trust, never to give up a name. It declares itself ready to apologise in all instances where unprovoked offence has been given; to explain, where error has occurred, or to apologise where injury has been inflicted. But it regards the name of a correspondent, or a contributor, as sacred in its keeping, and in this principle, we have no hesitation in saying, that all that portion of the press of London, which regards character, fully coincides.—BRITANNIA.

SOUTH AMERICA.

The brig Henry P. Sumner, captain Tyler, arrived on Tuesday, the 12th January, at Baltimore, in 45 days from Rio de Janeiro, having sailed on the 25th November. The British packet Spider, from the River La Plata, arrived at Rio de Janeiro the day before the H. P. Sumner left, and brought official intelligence that the difficulties between the French and Buenos Ayrean Governments had been settled on terms satisfactory to both parties—that the blockade had ceased—and that Buenos Ayres was again open to commerce.

The news that the treaty had been concluded produced, it appears, a great sensation at Montevideo. All the French residing there protested against the act, and resolved to draw up a petition to be sent to the French Chambers.

The Dictator Francia, of Paraguay, died on the 20th of September last. A junta of five members had succeeded him in the Government.

Lavalle had obtained, it was said, a new triumph over Pacheco, and this General, as well as Oribe and Mascarillas, fled towards Buenos Ayres.

The Colonial Herald.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1841.

Last week's mail arrived at a late hour on Saturday night. We extract the following from a Postscript to the Halifax Post, of the 4th instant.

The Steamer ACADIA, Captain Miller, arrived last evening about 7 o'clock. She brought us a generous bundle of papers, as usual, from our friend Clapp. They announce the arrival of the Packet Ship North America, at New York, from Liverpool, on Saturday last, bringing

LATE AND IMPORTANT NEWS.

THE CHINESE WAR ENDED.

The latest dates are from London to the 6th, and Liverpool to the evening of the 7th January.

The chief news is from China and India.

The Chinese question is settled; the war in Cabool is terminated; and Mehemet Ali is thoroughly and effectually subdued.

Advices are from Bombay to the 1st ult.

Shortly after the capture of Chusan, Admiral Elliott had an audience with the Emperor, who agreed to pay £3,000,000 for the expenses incurred by the British in making war; other authorities state £2,000,000 sterling, as indemnity for the opium seized, and £1,000,000 for the expenses of the war.

The Emperor, either himself or through his officers, has expressed pacific intentions to the Admiral. Commissioner Lin has fallen into disgrace, and the Emperor offers to surrender him into the hands of the English, to be dealt with as they think proper.

Chusan is not to be given up until the treaty is signed.

Of English news there is but little.

The Earl of Somers died at his residence, at Brighton, on the 6th of January. The death of Rear Admiral Sir Philip B. Verebroke, who commanded the Shannon in her engagement with the Chesapeake during the last war, is announced.

Our Legislative report is brought down to Wednesday evening. Neither time nor space are afforded us for remarks.

The following Correspondence, on the subject of employing a Steamboat, for the conveyance of the mails, has been laid before both houses of the Legislature.

201, Piccadilly, 16th June, 1840.

SIR;

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th instant, with the documents that accompanied it. I should be most anxious to comply with the wishes of His Excellency the Lt. Governor of Prince Edward Island, and regret that it is not in my power in this instance to do so. The Steam Ship between Pictou and Quebec will have ample occupation in conveying the Mails twice a month between these places.

It is true that Prince Edward Island is the only Government left out in the recent arrangements, Newfoundland being now provided for, but if a Steam-boat were established, to run twice a week between Pictou and Charlottetown; to convey the English and Provincial Mails, it would suit the Post Office and serve the interest of the Island much better; than having the Quebec Steam-boat to call at Charlottetown, the Island Mail for Quebec could always be put on board at Pictou.

I could furnish a suitable Steam-boat for this purpose for a small sum.

I have, &c.

Downing Street, 26th June, 1840.

