EXPERT OPINION

ABERDEEN, Scotland (CP) — Women workers are better than men on the factory assembly line, says Prof. Rex Knight, professor of psychology at Aberdeen University. He believes this is because women like to day-dream during montonous tasks.

Tuplin-Peacock Wedding

The marriage of Grace Trueman, elder daughter of the late Stephen S. Peacock, and of Mrs. Peacock, of Murray Corner, N. B., to Mr. Isaac Lowther Tuplin, son of Mr. James Tuplin and of the late Mrs. Tuplin, of Summerside, P.E.I., took place recently in the United Church, Murray Corner, Que., the Rev. F. Lockhart, D. D., assisted by the Rev. Donald Sharpe of Souris, P. E. I. Mrs. Stanley Junjek played the wedding music and Mrs. Leroy Trenholm sang during the signing of the register.

The bride, who was given away by her father, Mr. Joseph H. B. Peacock, was attended by her sister, Miss Eva Jane Trueman Peacock, as maid of honor, and by her niece, Susan Jane Peacock, as flower girl. Mr. Stanley Colpitts acted as best man for Mr. Tuplin and the ushers were Mr. S. David Peacock and Mr. James Nicholson.

The bride chose a gown of embroidered organdy over taffeta. She wore a short veil of tulle illusion and carried a bouquet of Shasta daisies.

The maid of honor wore a frock of yellow organdy over taffeta with a bolero, a matching bandeau, and carried a bouquet of yellow daisies.

The flower-girl was in a frock of pink embroidered organdy with a bandeau of sweetpeas to match the flowers in her basket.

Mrs. Peacock, the bride's mother, wore a navy blue and white suit, with a white hat and a corsage bouquet of red roses.

The reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents. Later Mr. and Mrs. Tuplin left for Prince Edward Island and the New England States, the bride travelling in a frock of navy blue and white crepe, under a navy blue bengaline coat, and wearing white accessories. They will reside at Macdonald College, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, where the bridesgroom is taking a post-graduate course in Agricultural Science.

The bride is a graduate of the Montreal General Hospital School of Nursing.

Y. P. Conference At French River

On Monday evening at Geddie Memorial Church, French River the annual Presbyterian Labor Day week-end conference was successfully concluded.

Under the direction of Rev. M. C. Currie, assisted by Miss Anne MacEachern, Miss Mary Nichol, R.N., Mr. Gordon Dalziel, Rev. F. N. Young and Rev. L. E. Blaikie the camp opened Friday evening with indoor games followed by a short devotional period and lunch.

On Saturday morning Mr. Gardiner Dalziel, the theme speaker delivered the first of two inspiring lectures on the subject, "What Shall We Do To Be Saved?" Mr. Dalziel stressed the importance of Young People in the church. Sports and swimming were much enjoyed Saturday afternoon

On Saturday evening Miss Mary Nichol, R.N., supervisor of the Jobot Missionary Hospital, India, gave an interesting and informative talk on her work in the Bhil field followed by the display of Indian costumes, jewellery, etc. The evening was brought to a close by campfire and lunch.

An impressive communion service was conducted by Rev. L. E. Blaikie Sunday morning. The executive members of the P.E.I. P.Y.P.S., Thelma Larter, Ishbel Farquharson and Hazen MacLure led in a devotional period followed by a second talk by Miss Nichol. A Y.P.S. quizz led by Miss MacEachern and a Bible quizz directed by Thelma Larter followed by a hike concluded the afternoon program.

At the campfire Sunday evening Miss MacEachern spoke on Deaconess work. The day was brought to a close with lunch.

The council meeting, presided over by Miss Thelma Larter was held Monday morning. Rev. M. C. Currie opened the meeting with prayer. It was decided that a mammoth fall rally would be held in Zion Church, Charlottetown on Oct. 2 to hear Miss Helen Bricker who attended the Third World Conference of Christian Youth, held in Travancore, India. Rev. M. C. Currie closed with prayer.

On Monday afternoon the following officers were elected for the year: Hon. Pres. Rev. F. N. Young; past president, Thelma Larter; president, Roddie Hickox; vice president, Christine MacInnis; secretary, Ishbel Farquharson and treasurer, George Johnston.

On Monday evening the banner committee reported that Zion Church, Charlottetown, had won the banner for the most active Young People's Society.

Mr. Gardiner Dalziel used for his final theme address the text Matt. 16: 24 and he said that Christians must be prepared and willing to accept the responsibilities that follow from accepting Christ as Saviour. The conference was closed by prayer led by Mr. Dalziel.
