

CHRISTMAS and NEW YEAR'S GREETINGS FROM KING'S COUNTY

Disobedient Dibs

By Winifred Norling.

"Dibs, where are you?" cried Santa Claus, as he took a big sack from the pile and opened it up. "You're never where you should be. I thought you wanted to go out into the world."

"I do, Santa," laughed Dibs, running into the room. "Where am I going?"

"To a little boy at No. 7 Lower Bridge Street, in the town of Montague. He wants a fur monkey with a long tail."

Dibs's face fell.

"It doesn't sound a very grand address," he pouted. "I'd like to go to a palace or a castle."

"You'll go where I take you," said Santa Claus firmly. "You will stay here with the unwanted toys for another year."

"Oh, I don't want to stay here," burst out Dibs. "I've been here too long already."

"That's your own fault. If you remember, you ran off last year and were missing just when I was ready to leave. I shan't wait for you this time, either, so you'd better get into the sack now."

"May I just go out and speak to Rudolf?" begged Dibs.

"Why?"

The monkey hung his head.

"I hid his moss, and he may be hungry."

"You're a naughty tiresome monkey, and if I didn't want to get rid of you, I'd leave you behind for another year as a punishment. Get into the sack. I'll see that Rudolf and the other reindeer aren't hungry."

A very subdued monkey clambered into the sack and fell right down into the bottom right-hand corner. He was quieter than usual, and took little notice of the other toys that joined him.

"What's up, Dibs?" asked the Big Drum labelled 2 Acacia Avenue, Foxwood.

"Nothing. Why? Can't a chap think?" replied Dibs rather crossly.

"Yes, but you don't as a rule," came the quick retort. "When you're quiet, you're generally planning some fresh mischief. What is it this time?"

"I've just discovered something that even Santa doesn't know," teased Dibs. "I shan't tell you, because it's a secret."

"Please yourself," was all the Big Drum said, but he kept his eyes and ears open.

Much sooner than they had expected, the toys were carried out to the sleigh — the biggest one, that needed eight reindeer to draw it. When all the sacks were loaded on to the sleigh, Santa Claus climbed into his seat, and they moved off at a rapid speed over the snow. The bells of the reindeer's harness jingled merrily, and before long Father Christmas was singing all the jolly songs he knew, for the knowledge that he was soon to give pleasure to millions of children made him very happy.

"I'll tell you my secret now, if you like," Dibs whispered, as they sped over the snow. "There's a teeny-weeny hole in the corner of this sack."

"What's wonderful about that?" demanded the Drum. "Feel you need some air or something?"

"No, silly, but it means I can escape."

"Escape? Why?"

"Because I'm to go to 7 Lower Bridge Street, and it sounds an awful address."

"Addresses don't matter," snorted the Big Drum. "It's the people who count. Why don't you trust Santa to take you where you'll be loved and happy?"

Dibs pouted.

"I want an adventure," he persisted. "When we get away from the cold wastes of the north, I shall make the hole bigger, crawl through it, and run away."

The Big Drum did not answer, so Dibs shrugged his shoulders and went on planning his adventure.

But when he finally found himself alone in the dark, and heard the sound of Father Christmas's sleigh dying away in the distance, he felt frightened and very much alone. He had jumped from the sleigh when it slowed down, because he thought they were near their destination, but now he found himself in a dark forest. It was no use going back the way he had come, so Dibs braced his shoulders and set off along a path leading farther into the forest.

He had not gone far when a cross voice demanded who he was and what he was doing.

"I'm Dibs the monkey, and I'm going out into the world to have an adventure," Dibs answered, looking all around him to see who had spoken.

"Monkey. We don't want monkeys in this forest. Go away, or I'll chase you."

Dibs hurried on. But in a few minutes the same thing happened again. Animals, birds and insects all seemed determined to be unfriendly, and poor Dibs was soon running as fast as he could through the dark, frightening forest.

"Oh, why did I run away?" he half sobbed, as fresh threats made him run even faster. Twice he stumbled and fell, but at long last he found himself on the farther edge of the forest. With a cry of relief he sank to the ground, and sat there panting. Suddenly he heard a familiar sound, a sound that brought hope to his heart — it was the sound of jingling bells. Springing to his feet, Dibs ran forward.

