A lazy snail-paced fellow might have got on in the world fifty years ago, but he won't do these times. We live in an age of quick ideas; men speak quick, think quick, and slow coaches ain't tolerated. "Be up and dresed" always—not gaping and rubbing your eyes as if you were half asleep but wide awake for whatever may turn up and you may be somebody before you die. Think, plan, reflect as much as you please before you act; but think quickly and closely, and when you have fixed your eyes on an object, spring to the mark at once.

LIVELY AGAIN.—The boy who sang, "I'm lonely since my mother died", isn't quite so lonely now. The old man married again, and his stepmother makes it lively enough for him with the broom-handle.

ZOOLOGICAL.—Which animal is never old?—The gnoo.—Which is costly?—The deer.—Which is a good boatman?—The roe-buck.—Which is often elected to office?—The mare.—Which makes a good light?—The tapir.—Which is a nuisance and tackles you everywhere?—The boar.

What nation produces the most marriages?—Fasci-nation.

A writer, in speaking of bonnets, says the coal scuttle was in vogue when blushing was known; but both are now obselete.

A smart youngster hearing his mother remark that she was fond of music, exclaimed, "then, why don't you buy me a drum.

The young lady who burst into tears has been put together again and is now wearing hoops to prevent the recurrence of the accident.

"Do you think raw oysters are healthy?" asked a lady of her physician.—"Yes, certainly," he replied, "I never knew one to be out of health in my life."

A pretty and well dressed young lady after looking at several pairs of gloves, lavender colored, in a shop lately, shocked the assistant by asking him which pair he thought the "lavenderst."

A witty rogue, when asked how he got out of prison, replied: "I got out of my cell by ingenuity, ran up stairs with agility, crawled out the back window in secrecy, slid down the lightning rod with rapidity, walked out of the town with dignity, and am now basking in the sunshine of liberty.

WOMAN.—The morning star of our youth; the day star of our manhood; the evening star of our age. Heaven bless our stars!

When minds and hearts are not in unison, the words of love itself are but the rattling of the chain that tells the victim it is bound.

Instead of saying things to make people stare and wonder, say what will keep them from staring and wondering hereafter: this is philosophy.

Those nervous folks, who are annoyed by everything that approach them, annoy everybody they approach.

A smile may be bright while the heart is sad. The rainbow is beautiful in the air, while beneath is the moaning of the sea.

Serenity is no sign of security; a stream is never so smooth and silvery as at the instant before it becomes a cataract.

"You should take a walk every morning upon an empty stomach," said a doctor to Sydney Smith.—"Upon whose?" asked the patient.

AWFUL!—A correspondent—and, we are sorry to say, one of the fair sex—has sent us the following atrocity:—If my father's head was divided into two equal parts, what time of day would each portion represent?—Half-past eight (half pa's tete!")

Lord Sidmouth said one day, "My brains are gone to the dogs this morning,"—Sir H. Nicolas at once ejaculated, "Poor dogs!"

A French lady, hearing how a Canouchin had been devoured by wolves, exclaimed, "Poor beasts! hunger must be a terrible thing."

Diogenes being asked why it was that philosophers always sought the society of the rich much more than the latter sought theirs, replied. "Because philosophers know what they want, and the others do not."

MENTAL ARITHMETIC.—Sister: "Look here, Charlie; suppose you had twenty sugar plums, and you wanted to divide them in four parts; you'd give five to baby and five to Carrie; now what would you do with the other ten?"—Sweet child: "Suck 'em.

Young girls who have more vivacity than understanding, will often make a sprightly figure in conversation. But this agreeable talent for entertaining others is frequently dangerous to themselves, nor is it by any means to be desired or encouraged very early in life. Conversation should be the result of education, not the precursor of it. It is a golden fruit when suffered to grow gradually on the tree of knowledge; but if precipitated by forced and unnatural means, in will in the end become vapid in proportion as it is artificial.

Man is a mister, but woman is a mystery.

A movement has been set on foot to erect an asylum for useless young men. The only trouble which the "committee" fear will be insurmountable is that of getting the building large enough.

Were we to take as much pains as to be what we ought to be, as we do to disguise what we really are, we might appear like ourselves, without being at the trouble of any disguise at all.

If you wouldn't have affliction make you a second visit, listen to its teachings at the first.

Agricultural.

RENOVATING OLD MEADOWS.

A subscriber of the Times inquires how he may renovate a meadow where the grass is so nearly run out "that it will not yield more than half a ton of hay per acre." The editor answered:—

There are several good ways of renovating such ground. If a good supply of barnyard manure can be obtained, let a liberal dressing be applied this fall, and plough the ground deep; late in autumn, provided the soil is heavy. If the soil is light and sandy, defer ploughing until next spring; then plant with potatoes, and the next season sow with rye, or some kind of grain that has not been raised on the soil for several years. Let a crop of red clover succeed the rye, which should be ploughed under when in full bloom. Another way is to turn the sod over this fall, as early as practicable; and then if there is no barn-yard manure, apply ten bushels of lime per acre. Twenty bushels will be better if you can afford it. Let the lime be thoroughly harrowed in. Then, if it is desirable to raise grass only, seed down with several different kinds of grass seed—say three quarts of timothy, one bushel each of orchard grass and Kentucky blue grass, and keep all the cattle off the field till the grass has been mowed the following season. Early next spring sow two or taree bushels of gypsum per acre. We recommend this way only where a farmer can obtain lime and not barnyard manure. In case a farmer desires to try guano, or superphosphate, or poudrett, let the fertilizer be sowed soon after the ground is ploughed, and let it be harrowed in thoroughly.

