HELPING THE POOR.—Elsewhere in today's issue of THE EXAMINER will be found the ninth annual report of the ladies branch of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. This Society has for years past been doing a good work in the way of providing clothing for the deserving poor, and as will be seen by the report for last year, the noble work is still going on. The ladies composing the Society are deserving of every encouragement.

HE COULD HEAR.—A gentleman the other day employed a carpenter to partition off part of his study, and particularly instructed the workman to make the partition sound-proof. The carpenter declared that he could do this effectually with a filling of sawdust. When it was finished the gentleman stood on one side and called to the carpenter on the other, "Can you hear me, John?" "No, sir; not a bit," was the prompt reply.—Halifax Herald.

FIRE.—The alarm this forenoon was for a slight fire in Jas. Paton & Co's office. The fire was caused by the accidental lighting of some paper boxes containing millinery and lace goods left near the pipe leading from the furnace in the cellar through the floor into the fire, the soot in the pipe taking fire causing it to heat. The firemen promptly responded to the call of duty, but the fire was extinguished without their assistance. The damage is covered by insurance. The fire will in no way affect business in the store.

BEER BROS. SHOW DAY.
For twenty-one years Beer Bros. have been catering to the taste of the ladies of Charlottetown, so it is not to be wondered at if their annual "show day" comes to be recognized as one of the events of "the season." It is the pleasing privilege of THE EXAMINER to give its lady readers a short account of to-day's opening display.

The first thing claiming attention is the magnificent array of mantles. There is an exquisite display of English, French and German novelties. In capes the variety is very large, but the garments claiming special attention are undoubtedly a number of Paris-made silk and lace Capes with shot linings. A feature of this display worth noting is that no two of the high-class novelties are alike, consequently the variety is more attractive than at any previous time. In jackets the perforated designs over silk or velvet are very beautiful, and the Chesterfield jacket in covert coating has also many admirers.

Fashion in her brightest moods is to be seen in the millinery department, which forms another of the principal attractions of to-day's show. The chief features of both London and Paris millinery are well represented. On no previous occasion have Beer Bros. shown so large an assortment of shapes, black and colored straw. Needless to say flowers are shown in great profusion, and the new chene, shot and fancy ribbons are exquisitely beautiful.

The children are not forgotten, and among the lawn hats and hoods shown is to be noticed a nice variety of the new washing sun bonnets. The trimmings used this season are very varied, but none are more beautiful than the new ribbons and flowers. In lace the most conspicuous novelties are the accordion plated French lace chiffon net and grenadine. It is shown in abundance Miss Dunlop, who has already won for her work the approbation of the severest critics, shows several daintily-trimmed hats and bonnets that are greatly admired. Ordered work, as heretofore, however, has her best attention.

The seeker after novelty will not be disappointed in Beer Bros. dress goods department. Conspicuous among the many and fine fabrics shown are the cozzons and covert coatings. Every lady should inspect the display of 52-inch French broadcloths on their centre counter, nineteen of the newest color-tones being shown. In the ever-popular very serge twenty-five qualities are shown. The new combination in heavier tweeds and striped granite tweeds are worth noting also.

Space forbids a more extended notice. But, taking it all in all, the display dry goods, mantles and millinery may be said to rate with the best ever made on Prince Edward Island.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

TAX HIM.
SIR.—An individual in our city taking orders for clothing among the Salvation Army folks. He gets their measure and cash here and the clothing is made in Montreal. It is just here our Varnish Restorer comes in. In using Furniture Polishes you have to first wash and clean the surface, and then apply the polish. In using our Varnish Restorer, you clean and polish at the same time.

ENTERPRISE APPRECIATED.
SIR.—I must compliment THE EXAMINER on the enterprise which invariably gives to its readers the Governor-General's Speech in full on the evening on which it is delivered. I have noticed that though you do not brag a great deal, THE EXAMINER is usually ahead in the supply of news and information of interest and importance.

APPRECIATIVE READER.
The other day a wagon maker, who had been dumb for years, picked up a hub and spoke; and a blind carpenter reached out for his plane and saw; and a deaf sheep ranchman went out with his dog and herd; and a noseless fisherman caught a barrel of herring and smelt; and a forty-ton elephant inserted his trunk into a grate and fine; and a sleepless man bought a new, Nickle Spring Mattress and slept.

LABOR SAVER.
During house cleaning time, anything that will save labor is in demand. It is just here our Varnish Restorer comes in. In using Furniture Polishes you have to first wash and clean the surface, and then apply the polish. In using our Varnish Restorer, you clean and polish at the same time.

To J. E. McDonald, D. D. S., Summerside, P. E. I.
Dear Doctor,—I am so well pleased with the work you have done for me, that I will take it as a special favor if you will give publicity to this letter. I positively assert that after an experience extending over twenty-two years under the hands of many dentists, you are the only one who ever extracted a tooth for me ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT PAIN. The ten teeth you removed for me at one sitting did not hurt a particle, as Mr. James Dawson of Tryon, who was present at the operation, heard me testify. The man who invented your method should be knighted.

I am yours, gratefully,