"Rudolf," he cried, "and Blitz and Donner, wait for me!"

The sleigh slowed to a stop, and Dibs found himself looking right into the eyes of Father Christmas.

"I'm sorry I ran away, a bell announcing the joyous event. On Boxing Day (December 26) Britain goes out. Football grounds cinemas and theatres are crowded. Should there be ice or snow winter sports become the cry. Every pack of fox hounds in England meets in the principal town of its area today to give the maximum number of people the opportunity of seeing this picturesque side of English country life. Two seasonal functions commence on Boxing Day, the circus and the pantomime, without which no child, or grown-up, would think Christmas holidays completed.

"What's wonderful about that?" demanded the Drum. "Feel you need some air or something?"

"No, silly, but it means I can escape."

"Escape? Why?"

"Because I'm to go to 7 Lower Bridge Street, and it sounds an awful address."

"Addresses don't matter," snorted the Big Drum. "It's the people who count. Why don't you trust Santa to take you where you'll be loved and happy?"

Dibs pouted.

"I want an adventure," he persisted. "When we get away from the cold wastes of the north, I shall make the hole bigger, crawl through it, and run away."

The Big Drum did not answer, so Dibs shrugged his shoulders and went on planning his adventure.

But when he finally found himself alone in the dark, and heard the sound of Father Christmas's sleigh dying away in the distance, he felt frightened and very much alone. He had jumped from the sleigh when it slowed down, because he thought they were near their destination, but now he found himself in a dark forest. It was no use going back the way he had come, so Dibs braced his shoulders and set off along a path leading farther into the forest.

He had not gone far when a cross voice demanded who he was and what he was doing.

"I'm Dibs the monkey, and I'm going out into the world to have an adventure," Dibs answered, looking all around him to see who had spoken.

"Monkey. We don't want monkeys in this forest. Go away, or I'll chase you."

Dibs hurried on. But in a few minutes the same thing happened again. Animals, birds and insects all seemed determined to be unfriendly, and poor Dibs was soon running as fast as he could through the dark, frightening forest.

"Oh, why did I run away?" he half sobbed, as fresh threats made him run even faster. Twice he stumbled and fell, but at long last he found himself on the farther edge of the forest. With a cry of relief he sank to the ground, and sat there panting. Suddenly he heard a familiar sound, a sound that brought hope to his heart — it was the sound of jingling bells. Springing to his feet, Dibs ran forward.

"Rudolf," he cried, "and Blitz and Donner, wait for me!"

The sleigh slowed to a stop, and Dibs found himself looking right into the eyes of Father Christmas.

"I'm sorry I ran away, a bell announcing the joyous event. On Boxing Day (December 26) Britain goes out. Football grounds

Many legends have come down to us regarding the origin of the use of the Christmas tree. "One tale describes Martin Luther as attempting to explain to his wife and children the beauty of a snow-covered forest under the glittering star sprinkled sky. Suddenly an idea suggested itself. He went into the garden cut off a fir tree, dragged it into the nursery, put some candles on its branches and lighted them. As a regular institution however, it can be traced back only to the sixteenth century. During the Middle Ages it suddenly at the beginning of the nineteenth century the fashion spread all over Germany and by fifty years later had conquered Christendom." Christmas lights in millions of trees around the world still shine forth even in these times

"I've been a stupid little monkey, but I've learnt my lesson."

Father Christmas regarded the eager monkey thoughtfully.

"I think you have," he said slowly. "Get into the sleigh beside me. Come on, Reindeer. Now we've found Dibs, we shan't have to go all the way home. You can rest at the aerodrome while I fly to Monty and back."

"I'm glad David's to have a happy Christmas," said Dibs softly, snuggling up to Santa Claus. "Because that means I shall have one, too."

"What's up, Dibs?" asked the Big Drum labelled 2 Acacia Avenue, Foxwood.

"Nothing. Why? Can't a chap think?" replied Dibs rather crossly.

