AYER'S HAIR VIGOR has long held the first place, as a hair dressing, in the estimation of the public. Ladies find that this preparation gives a beautiful gloss to the hair, and gentlemen use it to prevent baldness and cure humors in the scalp.

CIVIL LIBERTY.—"What is civil liberty," asks Prof. Summer, of Yale, in the June number of Popular Science. We give it up. But when a man walks into our office on a rainy day and carries off our only umbrella, we consider him guilty of uncivil liberty.

STRUCK BY A SWORD FISH.—The fishing schooner Alpha, Capt. Smith, has arrived at French Village, Halifax county, from the Grand Banks, leaking badly. Examination showed that she had been struck by a sword fish. A piece of the sword remains embedded in the plank.

WORDS cannot express the gratitude which people feel for the benefit done them by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Long standing cases of rheumatism yield to this remedy, when all others fail to give relief. This medicine thoroughly expels the poison from the blood.

EASILY WON.—The St. John Sun says: W. S. McKie, of Charlottetown won $25 very easily on Saturday. A prominent citizen bet him that his horse Telegraph could not trot a mile in three minutes. The colt was taken out to Moosepath and covered a mile in 2.55 apparently with ease.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—The New Glasgow Enterprise says:—During the heavy rainstorm on Thursday afternoon, the large barn on the farm of Thomas Fraser, Green Hill, was struck by lightning, and in an instant the structure was all in flames from end to end. It was with great difficulty that the house was saved. A large lot of farming utensils were burned.

A LUCKY P. E. ISLANDER.—Mr. William E. Murphy, the popular and obliging young salesman in B. Kelleher's "Tremont Market," Cambridgeport, Mass., received, a few days ago, per the Adams Express Company, a draft for $5,500, being the amount drawn by him in the last monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, held at New Orleans, on July 9th. Mr. Murphy held one-tenth of a ticket drawing one of the capital prizes, which entitled him to the above amount. He deposited his money in the Cambridge National Bank for safe keeping. Farewell Ye Dwellers on the Isle of Prince Edward.

On the 28th June, I, for the first time, landed on the Island, expecting to remain at least three days, and now, after a sojourn of over three weeks, I am trying hard to separate myself from you. But why hasten away? There is abundance on this Island, and to spare; and the people respond very cheerfully to the Apostle's injunction, "Forget not to entertain strangers." It would appear that ye have resolved to outrun your sister provinces in the scale of material progress. According to population ye excel in the number of your well-finished and furnished dwelling houses, your commodious churches, your large and well-tilled farms, your careful selection of good, clean seed, so that your fields are well-nigh free from weeds, your neat and well-pruned hedges and many fine horses. Now, in the midst of your abundance, your peace, happiness and contentment, do not forget the heroic deeds of your forefathers; their toils, their hardships and privations. I saw their money passing at a discount on the mainland. I saw their silver dollar with a hole in it as large as a shilling. I heard of their privation and destitution when crops failed. Their memories are dear to some because I see the beautiful flowers growing on their graves. To-day, I am one among a host assembled at Victoria to make a farewell offering for a good and praiseworthy object.

I see your money in plenty, and passing without discount; your dollars without holes in them; your people sober and in their right mind; and all managed by a programme which should satisfy the most fastidious; tables groaning under loads of substantial food and dainties, well calculated to satisfy the epicurean; and these tables surrounded by bright stars without stripes; but instead, the Red, White and Blue, beautifully blended.

In two or three days, I and my daughter (who heartily joins with me in these sentiments) intend to pass over the Northumberland Strait, carrying with us a grateful remembrance of your unbounded hospitality. Again, farewell. May you for ever enjoy that peace and happiness which the world cannot give.

S. MACDONALD.

South Maitland, N. S., July 20th, 1889.

Light on the Subject

OF THE FISHERIES TROUBLES IN NEWFOUNDLAND.

The cable despatch stating that the Pall Mall Gazette's opinion that Newfoundland will be compelled to appeal from England's neglect to Washington for protection against French encroachments, is best explained by an interview which the London journal published last month, but which has not yet been reproduced in Canada. The Gazette asks: "Are we drifting into war with France?"

A Mr. Allen, who had just returned from the circumnavigation of Newfoundland, made these alarming statements to the Gazette: "There'll be trouble in Newfoundland as sure as you're alive, and bloody trouble too. We came very near it last year when some 3,000 Frenchmen landed and destroyed the nets of our fishermen. We are smarting under the sense of a grave injustice, and are determined to get rid of it. You English, who might use the whole Island for a nursery for your navy, seem to care for nothing else than to make things easy for France. Unless the French change their behaviour there will be some Frenchmen shot. Newfoundlanders will fight for their possessions. What we want you to do is what we shall get the United States government to do the day we come under that flag. We do not wish to desert the Empire, but the Empire must not desert us."

"The legal aspect of the case is this: By the Treaty of Utrecht the French have fishing rights on the coast of Newfoundland, also to land and dry their nets and put up temporary buildings for drying fish. They have erected permanent buildings and interfered in every way with our river fishing and our industries along what is known as the French shore. We hold strongly that the French should no longer have that shore at their disposal. Here is a great rich territory, abounding in mineral wealth, denied all its natural development by a small ribbon of what is practically French territory being run between it and the sea. The situation is quite impossible and has existed so long only because the colony has not had strength enough to throw it off.

