THE STANLEY arrived at Pictou at 11 o'clock this morning.

HEARTZ'S HALL.—Be sure to go to the concert at Hertz's Hall on Tuesday next.
A first-class programme will be presented.
Remember the date, Feb'y 28th.

THE MAILS.—The boats with forty-nine bags of mail left Tormentine this morning at twenty minutes to nine. The remaining one hundred and sixty or so bags have been sent to Pictou and will come over the next trip of the Stanley. The boats from Cape Tormentine had to put back after being out some time, and consequently there will be no foreign mail tonight. At one o'clock the boats from this side were endeavoring to cross to Cape Tormentine.

THE EXPEDITION RETURNS.—The special expedition that left Stockholm April 20, 1898, to visit the island of northern Siberia in the hope of finding some trace of Prof. Andree or his balloon has just returned. The principals in the matter were J. Standling, Prof. Nilsson, the well known botanist, and Engineer Fraenkel, a brother of one of the Andree party. These men have succeeded in establishing two important facts—that Andree has not landed on any of the islands to the north of Siberia, and that food and provisions that had been left in barren places were found untouched.

PLEASANT AND NOT SO PLEASANT.—One of the passengers who came across by the Stanley yesterday tells us that the trip was a splendid one. They had clear water from Pictou Island until they struck the board ice, about fifteen miles from Georgetown, and the Stanley went through that quite easily. He says that the trip from Georgetown to Charlottetown was not so pleasant, however. The passengers hired a special, each paid a share of the cost ($2.00) and were very indignant that the train was kept waiting to load several cars with oranges and lemons, and then stopped at the stations along the way to take on passengers.

The Satisfactory Service.

SIR,—I notice on the P. O. bulletin board today that 49 bags of mail matter are crossing the Caps and that the remaining bags have been sent to Pictou to cross by the Stanley. Yesterday 45 bags were attempted to be brought over whilst 122 bags remained at Cape Tormentine. Since that time another day's mail should have reached Cape Tormentine so that it is fair to assume that over 150 bags have been sent to Pictou for further delay. That the number is large is clear otherwise the Post Office Department would not suppress it. This is the first day that the bulletin board did not contain the information and the public is left to imagine how many bags remain at Cape Tormentine. All this is "satisfactory" to the Patriot and those who believe it.

ST. PETER'S MISSION.

Introductory Sermon by Rev. Marcel Cotran.

The opening sermon of a ten days mission in St. Peter's Church was delivered last evening by the Rev. Marcel Cotran, who selected as his text the twenty-ninth chapter of the second book of The Chronicles. In that chapter there is a description of a mission to the Jewish Nation, a mission instituted by King Hezekiah, and extending to the priests and Levites, and throughout all ranks of the people, even to those who had cut themselves off from the services of the House of God at Jerusalem.
The missionary commented upon the chapter, showing the points of resemblance with the christian mission now undertaken in St. Peter's Church and calling upon all persons of all classes to come to the mission services. He said he would be glad to talk to any person after the services concerning difficulties in their religious life, difficult passages in the scriptures, difficulty about prayer, etc. The congregation was large and attentive, and the singing hearty.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Geo. Kemp returned from a trip to Murray Harbor this morning.

Messrs. Benj. Bremner and Mr. J. F.
Gallagher were among the passengers to town by the eastern train today.

Mr. J. R. LeBlanc, of Montreal, is here in the interests of the Lang Manufacturing Company. He is a guest at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. T. H. Radford, representing Mc-Farlane Son & Hodgson, Montreal, is among the latest arrivals at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. W. J. Farrand, of St. John, representing the Canadian Drug Co., came down from Georgetown this morning. He crossed by the Stanley.

Mr. E. G. Higginson, one of the best known travellers on this circuit, is registered at the Hotel Davies. Mr. Higginson represents a Montreal house dealing in paints and oils.

Mr. W. B. Reynolds, of Halifax, a well-known traveller in the interests of the tea trade, crossed in the Stanley yesterday, and came up from Georgetown in the special. He is at the Hotel Davies.

The death at his home in Reading, Pa., of Hon. H. M. Klem, is reported. Mr.
Klem passed away on Sunday last. He was at one time United States Consul at Charlottetown where he made many friends by whom news of his death will be received with regret.

The Queen is having wonderfully good health this winter, and during the recent cold weather Her Majesty has taken a long drive in an open carriage every afternoon and has always remained out till after dusk.
Her Majesty can now drive at Osborne for more than eight miles without going outside her own domain, and this private road traverses every variety of park scenery, while nearly all the way there are magnificent views of the Solent and the Hampshire coast beyond.

Customs; Mr. William Davies, Commissary Clerk; Mr. James Mason, first Steward; and Mr. John Rooney, oiler.

The boys will probably have a splendid time, and it is likely that we shall hear more of them when they get to Manila.

PLAYER FINED.—The action of Judge Ardagh of Barrie in fining the Midland hockey player English $50 and costs amounting to $121.65, or two months in jail at hard labor for deliberately disabling Labatt, of Gollingwood, while playing a hockey match is highly commendable, and a few more of the ruffianly stamp of players were treated in a similar fashion it would be a step in the right direction, a large number of the hockey matches this winter have been simply exhibitions of brute strength and rowdiness.—Candian Sportsman.

HANDSOME TABLET.—The exterior of Grace Church, will, in a few days, be fitted with a handsome tablet in black and gold, upon which the order of services as well as the pastor's name will be inscribed. The drawing is the gift of Mr. W. C. Collett, architect, of Boston, formerly of Crapaud.
The design is Colonial, the moulding being an imitation of that on the stairway leading to the gallery of Trinity Episcopal Church, Newport, R. I., built in 1709, and since removed. The woodwork of the tablet was kindly donated by Mark Wright & Co., and the painting and lettering was executed by Mr. Harry Crossman.

A GOOD MAN GONE.—We are sorry to learn that John McDonald, Esq., St.
Peter's Lake, died yesterday. The deceased who was in his 84th year, had been ailing about seven weeks. Mr. McDonald was a most kind and upright man, a ready conversationalist, and was well informed on the leading questions of the day. He was very much esteemed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him and enjoying his company, and the community in which he lived mourns the loss of a wise counsellor and friend. Mr.
McDonald, St. Andrew's, is a brother, and the Revs. D. F. McDonald, Sauris, and J. A. McDonald, Miscouche, are nephews of the deceased. The bereaved family and other relatives have our deepest sympathy.
