Beauty

Is desired and admired by all. Among the things which may best be done to enhance personal beauty is the daily use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. No matter what the color of the hair, this preparation gives it a luster and pliancy that adds greatly to its charm. Should the hair be thin, harsh, dry, or turning gray, Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore the color, bring out a new growth, and render the old soft and shiny. For keeping the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, there is no better preparation in the market.

"I am free to confess that a trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor has convinced me that it is a genuine article. Its use has not only caused the hair of my wife and daughter to be

Abundant and Glossy, but it has given my rather stunted mustache a respectable length and appearance."—B. Britton, Oakland, Ohio.

"My hair was coming out (without any assistance from my wife, either).
I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, using only one bottle, and I now have as fine a head of hair as any one could wish for."

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor in my family for a number of years, and regard it as the best hair preparation I know of. It keeps the scalp clean, the hair soft and lively, and preserves the original color. My wife has used it for a long time with most satisfactory results."—Benjamin M. Johnson, M. D., Thomas Hill, Mo.

"My hair was becoming harsh and dry, but after using half a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it grew black and glossy. I cannot express the joy and gratitude I feel."—Mabel C. Hardy, Delavan, Ill.

Local and Other Items.

THE EXAMINER will not be issued to-morrow —New Year's Day.

THE STANLEY.—We understand that the Stanley sailed for Pictou this morning, and will return this evening.

ANTI-POVERTY.—An exchange says that one branch alone of the Anti-Poverty Society in New York raised $718 as a Christmas present for Dr. McGlynn. Anti-poverty appears to be a success, at least in its application to the doctor.

UNDER ARREST.—A Winnipeg farmer named A. J. Hatfield, who has borne a good reputation, but who is said to possess an ungovernable temper when in liquor, has been arrested on suspicion of having murdered his wife whose body was found on Christmas day some distance from their house frozen stiff, and her face mutilated. Hatfield says he only remembers to have struck her with his hand.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, VANCOUVER, B. C.—
The Canada Presbyterians of last week states that a committee of three clergymen, Messrs.
Croil, Barclay and another, have been commissioned by the congregation to select a pastor for this church. This committee have chosen Rev. Mr. McLaren, of Ontario, and a letter from a member of the church to a friend here states that a call has been sent to Mr.
McLaren at a salary of $2,500 per annum, with, we believe, a Manse. Vancouver is booming all its business—lay and clerical.

THE DORCHESTER FIRE.—Accountant Forster, of the Department of Justice, who held a special inquiry into the cause of the late fire at Dorchester penitentiary, has sent in his report. The report corroborates the previous supposition that the fire originated from the pipe of the late deputy warden, who laid it thoughtlessly on the window of his sitting room before retiring. The report expresses the opinion that great credit is due to Warden Forster and other officials for the prompt and systematic manner in which the fire was extinguished.

SCOTT ACT.—D. J. Freeman and wife, of Middleton, have been pretty heavily fined for violation of the Scott Act. The first case against Freeman for liquor selling resulted in a fine of $75; the second case for tampering with witnesses resulted in a fine of $6; and a suit against Mrs. Freeman for retailing the ardent, was settled with a fine of $50.

David Foster, of Oxford, has been convicted under the Canada Temperance Act, (1) for selling liquor, (2) for keeping and exposing it for sale, (3) for selling, and has been fined $50 for each offence. He is now serving three months in jail under conviction.

A STEEL BRIDGE.—One topic of absorbing interest to the people of Cape Breton Island during the past few months, has been as to the nature of the crossing which the government would decide upon for the Cape Breton railway to traverse the Grand Narrows. Several methods of crossing were proposed, but the majority of the Cape Breton people suggested the building of a bridge. When Mr. Schrieber visited the Island during the summer he went carefully into the question, and since that time the government has fully considered the matter, with the result that it has been decided to build a steel bridge at the Narrows, at a cost of about $500,000.

PROBABLY A CANARD.—The New York Herald has the following special from San Francisco: "A small war is going on at Honolulu in which the British Government may be involved. It seems members of a British commercial house were granted a franchise by the legislature to build a street railroad from Honolulu to Waikei. The firm did not follow the conditions of the franchise relative to the class of rails used, and also erected poorly constructed bridges. The Minister of the Interior ordered the road commissioners to tear up the rails which was done. The English house complained to the British Minister, J.
W. Woodhouse, and when the latter protested against the Hawaiian officials' action he was answered with a "to" with the British government and its commissioners also.
The commissioner has reported the whole matter to the Imperial Government. In the meantime the road is not being built and the end of the matter is not yet.

