

A NOVA SCOTIA CASE

Significant Praise of Dodd's Kidney Pills by a Meteghan Citizen.

METEGHAN, N.S., Aug. 22.—No man is better known to the travelling and commercial classes in this province than is Mr. William German, proprietor of the Bay View Hotel here.

An interesting statement is made by Mr. German, and reads thus: "I take pleasure in testifying to the merits of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Two years ago, I was suffering from severe pains in my back caused by Kidney Trouble."

"I got two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and used them, and my complaint was completely cured. I have not had the slightest pain since."

To all victims of Kidney Complaint there is one way of escape from their suffering. That is only by using Dodd's Kidney Pills. They always cure.

She Paralyzed 'Em.

Counsel—What is your age, madam? Witness—Forty-seven, sir.

Counsel—Married or single? Witness—Single. I never had an offer of marriage in my life, and if it is of any interest to the court I don't mind saying that I have worn false hair for nearly 30 years.

Counsel—Hear! That is all, madam. There is no use trying to shake the direct testimony of so truthful a woman as you are.—London Tit-Bits.

Trials of Ignorance.

Casey—I called one of them Johnnies a liar, an he says to me, says he, "Tu quoque." Now, what might that mean? Dooley—It means, "You're another."

Casey—Fwat! An I let 'um get away widout hittin 'um! Ah, that is what a man gets for havin no education.—Vanity Fair.

Costly.

"Yes, I'll admit that I thought my wife was an angel before I married her."

"And what do you think now?" "Well, she's still an angel, but her feathers come high."—Chicago News.

The People's Faith

Firmly Grounded Upon Real Merit—They Know Hood's Sarsaparilla Absolutely and Permanently Cures When All Others Fail.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is not merely a simple preparation of Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia and a little Iodide of Potassium. Besides these excellent alteratives, it also contains those great anti-bilious and liver remedies, Mandrake and Dandelion. It also contains those great kidney remedies, Uva Ursi, Juniper Berries, and Pipsissewa.

Mer are these all. Other very valuable cathartic agents are harmoniously combined in Hood's Sarsaparilla and it is carefully prepared under the personal supervision of a regularly educated pharmacist.

Knowing these facts, is the abiding faith the people have in Hood's Sarsaparilla a matter of surprise? You can see why Hood's Sarsaparilla cures, when other medicines totally, absolutely fail.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier. Sold by all druggists. 50¢; six for $2.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, aid digestion. 25¢.

Moms Life Among the Indians.

One would hardly suppose that there could be particular rules as to the manner of sitting upon the ground. But here as in every other part of Indian life there is a rigid observance of custom. Men may properly sit upon their heels or cross-legged, but no woman may assume these attitudes. She must sit sideways, gathering her feet well under her, and make a broad, smooth lap. When working, she may kneel or squat, and when resting she may sit as the men may sit with legs extended, but at all other times men and women must observe the etiquette of posture distinctive of sex. To rise without touching the ground with the hand, springing up lightly and easily to the feet, is a bit of good breeding very difficult to one not of the manner born. Careful parents are particular to train their children in these niceties of behavior.

Among the Winnebagos the little girls are drilled in the proper way of standing when under observation on dress occasions. Their position of hands and feet is also the proper one for the women in certain religious dances. While among the Sioux a mother with a good sized family of boys and girls propounded to me the question whether white women did not find their daughters more trouble than their sons. She was sure she did. "Look at those girls," said she. "I have their clothes to make, their hair to braid, and to see that they learn how to behave. Now, my boys are no trouble." As I glanced at the group of children, the glossy braids of the girls falling over their single smock, and the boys, naked but for the breech-clout, their miniature scalp lock ornamented with a brass sleigh bell surmounting a snarl of frozy hair, I recognized the kinship of maternal perplexities the world over.—Mrs. Alice C. Fletcher in Century.

She Didn't Feel Comfortable.

A Glasgow lady in a hurry to go to church took from her dark closet what she thought to be her dolman.

She hung the garment over her arm, and did not discover until she had thrown it over the back of the pew in front of her in church that she had brought by mistake a pair of her husband's trousers.

She and her lady companion laughed so loud that they attracted the attention of the entire congregation, and no one except themselves understood the cause of the fresh burst of enthusiasm when the choir led off with "As Pants the Heart."—Pearson's Weekly.

Loyalty and Fair.

A Democratic member of the house received a letter from an active politician of that party in his district calling attention to the fact that he is reported in The Congressional Record almost every day as being "paired" with a Republican. "I don't doubt your loyalty to the party," reads the letter, "but I think the boys would like a good deal better if you paired with Democrats instead of Republicans."—Chicago Record.

To hunt the lion was kingly sport from the earliest times, and the Egyptian monuments show that all kinds of hunting, as well as fowling, were followed for pleasure.

"The Olympic games were probably the oldest athletic sports, and their origin is lost in antiquity. They are said to celebrate Jupiter's defeat of the Titans.
