N. Glasgow Junior Farmers Presented Trophy At Annual

Jack Johnston, Halifax, regional supervisor of the farm and fisheries department of the CBC, was guest speaker Tuesday at the annual meeting of the P.E.I. Junior Farmers Federation at North River.

Mr. Johnston outlined methods used by television to show changing trends in agriculture and inform urban people of the agriculture plays in their lives.

Agriculture Minister Andrew MacIsaac addressed the group and promised the co-operation of his department in the efforts of the junior farmers.

The Junior Farmers' trophy, awarded annually to the group doing in most for its community, was awarded to the N. W. Glasgow group. Competition judges were Garth Coffin, Audrey Vennit and Robert Parent. Among the new directors el-

EYES FRONT!

The soldier atop Charlottetown's Boer War memorial remains unmoved by the decoration on his bayonet. Pedestrians passing Prince Edward Island's provincial building thought they saw a woman's bra and slip. A caretaker, sent to restore dignity to Queen's Square, confirmed their suspicions. How the garments got there was not determined.

FOG, FROST CAUSE JAMS
TORONTO (CP)—More than 50 accidents were reported Wednesday as motorists drove into the city on frost-slicked roads. The accidents caused rush-hour traffic jams and made hundreds late for work. One woman was reported severely injured in a seven-car pile-up. Fog disrupted city-bound traffic Tuesday causing more than 100 accidents. One man was killed.

Dramatist To Discuss Centennial

Mavor Moore, one of Canada's leading dramatists is scheduled to arrive in Charlottetown Saturday, for discussions with the executive committee and the centennial committees.

The executive director of the committee, William Hayward, stated that the purpose of Mr. Moore's visit is the exchange of ideas that can be utilized in the planning of Island celebrations.

In addition to the many ideas that Mr. Moore has gathered in his travels for the CBC, Mr. Hayward said that the committee has some ideas of its own they would like to discuss with the visitor.

In the continual search for fresh ideas, Mr. Hayward said that the committee would be contacting other persons who may possess some original thoughts and ideas which could be included in the program.

254 Farmers Seek Grain Payments

A total of 254 applications has been received on a total of 2,731 acres up to yesterday for compensation, promised by the government to farmers who have been unable to harvest grain fields due to bad weather and wet ground. It was learned from S. C. Wright, deputy minister of agriculture.

It is hoped, however, that many of those acres will be harvested owing to the continuing fine weather of this week, Mr. Wright observed.

Here's WHY "our district will gain - with Blanchard & McLean"

A BETTER DEAL FOR LABOR . . .

MORE MONEY IN YOUR HUSBAND'S PAY ENVELOPE

Cam McLean Assemblyman

Elmer Blanchard Councillor

We want to see Charlottetown a hustling industrial centre where labour will be held at a higher premium than has ever been . . . and this will mean more take-home pay for you each week. This is the kind of legislation the Liberal party proposes . . . the kind of legislation it will put into effect.

More money in your husband's pay envelope will mean more of the better things of life for you and your children . . . a higher living standard and happier homes. Look to the new Liberal party, an energetic, driving party, to get things done.

if YOU want ACTION . . . Action to introduce legislation of BENEFIT to YOU and YOUR FAMILY . . .

VOTE BLANCHARD & McLEAN
... vote Liberal on December 10th!
