

Spears - McNally Wedding

A pretty autumn wedding took place in Saint Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus on Monday morning, Nov. 6, at 8.30, when Reverend T. E. Butler united in marriage Basil James Spears, son of Mrs. Agnes Spears and the late James Spears, Ketch Harbour, N. S., and Viola Mae McNally, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. McNally of Fort Augustus.

The double-ring ceremony was performed.

During the Nuptial Mass, hymns were rendered by friends of the bride with Mrs. Levi McNally as soloist.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of the Wedding March, played by Mr. Martin Power. She was attended by Miss Joan Spears, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by Mr. Leo McNally, brother of the bride.

The ushers were Mr. Gerald Spears, Ketch Harbour; and Mr. Levi McNally, Johnston's River.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold locket; to the bridesmaid, a compact; and to the groomsmen, a bill-fold.

The bride was dressed in a navy blue gabardine suit with grey accessories and squirrel neckpiece, wearing a corsage of red roses, while the bridesmaid chose a grey gabardine suit with black accessories and wore pink roses and squirrel neckpiece.

The bride's mother was dressed in burgundy with matching accessories and wore a corsage of roses while the groom's mother wore black with matching accessories and corsage of yellow roses. After the ceremony, the happy couple, accompanied by their immediate friends, motored to the Queen Hotel, where a delicious breakfast was served. Reverend Father Butler proposed the toast to the bride which was responded to by the groom.

In the evening a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The toast to the bride being proposed by Mr. Stephen P. Connolly and was fittingly responded to by the groom. Reverend L. P. Callaghan and Reverend T. E. Butler were among the distinguished guests.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many useful and costly gifts both at the reception, and showers which were held at the home of Mrs. Agnes Spears, Ketch Harbour, N. S., and by the employees of the Royal Bank, Halifax, where the bride was employed.

Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Schnare, Chester, N. S., Mr. and Mrs. William Spears, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Spears, Miss Joan Spears, Mrs. Agnes Spears of Ketch Harbour, N. S., and Mrs. Fred Robinson of Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Spears will reside in Ketch Harbour, N. S. (Patriot please copy)