SIR;

I have laid before Lord John Russell, your letter of the 24th inst., stating the objections to allowing the Steam-boat, which is to convey the Mails between Pictou and Quebec, to touch at Prince Edward Island, and communicating the offer of Mr. Cunard, to provide another Steamer, at a small cost, for the conveyance of the Mails, to and from that Island. His Lordship directs me to request that you will move the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury to obtain from Mr. Cunard an estimate of the sum for which he would undertake this service, in order that a proposition may be made to the Legislature of the Island, to appropriate a portion of the local Revenue to this object.

I am, &c.

SIR;

With reference to your letter of the 26th June last, I am commanded by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to transmit herewith copy of a letter from Mr. Cunard, containing an estimate for the conveyance in a Steamer of the Mails to and from Prince Edward Island, for the information of Lord John Russell.

I am, &c.

201, Piccadilly, 2d July, 1840.

SIR;

With reference to your letter of this date, I hereby offer to furnish a good and substantial Steam-boat, of not less than 70 horses power, to convey the Mails between Pictou and Prince Edward Island, twice in each month, during the season that the Navigation is open in the River St. Lawrence, at the rate of Eighteen Hundred Pounds per Annum, to commence on the arrival of the first Steam Ship at Halifax, from Liverpool, at which time I will have a Steamer in readiness to convey the Mail from Pictou to Charlottetown, and to continue during the period of my Contract for the conveyance of the Mails to North America.

I have, &c.

(Signed) S. CUNARD.

Sir J. Barrow, Bart., &c. &c. &c.

Pictou, 4th January, 1841.

The Hon. T. H. Haviland,
Colonial Secretary, Charlottetown,
Prince Edward Island.

SIR,

The Proprietors of the Steamboat Pocahontas respectfully beg leave to tender her services to the Government of Prince Edward Island, for the purpose of conveying the Mails between Pictou and Charlottetown, as follows, viz:

The Pocahontas will carry the Mails twice or three times in each week, for one, two or three years, on said route, from the opening of the navigation until its close, for Four hundred Pounds, Halifax currency, per annum, for two trips a week, or Five hundred and fifty Pounds, same currency, per annum, for three trips a week.

In case the tender for three trips a week should be preferred, it shall be optional with the Government of Prince Edward Island to direct one of said three trips to be run between Pictou and Georgetown. The Proprietors will, of course, bind themselves to keep the Boat, during her engagement, in an efficient state.

If a Contract for two trips be preferred, in that case, the Boat must not be long detained at Charlottetown—at no time over Six hours, between the hours of 6 a. m. and 6 p. m.; but if taken for three trips, the Master of the Boat will be directed to comply at all times with such instructions as he may receive at Charlottetown, respecting the time of his delay at and departure therefrom.

A definite reply to this Tender is solicited as early as possible in February, as, should it not be accepted, the Proprietors will, after that month, provide other employment for the Boat.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
For the Proprietors of the Pocahontas,
Your most obdt. servant,
(Signed) JAMES PRIMROSE, Agent.

And in case any member shall neglect to pay the sums required by these Rules, after a demand thereof being previously made, the name of such member shall, with the consent of the majority of the members present, at the next quarterly meeting at which such report shall be made, be expunged from the books of this Society.

That all members of this Society shall conduct themselves as good subjects, and zealously exert themselves in support of the laws of their country, carefully avoiding in the Society all controversy, on religious or political subjects. Finally, it is the duty of the members of this Society, to shew, by the regularity of their lives, a good example to others, and to promote harmony and good will amongst men, and relieve the indigent of every nation.