"Yes, but you don't as a rule," came the quick retort. "When you're quiet, you're generally planning some fresh mischief. What is it this time?"

"I've just discovered something that even Santa doesn't know," teased Dibs. "I shan't tell you, because it's a secret."

"Please yourself," was all the Big Drum said, but he kept his eyes and ears open.

Much sooner than they had expected, the toys were carried out to the sleigh — the biggest one, that needed eight reindeer to draw it. When all the sacks were loaded on to the sleigh, Santa Claus climbed into his seat, and they moved off at a rapid speed over the snow. The bells of the reindeer's harness jingled merrily, and before long Father Christmas was singing all the jolly songs he knew, for the knowledge that he was soon to give pleasure to millions of children made him very happy.

"I'll tell you my secret now, if you like," Dibs whispered, as they sped over the snow. "There's a teeny-weeny hole in the corner of this sack."

"What's wonderful about that?" demanded the Drum. "Feel you need some air or something?"

"No, silly, but it means I can escape."

"Escape? Why?"

"Because I'm to go to 7 Lower Bridge Street, and it sounds an awful address."

"Addresses don't matter," snorted the Big Drum. "It's the people who count. Why don't you trust Santa to take you where you'll be loved and happy?"

Dibs pouted.

"I want an adventure," he persisted. "When we get away from the cold wastes of the north, I cinemas and theatres are crowded. Should there be ice or snow winter sports become the cry. Every pack of fox hounds in England meets in the principal town of its area today to give the maximum number of people the opportunity of seeing this picturesque side of English country life. Two seasonal functions commence on Boxing Day, the circus and the pantomime, without which no child, or grown-up, would think Christmas holidays completed.

"What's wonderful about that?" demanded the Drum. "Feel you need some air or something?"

"No, silly, but it means I can escape."

"Escape? Why?"

"Because I'm to go to 7 Lower Bridge Street, and it sounds an awful address."

"Addresses don't matter," snorted the Big Drum. "It's the people who count. Why don't you trust Santa to take you where you'll be loved and happy?"

Dibs pouted.

"I want an adventure," he persisted. "When we get away from the cold wastes of the north, I

Christmas In The Home

Christmas festivities are likely to be much more fun when the whole family helps says the New York state college of home economics.

The older children are always eager to trim the Christmas tree, collect Christmas greens, and make wreaths. Often they have good ideas on how to arrange these holiday decorations. Because these tasks are unusual they have a special appeal, but with the right encouragement from father or mother even the more routine work may seem a part of the general family-sharing at Christmas.

Big brother and sister can be a help if they show their small brothers or sisters how to help in odd carpentering jobs that come with Christmas. If mother is busy, older brothers or sisters can help the youngsters to dress or get ready for bed.

What can the small members of the family do? Little Johnny or tiny Mary can cut out gingerbread men and other fancy shaped cookies, which mother will lift onto the baking sheet. Father will also be pleased to know how well his small son or daughter can find his tools, cut the string used to wind the Christmas wreath when both of father's hands are busy, or to help with other preparations.

One thing father and mother should remember is to watch for signs of fatigue or nervous strain in the younger children. They should not ask the children to do too many or too difficult tasks.

During all the joyous festivities of the Christmas Season, a cigarette butt, a match, a screenless fireplace, or a faulty electrical circuit may at any time change the joy and gladness into heartbreak as it did in many homes last year throughout Canada.

An even greater tragedy is that most of these fires could have been avoided by following a few simple rules. A little extra care may save a home—yours.

Two factors contribute to the danger of the Christmas Season. Firstly, added decorations are too often not flameproofed. Secondly the increased tempo of entertainment increases the hazard from misplaced cigarette butts and gift wrappings which will blaze like tinder if ignited.