PARING POTATOES.—Many persons in preparing potatoes for cooking, pare off a thick slice from the surface instead of digging out the eyes. Prof. Blot, in his lecture on the potatoe, says this skinning process is all wrong, as the strength of the vegetable lies near the surface—the starch growing less abundant as the centre is approximated. The starch, near the surface, contains the nutriment — which is not more than seven or eight per cent.—the balance being mainly water.

TO MAKE HARD SOAP.—To two pails of strong ley, add fourteen pounds of grease; cleanse the grease before using. Boil these two together till it becomes thick; then put in five quarts of salt, and boil slow half an hour, or a little longer; then pour in a pail of cold soft water; set it away to cool. When cold cut it into chunks. Put into a kettle two pails of weak ley, boil until it mixes together, then pour in three quarts of salt; boil the same length of time as before, and set it off to cool; then cut it in the shape you like.

COOKIES.—1 cup of butter, 2 cups of sugar, 3 eggs, 3 tablespoons of sour cream, two third teaspoon of soda.

MUFFINS.—3 pints flour to one pint milk, 1 pint water, 1 yeast cake. Bake in rings.

Every trade requires brains, and none more so than the art of cutting and making up a garment to fit every variety of the human form; but some people seem to imagine that it requires no more judgment to cut a coat than to hew a log,—an erroneous idea, the effects of which are seen in the tasteless and ill-fitting garments we every day behold in the streets. Mrs. S. A. Allen's PREPARATIONS FOR THE HAIR.

Mrs. S. A. Allen's

is suited to both young and old. It strengthens the Hair, prevents its falling or turning grey, and imparts to it a beautiful glossy appearance. It never fails to RESTORE GREY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL YOUTHFUL COLOR.

IT IS NOT A DYE, but acts directly upon the roots of the Hair, giving them the natural nourishment required, producing the same vitality and luxurious quantity as in youth. It will restore it on bald places, requires no previous preparation of the hair, and is easily applied by one's self. One bottle will usually last for a year, as after the hair is once restored, occasional applications once in three months will insure against grey hairs to the most advanced age.

Mrs. S. A. Allen's

or ZYLOBALSAMUM. is essential to use with the Restorer, but the Hair Dressing alone often restores, and never fails to invigorate, beautify and refresh the Hair, rendering it soft, silky and glossy, and disposing it to remain in any desired position.

FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN,

whose hair requires frequent dressing, it has no equal. No lady's toilet is complete without it. The rich glossy appearance imparted is truly wonderful. It cleanses the Hair, removes all dandruff, and imparts to it a most delightful fragrance. It will prevent the Hair from falling out, and is the most economical and valuable Hair Dressing known. Millions of bottles sold every year.

The Restorer Reproduces and the Hair Dressing Cultivates and Beautifies.

New Triumphs of Roger's Medicines.

Run your eye over them and tell your afflicted neighbor about it.

PUGWASH, May 29, 1863

Messrs. Rogers & Co,

Gentlemen—I think it a duty I owe to you and the public, to state the following facts, as well for the benefit of humanity as in justice to yourself—although it should have been done long before this; but better late than never.

About four or five years ago I had a cancer in my breast, which had been coming on for a long time before but at last it became very painful, with sharp and severe pains darting through it at certain times. I applied to several doctors who advised that it should be cut out; and being afraid to submit to the operation, and hearing that you had cured many cancers, I, as you know, applied to you and submitted to your treatment, and used your medicine, and in a few months was thoroughly cured, and have been in perfect health ever since. I wish this to be made public for the benefit of others.

Yours with much gratitude,

ELIZABETH RYAN.

We know of no worse case—judging from the description given by letter—than a son of W. B. Weldon, Esq., of Kouchibouguac, N. B. He was reduced to a mere skeleton. He suffered most intense pain for many months His leg was ulcerated, and the bone diseased a large ulcer on his chin and face. Medicine and skill utterly failed, until all hope of saving his life was gone. Mr. Weldon's was a sorrowful house, no doubt, until our wonderful medicine dispelled the gloom. The lad is now nearly well, smart, cheerful and happy The parents too look more cheerful, and happy, and have lighter hearts, we judge by the cheering tone of their letters. It is refreshing to us to be thus the instruments of good to afflicted humanity. What care we for the slanders of the unprincipled! Our motto is onward. Our business to save human life, and cause the suffering to rejoice; and to make money you will add. Yes certainly we respond, and do you not think we deserve some of the large sum annually sent to brother Jonathan for useless articles.

Mr. Thomas Faulkner, of East River, Pictou N. S., is cured of a sore leg of nineteen years standing. The best physicians in the Province, after exhausting their skill, recommended amputation as the only remedy. His health was very much reduced, but is now completely restored

Mrs. Hannah Balmain, of Wickham, N. B., after using our medicine for over one year, for an ulcerated cancer of the breast, writes under date of Oct. 15, 1865, as follows:—

"My breast is doing well; there is but one small lump on it now. It only discharges from on ulcer: the rest are all healed up I have not enjoyed such good health for several years, as I do now. I have only received three bottles of your Syrup since I last wrote. being a poor woman, it is out of my reach, or I would be entirely well before now.