"The French interfere with our colonial development. For instance, last year Messrs. Forrest & Co., of Halifax, were ordered by the French commander to close their lobster factory at Port Sanders, an order enforced by the British man-of-war Emerald. The lobster factory at White Bay, owned by Goodfellow, of St. John's, was closed in the same way. The French erected a lobster factory at Port-au-Choix last summer, imported their tins and boilers and paid no duty, though British subjects were amenable to the tariff. In the absence of a man-of-war they bar our salmon rivers. The product of their illegal fishing goes to France, where it receives a 50 per cent. bounty from the French Government.

"What I want to know before I leave this country is what protection the British Government intends to give our fishermen during the seaton which opens next month. Our lobster canning factories will probably be destroyed if the Government does not put its foot down at once."

It is a matter of interest to note that at the General Council of the Island of St. Pierre, Miquelon, the President said they owed a great deal of their prosperity to the protection obtained from the French men-of-war off Newfoundland. The Council passed a resolution requesting France to confer on the island the right of electing a representative to the Chamber of Deputies in Paris.

Telegraphic Odds and Ends.

A BUDGET OF GENERAL NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

GRAFTON, Dak., July 20.—Dry, hot winds in portions of the extreme north of Dakota near the boundary line, have played havoc with the crops, and farmers have been reduced to eating field rodents, gophers, etc., for subsistence.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 20.—No application has yet been made for a writ of habeas corpus in the Burke case, and only a week remains in which it can be made. The difficulty in the way seems to be that Burke's lawyers have not yet been supplied with money.

NEW YORK, July 20.—It is reported that Sir Julian Pauncefote, who sailed for Europe to-day on the Etruria, carries with him the rough draft of an arrangement between Great Britain and the United States, covering Canadian and Behring Sea questions, which will be submitted to Lord Salisbury for consideration and suggestion.

LONDON, July 20.—The name of the man arrested on suspicion of being the Whitechapel murderer, and who subsequently confessed he was guilty, is William Brodie. He was arraigned before the police magistrate this morning. He stated the confession made by him to the police was true. The prisoner was remanded for a week.

BELGRADE, July 20.—It is reported that the government's preparations to arm the reserves are due to doubts of the loyalty of the regulars in the event of ex-King Milan returning to Beigrade.

BERLIN, July 20.—The police here have delivered to the Russian authorities a Russian student suspected of being a nihilist. All the other Russian students here will be expelled.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The World prints a letter from King Mataafa stating that the war and hurricane in Samoa have caused a famine, and expressing the hope that Americans will send aid to the unfortunate Samoans.

WINNIPEG, July 20.—Telegraphic advices received to-day indicate that the recent rains have greatly improved the crop prospects in many parts. From Portage la Prairie and High Bluff the predictions are that the crop will be almost an average, and in no part are the worst fears likely to be realized.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., July 20.—A general strike was inaugurated yesterday among the dock laborers, and over 600 are out. They demand an increase from $1.50 per day to $1 75. They visited the St. Paul and Pacific coal docks, where 14 men were working at the 40 cents an hour rate under police protection. They overpowered the police and routed the men. The strike has an ominous look. The men are determined, and the contractors are equally so.

LONDON, July 20.—At two o'clock this morning a murderous attack was made on a woman on the Surrey side of the Thames, about two miles from Whitechapel, and on the opposite side of the river. The man was armed with a knife. The police, attracted by the shrieks of a woman, arrived on the scene in time to capture the would-be assassin. They locked up the woman and man. The woman may recover. The identity of the man is not established, but hopes are entertained that he may be the Ripper.

MONTREAL, July 20.—Senator Lacoste arrived from England this morning. He has received a cablegram saying that he has won the suit in the great railway case of Hon. Thomas McGreevy vs. John Mc. Dougall, in which some $200,000 was involved in connection with the North Shore Railway. The courts here accorded Mr. McDougall $80,000, but Mr. McGreevy offered $51,000. This was refused, being considered insufficient. The Privy Council has now dismissed Mr. McGreevy's action.

LONDON, July 20.—In view of the delicate health of Queen Victoria she is making arrangements by which the Prince of Wales will relieve her of much of her labor on state documents. The prince, in case he assumes these new responsibilities, wishes, it is said, to take the title of Prince Regent and to have the use of Buckingham Palace and Windsor Castle, the Queen retiring to the palaces of Osborne and Balmoral. In the event of this arrangement being carried out, Prince Albert Victor would obtain Marlborough House.

QUEBEC, July 20.—An account of a terrible tragedy in the parish of St. Cuthbert, county Berthier, has reached here. A Montreal peddler named Pierre arrived there and put up at the house of a friend named Lambert, the only occupant of the house being a fifteen-year old daughter, the rest of the Lambert family having left for Montreal. During the night two masked men demanded admission into the house, and all the valuables possessed by the inmates. Pierre fired on them killing both, when it turned out that the dead men were father and son, neighbors, who were indulging in a practical joke.

EDINBURGH, July 20.—The freedom of the city was conferred upon Parnell to-day with impressive ceremonies. Much enthusiasm was manifested for the Irish leader as he passed through the streets on his way to the ceremony, and he was heartily cheered by vast crowds. In his speech of acknowledgment Mr. Parnell referred to the trial in London, and said that if he had known that the conditions of trial were such as to block the enquiry into the Pigott conspiracy he would not have entered the court. He asserted that the clues to the forgeries were obtained by accident, and not through any investigation of the special commission.

BALDNESS ought not to come till the age of 55 or later. If the hair begins to fall earlier, use Hall's Hair Renewer and prevent baldness and grayness.

NEW BOOKS.—Swett's Methods of Teaching, Smith's History of Rome and all supplies required for schools are at the Diamond Bookstore very cheap.