The President, or in his absence, the assistant President, or in his absence the Treasurer, for that day of meeting, to preside; said officers so appointed, shall, in case of necessity, have power to assemble the Society, and shall lay before it the cause of such special meeting. The presiding officer shall state to the Society, all questions which may arise for consideration, and after debate, shall declare the opinion of the Society, according to the will of the majority thereof present at the debate, which will preclude any further discussion thereof for that meeting.—The presiding officers are hereby invested with full power and authority, at every meeting, to preserve silence, order and decorum, and to enforce a fine at their discretion, on any offending member, not exceeding the sum of one shilling—the same to be applied to the funds of the charity; which proceeding shall be recorded. And, in case any member shall afterwards be guilty of repeated improper conduct, he shall, by a vote of the majority of the meeting of the Society, present at such irregularity, be expelled the Society as a member. The President, or presiding officer for the time being, to have the custody and use of the Seal. The Treasurer shall receive and hold all the funds of the Society, rendering an exact account of the receipts, expenditure, and payments made to the Committee of Charity, together with the state of the funds, on the Tenth day of March, to the Society; and is hereby prohibited from making any use whatever of any part of such funds, without first obtaining an order in writing to that effect, signed by the President, or presiding officer for the time being, with the consent of the majority of the Society, present at the quarterly meeting. That five members be chosen as a Committee of Charity, by the majority of the Society at the special meeting, on the Tenth day of March, annually, as aforesaid; and that the said Committee of Charity are hereby authorised to distribute the ordinary relief of the society to such persons as they shall think most deserving, and in such manner as shall be most beneficial to the persons who shall receive the same; and that no relief be granted to any person or persons by said Committee, without obtaining the consent of the majority thereof. That in cases of doubt or difficulty, the said Committee shall consult the other officers then on duty—in which case the Committee are to be governed by the voice of the majority—and exhibit in writing, at each Quarterly Meeting, a full and true account of the objects relieved, and the sevesal sums and full amounts paid by them (the said Committee) for the current quarter—a regular entry thereof to be made in the books of the Society, signed by the President or presiding officer, for the time being.

Fifth.—That the Secretary shall keep an exact list of the Members of this Society, and of the amount paid and due by each Member thereof; and give notice, by public advertisement, or otherwise, previous to each Quarterly Meeting; and is hereby bound by these constitutions to do all things, while in office, that shall be adjudged to appertain to his office, with punctuality; he shall have the care of all the books and papers of this Society, the disbursements for Stationary, and all other contingencies, to be at the expence of this Society.

Annual Festival.

Sixth.—That this Society celebrate their Annual Festival on the 17th March, in each year, and the mode of celebrating said Festival annually, shall be regulated by the Society, at the Quarterly Meeting previous, that on the Festival each Member do wear in his hat, and on his breast, a Sprig or emblem of the Shamrock tradition, informing us our Patron Saint made use of it as a type to explain to our ancestors the existence of three distinct persons in one God.

Preservation of the Constitutions.

Seventh.—That these Constitutions be received in their literal meaning, truly observed by all officers and members; and not to be altered but by and with the consent of a majority of the members of this Society at a Quarterly Meeting.

The Benevolent Irish Society of Prince Edward Island was established in the year 1825, under the patronage of the then Lieutenant Governor, His Excellency Colonel John Ready, a native of Ireland, and who continued at its head during his residence in the Island: Although several of the gentlemen, to whom the credit of forming the Society is chiefly due, have sometime since ceased to sustain a part in their earthly avocations, the presence of some of them continue yet to distinguish and cement its numbers, and to share in no small degree the gratification yielded to all by the furtherance of its praiseworthy and truly benevolent objects.

Subsisting in a small community, and composed of members thereout belonging to one particular country only; and their children, the sources of the Society's funds, it follows, must be proportionately limited and its usefulness equally circumscribed; notwithstanding which the records of its proceedings shew that within the last seven years it has afforded pecuniary relief to more than ninety individuals, without respect to their creed or country; and among whom, to every one according to the necessity of his or her case, it has expended from its funds in all above £109. The business of the Society is conducted with regularity and strict decorum; all differences of opinion settled by free and and orderly debate, its meetings when business is over, conclude with conversational topics of a social and amusing nature, from which sectarian and political feelings are carefully excluded, and wherein pleasing associations connected with the land of "Erin go bragh" are often re-kindled to warm a new the bosoms of its far distant children.