Let's look at a few safety suggestions:

1. Use flameproofed decorations. For greatest safety, many manufacturers produce flameproof materials that were tested and classified by Underwriters' Laboratories, and these products bear the familiar Underwriters' label as your guide to safety.
2. In selecting the tree pick one that is small. A small, well-formed tree can be decorated easier and more attractively than a large one and does not produce the same hazard. To preserve the tree, place it in water or moist earth, thereby keeping the needles from drying out. Dry Christmas tree needles are a dangerous fire hazard and a dry tree should not be given house room. To further help preserve your tree, keep it in a cool corner away from drafts.
3. Avoid decorations of paper and candles on the tree. Here again, many of the electrical, decorations and Christmas tree lights bear the label of the Canadian Standards Association or the Underwriters' Laboratories, signifying that they have successfully passed rigid fire hazard tests.

4. Watch your electrical circuits. All the added decoration lights may threaten to overload the circuits in your house. If this happens, you can either have qualified electricians put in new circuits, bringing extensions in from circuits that are not heavily loaded, or scale down your decorative scheme to fit the load your circuits will bear. Remember, the fuses are there for your safety and installing heavier fuses is an invitation for fire. And this menace is always too ready to accept, leaving its trail of grief behind.
5. After your Christmas entertaining, check your furniture for lighted cigarettes. A butt will stay smouldering under the sofa cushion for hours and come to life in the dead of night.
6. Remember children and candles don't mix. If you must use candles keep them out of the children's reach. Better still use the electric variety and be certain.
7. And on Christmas Day (mothers, this will be your chore) pick up those gift wrappings as soon as possible. When they are safe in the garbage can, we know they can't add to a fire under the tree.

THE CHRISTMAS TREE

Many legends have come down to us regarding the origin of the use of the Christmas tree. "One tale describes Martin Luther as attempting to explain to his wife and children the beauty of a snow-covered forest under the glittering star sprinkled sky. Suddenly an idea suggested itself. He went into the garden cut off a fir tree, dragged it into the nursery, put some candles on its branches and lighted them. As a regular institution however, it can be traced back only to the sixteenth century. During the Middle Ages it suddenly at the beginning of the nineteenth century the fashion spread all over Germany and by fifty years later had conquered Christendom." Christmas lights in millions of trees around the world still shine forth even in these times

THE CHRISTMAS TREE

Many legends have come down to us regarding the origin of the use of the Christmas tree. "One tale describes Martin Luther as attempting to explain to his wife and children the beauty of a snow-covered forest under the glittering star sprinkled sky. Suddenly an idea suggested itself. He went into the garden cut off a fir tree, dragged it into the nursery, put some candles on its branches and lighted them. As a regular institution however, it can be traced back only to the sixteenth century. During the Middle Ages it suddenly at the beginning of the nineteenth century the fashion spread all over Germany and by fifty years later had conquered Christendom." Christmas lights in millions of trees around the world still shine forth even in these times

THE CHRISTMAS TREE

Many legends have come down to us regarding the origin of the use of the Christmas tree. "One tale describes Martin Luther as attempting to explain to his wife and children the beauty of a snow-covered forest under the glittering star sprinkled sky. Suddenly an idea suggested itself. He went into the garden cut off a fir tree, dragged it into the nursery, put some candles on its branches and lighted them. As a regular institution however, it can be traced back only to the sixteenth century. During the Middle Ages it suddenly at the beginning of the nineteenth century the fashion spread all over Germany and by fifty years later had conquered Christendom." Christmas lights in millions of trees around the world still shine forth even in these times

THE CHRISTMAS TREE

Many legends have come down to us regarding the origin of the use of the Christmas tree. "One tale describes Martin Luther as attempting to explain to his wife and children the beauty of a snow-covered forest under the glittering star sprinkled sky. Suddenly an idea suggested itself. He went into the garden cut off a fir tree, dragged it into the nursery, put some candles on its branches and lighted them. As a regular institution however, it can be traced back only to the sixteenth century. During the Middle Ages it suddenly at the beginning of the nineteenth century the fashion spread all over Germany and by fifty years later had conquered Christendom." Christmas lights in millions of trees around the world still shine forth even in these times

Fire Precautions at Christmas

During all the joyous festivities of the Christmas Season, a cigarette butt, a match, a screenless fireplace, or a faulty electrical circuit may at any time change the joy and gladness into heartbreak as it did in many homes last year throughout Canada.

An even greater tragedy is that most of these fires could have been avoided by following a few simple rules. A little extra care may save a home—yours.