NOVELTY.—At last we are treated to a novelty in the way of almanac-making. Dr.
J. C. Ayer & Co., the well-known manufacturing chemists of Lowell, Mass., send us their Almanac for 1889, in the shape of a good-sized book, embracing editions in English, calculated for the various sections of the United States, the Dominion of Canada, India, South Africa and Australia; also, editions in other languages. The volume contains, also, specimen pages of pamphlets issued by the company in eleven languages not represented by the almanacs, including Greek, Turkish, Armenian, Chinese, Burmese, and Hawaiian —twenty-one languages in all. From the interesting preface we learn that no fewer than fourteen millions of these almanacs are printed yearly, thus placing the work as far ahead of any of kind in circulation and value as Ayer's Sarsaparilla is ahead of all others in merit and popularity. Be sure to secure a copy of this favorite almanac at your druggists. It is a species of "yellow-covered literature" which no family should be without.

A REMARKABLE CURE.—According to a story told the St. John Globe, James S. Cosman, of that city, has been remarkably cured for the various sections of the United States, the Dominion of Canada, India, South Africa and Australia; also, editions in
other languages. The volume contains, also,
by the almanacs, including Greek, Turkish,
—twenty-one languages in all. From the in-
of any of kind in circulation and value as
copy of this favorite almanac at your drug-
out.

Georgetown Notes.

Capt. McLaren and Mr. Cogswell have introduced hot water heating into their houses.

The telephone is found very convenient.
During the shipping season it was in almost constant use.

A boys' band has been formed here. Mr.
Worth is to instruct them. Success to the young hopefuls.

The Stanley on her first arrival also attracted a number of our citizens to inspect her elegant apartments, and greet her gallant officers. We are pleased to have her make this the winter port, and of course think it the most suitable. Is it all possible that the mail for this County can be distributed here? It seems stupid to send this mail to Charlottetown to be assorted there and then sent us. Why can't the Post Office Department look into this and have sufficient enterprise to change it—or give a solid reason for not doing so? It would be an improvement that the Province would appreciate.

The S. S. Halifax, while in port, was visited by many of our citizens, who greatly admired her handsome equipment. It would be of immense advantage if, during the summer, a steamer of this line called, say fortnightly, here and at Souris. This winter, efforts should be put forth to gain this end. The Government should enquire into the importance of the matter, and offer a subsidy towards a coasting steamer to connect Murray Harbor, Dundas and Cardigan with this port to centre sufficient freight to make it worth while calling for.
Such coasting steamer could ply on Cardigan ferry a day or two in each week if the other ports did not require her every day.
Dec. 29, 1888.

Sudden Deaths.

Thursday morning last, Murdock Mc-Farlane, 67 years old, a respectable and well to do farmer, of South Side St. Patrick's Channel, C. B., asked his wife to accompany him to visit his brother John, who lives on Baddeck Inlet, two miles across the channel. In the afternoon while rowing homeward he suddenly dropped the oars and died. The poor heart-stricken widow had to take the oars and do her best to reach the shore.

Oliver Johnson, of St. Louis, Kent Co., N. B., started on a hunting expedition a few days ago. He was found in the woods in an unconscious state, and expired shortly after being carried home.

Josiah McMillan was found dead, on Wednesday morning, at Strathroy, Ont.
There is a strong suspicion of foul play, as the water where the body was found lying is only eighteen inches deep. Deceased kept a grocery store in Strathroy for many years.

While Wm. K. Robinson, of Rome, N. Y., township, was out hunting near Wheatley, Ont., Christmas day, a large limb of a tree fell striking him on the head. He died on Wednesday morning.

Statue of the Duke of Wellington.

The Prince of Wales and other high personages have at last unveiled Mr. Bosh's new bronze statue of the Duke of Wellington, which for days past has stood in swaddling clothes opposite Apsley House. The statue is equestrian, life size, and life-like, full of energy, movement and ease, and is so treated that neither is art sacrificed to history nor history to art. Four bronze sentries at the four angles of the red Aberdeen granite pedestal guard the duke—privates in four regiments, English, Irish, Scotch, and Welsh.