The next Quarterly Meeting of the Society takes place on Thursday the 11th inst., and as there has lately been an increase in the applications for admission, the chief object of the Society in republishing the Rules appears to be to afford copies for the information of applicants, as well as for the use of members.

A number of the inhabitants of Charlottetown gave a superb ball and supper, at Down's Hotel, on Wednesday last, to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor and his noble Lady, in honour of the auspicious event of the Birth of an Heiress Presumptive to the Throne of Great Britain.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—On Wednesday evening last, the Rev. Robert Douglas read a lecture to the Institute, founded upon the proposition that "Moderate abilities, combined with application, prudence and economy, are better adapted to a man's success in life, than splendid talents without these qualities." The rev. lecturer, by a clear and succinct course of argument, fully proved the proposition to the conviction of all who heard him. The Hon. the President, the Rev. James Waddell, and some others, made some useful observations upon the lecture, which want of space, however, prevents our noticing more particularly.

Dr. Conroy will lecture next Wednesday evening, upon Animal Physiology. This is the second extra Lecture, intended to make up for the two lectures that should have been delivered in November last.

AMATEUR THEATRE.—The play-going part of the public—a numerous class—will be pleased to hear that they are shortly about to be indulged in a theatrical treat, namely, the admired Burletta of the Warlock of the Glen, which is to be performed by a number of young men who are now fitting up an Amateur Theatre in Cantelo's Buildings. It has been got up under respectable patronage, and, we have no doubt, will meet with a fair share of encouragement. A communication on this subject has been received, but, like most of our communications, came too late for insertion.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIAL HERALD.

Sir; Finding some misapprehension exists in the minds of a portion of this community, as to my intention in adding the postscript annexed to my letter which appeared in your paper of the 6th inst., and hearing that I am accused of wishing to wound the feelings and impugn the veracity of the gentlemen therein alluded to—I feel it due to them and to myself to say, that nothing was further from my intentions at the time I wrote it.

After the example of the manager of a theatre, who, having imposed a heavy five act comedy upon his audience, follows it up by a lively farce, for the purpose of dismissing them in good humour—so, after inflicting on your readers a dull and somewhat lengthy epistle, I wished to enliven its close, by what I considered a harmless bit of palpable burlesque.

I am, Sir, the writer of the letter which appeared in your paper signed

PLAIN COMMON SENSE.

Charlottetown, 10th Feb. 1841.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIAL HERALD.

SIR; Having observed by your paper of Saturday last, that a Committee has been timously appointed in the House of Assembly, to take up that part of His Excellency's Speech which refers to a continuance of provision for Schools throughout the country, and to report thereon; and believing that in some respects the law about to expire may be improved, I beg leave most respectfully to suggest, that the machinery connected with the drawing of the public money of the Schoolmasters should be simplified, and the annoyance to which those persons are so often subjected should be, as far as possible, avoided. This, I think, might be effected very easily, and an additional boon be thereby conferred upon them, by directing the Board of Education, instead of certifying for every individual separately, to make a return to the Secretary's Office, semi-annually, of all the Schools in operation in the Colony entitled to receive a share of the provincial bounty, and authorizing the Clerk of said Board to draw, in one or two Warrants, the half-yearly allowance for all the Schools, and to pay over to each Schoolmaster, respectively, the share to which he is entitled—the said Clerk to retain a small per centage, in consideration for the additional responsibility and trouble to which he would be, by this means, subjected. It will be perceived at a glance, that this would be a great saving to the country in fees on warrants, and I feel assured, that the exchange to the teachers, though required to pay a small commission, would be considered a valuable one. The difficulty of getting the requisite number of signatures to the certificates, now required by law, and the trouble to which the teachers are in consequence subjected, would, by the plan proposed, be completely obviated—and they might moreover obtain their Treasury allowance in half-yearly payments, which would be a great accommodation.

It is scarcely necessary to add, that the Executive would have the same salutary check upon the whole half-yearly returns as they now have upon each individual application, and the trouble of the Council would be materially diminished. Some such plan, I have understood, has been acted upon in the neighbouring Colonies, and has been found to answer well.