Two factors contribute to the danger of the Christmas Season. Firstly, added decorations are too often not flameproofed. Secondly the increased tempo of entertainment increases the hazard from misplaced cigarette butts and gift wrappings which will blaze like tinder if ignited.

Let's look at a few safety suggestions:

1. Use flameproofed decorations. For greatest safety, many manufacturers produce flameproof materials that were tested and classified by Underwriters' Laboratories, and these products bear the familiar Underwriters' label as your guide to safety.
2. In selecting the tree pick one that is small. A small, well-formed tree can be decorated easier and more attractively than a large one and does not produce the same hazard. To preserve the tree, place it in water or moist earth, thereby keeping the needles from drying out. Dry Christmas tree needles are a dangerous fire hazard and a dry tree should not be given house room. To further help preserve your tree, keep it in a cool corner away from drafts.
3. Avoid decorations of paper and candles on the tree. Here again, many of the electrical, decorations and Christmas tree lights bear the label of the Canadian Standards Association or the Underwriters' Laboratories, signifying that they have successfully passed rigid fire hazard tests.

4. Watch your electrical circuits. All the added decoration lights may threaten to overload the circuits in your house. If this happens, you can either have qualified electricians put in new circuits, bringing extensions in from circuits that are not heavily loaded, or scale down your decorative scheme to fit the load your circuits will bear. Remember, the fuses are there for your safety and installing heavier fuses is an invitation for fire. And this menace is always too ready to accept, leaving its trail of grief behind.
5. After your Christmas entertaining, check your furniture for lighted cigarettes. A butt will stay smouldering under the sofa cushion for hours and come to life in the dead of night.
6. Remember children and candles don't mix. If you must use candles keep them out of the children's reach. Better still use the electric variety and be certain.
7. And on Christmas Day (mothers, this will be your chore) pick up those gift wrappings as soon as possible. When they are safe in the garbage can, we know they can't add to a fire under the tree.

label of the Canadian Standards Association or the Underwriters' Laboratories, signifying that they have successfully passed rigid fire hazard tests.

4. Watch your electrical circuits. All the added decoration lights may threaten to overload the circuits in your house. If this happens, you can either have qualified electricians put in new circuits, bringing extensions in from circuits that are not heavily loaded, or scale down your decorative scheme to fit the load your circuits will bear. Remember, the fuses are there for your safety and installing heavier fuses is an invitation for fire. And this menace is always too ready to accept, leaving its trail of grief behind.
5. After your Christmas entertaining, check your furniture for lighted cigarettes. A butt will stay smouldering under the sofa cushion for hours and come to life in the dead of night.
6. Remember children and candles don't mix. If you must use candles keep them out of the children's reach. Better still use the electric variety and be certain.
7. And on Christmas Day (mothers, this will be your chore) pick up those gift wrappings as soon as possible. When they are safe in the garbage can, we know they can't add to a fire under the tree.

label of the Canadian Standards Association or the Underwriters' Laboratories, signifying that they have successfully passed rigid fire hazard tests.

4. Watch your electrical circuits. All the added decoration lights may threaten to overload the circuits in your house. If this happens, you can either have qualified electricians put in new circuits, bringing extensions in from circuits that are not heavily loaded, or scale down your decorative scheme to fit the load your circuits will bear. Remember, the fuses are there for your safety and installing heavier fuses is an invitation for fire. And this menace is always too ready to accept, leaving its trail of grief behind.
5. After your Christmas entertaining, check your furniture for lighted cigarettes. A butt will stay smouldering under the sofa cushion for hours and come to life in the dead of night.
6. Remember children and candles don't mix. If you must use candles keep them out of the children's reach. Better still use the electric variety and be certain.
7. And on Christmas Day (mothers, this will be your chore) pick up those gift wrappings as soon as possible. When they are safe in the garbage can, we know they can't add to a fire under the tree.

label of the Canadian Standards Association or the Underwriters' Laboratories, signifying that they have successfully passed rigid fire hazard tests.

