Centennial theme for fashion show

A group of young Charlottetown women with a truly ambitious program is the Junior Ladies Aid of the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

Members meet at the Cundall Home every third Thursday afternoon each month from Sept. until May. Organized May 7, 1946, the club's current membership of 60 raise funds for hospital equipment, comforts for patients, additional furnishings for the nurses residence, and to contribute to a scholarship fund to Nursing School graduates for post- graduate work.

The hospital cart is a most appreciated project of the Aid. This mobile canteen is brought to each patient's room six days a week, providing them the opportunity to purchase magazines, stationery, cosmetics and candy.

The annual fashion show and dinner at the Charlottetown Hotel is the Aid's major fund raising project. This year's three day showing begins March 16 with Mrs. Alfred MacNeil and Mrs. Walter Auld as co-conveners. They and their committee have arranged a novel program with a Centennial Year theme that should prove interesting.

Other activities include the League of Mercy Coffee Party held each year in October, decorating Christmas trees in the hospital wards and waiting rooms, and catering to the Business Men's Luncheon at the YMCA.

President of the Junior Ladies Aid is Mrs. T.D. DeBlois, with Mrs. Lloyd Cox Jr. as vice-president. Other officers are: treasurer, Mrs. Russel Ewing; recording secretary, Mrs. Lloyd W. MacLeod; and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Donald MacKay.

Hi-Y Clubs adopt three Greek girls

The clubs participate annually in the Induction Service of all Hi-Y members which is held at a local church.

Proceeds from autumn life saver sales are sent to World Service.

In December, Delta Bona Fide and Beta Ta-U jointly sponsor the annual Snowflake Tea at the YMCA.

Delta Bona Fide held a Hallowe'en Party for the Herbert Orphange children and at present Beta Ta-U is planning a party for the children at the Sanitroium.

Each of the clubs has adopted a Greek girl and send money for their clothes and schooling.

Beta Ta-U holds an annual Christmas dance and in the spring sponsors Hi-Y Day. Summerside Hi-Y is invited to Charlottetown for the day and sports competitions, banquet and dance are held.

Every February Delta Bona Fide holds a coronation dance at which the king and queen of Hi-Y are chosen.

A Guys and Dolls fashion show with clothes from Moore and MacLeod's and Henderson and Cudmore's, modelled by Hi-Y boys and girls, is put on every MAay be Delta Bona Fide.

Each year the clubs donate something to the YMCA. Delta Bona Fide helped buy a new movie projector, and Beta Ta-U installed drinking taps.

On Christmas Eve, Delta Bona Fide held a sing song for Hi-Y members and friends which included Christmas carols, the Christmas story and lunch.

Also at Christmas, Beta Ta-U packed a Christmas basket for a needy family and Delta Bona Fide purchased tool and handicraft equipment for the Cerebral Palsy Day School.

Both clubs have arranged counselling discussions on career opportunities with a hairdresser, cosmetician, doctor, minister, as well as speakers on radio work, world service, Island history and the Women's Army Corps.