4. Watch your electrical circuits. All the added decoration lights may threaten to overload the circuits in your house. If this happens, you can either have qualified electricians put in new circuits, bringing extensions in from circuits that are not heavily loaded, or scale down your decorative scheme to fit the load your circuits will bear. Remember, the fuses are there for your safety and installing heavier fuses is an invitation for fire. And this menace is always too ready to accept, leaving its trail of grief behind.
5. After your Christmas entertaining, check your furniture for lighted cigarettes. A butt will stay smouldering under the sofa cushion for hours and come to life in the dead of night.
6. Remember children and candles don't mix. If you must use candles keep them out of the children's reach. Better still use the electric variety and be certain.
7. And on Christmas Day (mothers, this will be your chore) pick up those gift wrappings as soon as possible. When they are safe in the garbage can, we know they can't add to a fire under the tree.

label of the Canadian Standards Association or the Underwriters' Laboratories, signifying that they have successfully passed rigid fire hazard tests.

4. Watch your electrical circuits. All the added decoration lights may threaten to overload the circuits in your house. If this happens, you can either have qualified electricians put in new circuits, bringing extensions in from circuits that are not heavily loaded, or scale down your decorative scheme to fit the load your circuits will bear. Remember, the fuses are there for your safety and installing heavier fuses is an invitation for fire. And this menace is always too ready to accept, leaving its trail of grief behind.
5. After your Christmas entertaining, check your furniture for lighted cigarettes. A butt will stay smouldering under the sofa cushion for hours and come to life in the dead of night.
6. Remember children and candles don't mix. If you must use candles keep them out of the children's reach. Better still use the electric variety and be certain.
7. And on Christmas Day (mothers, this will be your chore) pick up those gift wrappings as soon as possible. When they are safe in the garbage can, we know they can't add to a fire under the tree.

Obey these simple rules and those which your own Fire Department will give you. Remember your Fire Department stands ready in the background, supported by national safety organizations such as Underwriters' Laboratories of Canada, Dominion Board of Insurance Underwriters, Dominion Fire Prevention Association and Canadian Standards Association, hoping that you and yours will have the merriest (and safest) Christmas ever.

Merry Christmas

To all whom we have been privileged to serve we extend greetings.

MACPHERSON'S DRESS SHOP

MONTAGUE

TO OUR FRIENDS AT THE CHRISTMAS SEASON

We wish our many friends peace and merriment at this joyous holiday season, with a happy New Year to come.

DELUXE DRY CLEANERS

MONTAGUE

SILENT NIGHT

As the familiar carols fill the air, let us pause to give thanks for our many blessings

V. R. PEPLER JEWELLER

MONTAGUE

As "Your Family Drug Store" we take this opportunity to wish you and your family a very Merry Christmas and a healthy New Year. We are, as ever, at your service with the best drugs procurable.

MABON DRUG COMPANY

Prescriptions Sundries Veterinary Supplies

MONTAGUE

Yuletide Greetings

Here's to a Merry Christmas and a New Year studded with old-fashioned sentiments: Happiness, tranquility and prosperity.

POOLE & BEER CONSTRUCTION CO.

MONTAGUE

'Merry Christmas'

It's our pleasure to wish you one of the jolliest Yuletides you've ever known.

POOLE & THOMPSON

PRODUCE DEALERS, MONTAGUE

May we have the pleasure of serving you in the future as we have in the past.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

FRASER & ANNEAR

SHUR-GAIN FEED SERVICE

MERRY CHRISTMAS and Happy & Prosperous NEW YEAR to all our friends and customers

THE PURINA STAFF

H. V. WHITE

MONTAGUE

Sincere Good Wishes

We wish at this time to extend our thanks to all our patrons this past season.

YEO'S THEATRE

MONTAGUE

Best Wishes

May your share of Christmas gladness

So fill the day with cheer

There'll be an over-flow to spice

With joy the coming year!

MONTAGUE CO-OP

Merry Christmas and A Wonderful New Year!

What a wonderful holiday season we hope it will be for you! We pray that this great day will bring you peace and joy. We hope that the year ahead will be filled with happiness for you in every way.

HOOLEY'S MEN'S WEAR

MONTAGUE AND CHARLOTTETOWN

Here's To A Merry Christmas For You!

We hope yours will be a joy-filled holiday and we hope, too, that the New Year ahead will be a happy one. Merry Christmas!

McGOWAN'S LTD.

Merchants KILMUIR

HOLIDAY GREETINGS

To all our many friends may you enjoy this Holiday Season and be filled with great cheer, love and Happiness.

BISON RESTAURANT

MONTAGUE

MONTEAGUE FURNISHING CO.

WIGHTMAN BUSINESS SERVICE

MONTAGUE

PHONE 136

"Merry Christmas"

To all our friends and customers—may You enjoy the happiest Holiday season ever!

MONTAGUE

5c to $1.00 Store

H. D. MURRAY, Proprietor

"Merry Christmas"

Allow us to drum home a message of good cheer to all those whom we have served this year....

MONTAGUE BAKERY

MONTAGUE

Season's Greetings

Our sincere thanks for your loyal patronage this past year.

DOUG'S SERVICE STATION

MONTAGUE

MINNIE'S GIFT SHOP

MONTAGUE

MAC'S SNACK BAR

MONTAGUE

A Very Merry Christmas TO ALL

Happiness betide you on Christmas; and Good Fortune chart your course throughout the New Year.

MONTAGUE

PHONE 136

"Merry Christmas"

To all our friends and customers—may You enjoy the happiest Holiday season ever!

MONTAGUE

5c to $1.00 Store

H. D. MURRAY, Proprietor

"Merry Christmas"

Allow us to drum home a message of good cheer to all those whom we have served this year....

MONTAGUE BAKERY

MONTAGUE

Season's Greetings

Our sincere thanks for your loyal patronage this past year.

DOUG'S SERVICE STATION

MONTAGUE

Merry Christmas

To every friend near and far

Our wishes follow where you are...

MINNIE'S GIFT SHOP

MONTAGUE

MAC'S SNACK BAR

MONTAGUE

A Very Merry Christmas TO ALL

Happiness betide you on Christmas; and Good Fortune chart your course throughout the New Year.

MONTAGUE

PHONE 136

"Merry Christmas"

To all our friends and customers—may You enjoy the happiest Holiday season ever!

MONTAGUE

5c to $1.00 Store

H. D. MURRAY, Proprietor

"Merry Christmas"

Allow us to drum home a message of good cheer to all those whom we have served this year....

MONTAGUE BAKERY

MONTAGUE

Season's Greetings

Our sincere thanks for your loyal patronage this past year.

DOUG'S SERVICE STATION

MONTAGUE

Merry Christmas

To every friend near and far

Our wishes follow where you are...

MINNIE'S GIFT SHOP

MONTAGUE

MAC'S SNACK BAR

MONTAGUE

A Very Merry Christmas TO ALL

Happiness betide you on Christmas; and Good Fortune chart your course throughout the New Year.

MONTAGUE

PHONE 136

"Merry Christmas"

To all our friends and customers—may You enjoy the happiest Holiday season ever!

MONTAGUE

5c to $1.00 Store

H. D. MURRAY, Proprietor

"Merry Christmas"

Allow us to drum home a message of good cheer to all those whom we have served this year....

MONTAGUE BAKERY

MONTAGUE

Season's Greetings

Our sincere thanks for your loyal patronage this past year.

DOUG'S SERVICE STATION

MONTAGUE

Merry Christmas

To every friend near and far

Our wishes follow where you are...

MINNIE'S GIFT SHOP

MONTAGUE

MAC'S SNACK BAR

MONTAGUE

A Very Merry Christmas TO ALL

Happiness betide you on Christmas; and Good Fortune chart your course throughout the New Year.

MONTAGUE

PHONE 136

"Merry Christmas"

To all our friends and customers—may You enjoy the happiest Holiday season ever!

MONTAGUE

5c to $1.00 Store

H. D. MURRAY, Proprietor

"Merry Christmas"

Allow us to drum home a message of good cheer to all those whom we have served this year....

MONTAGUE BAKERY

MONTAGUE

Season's Greetings

Our sincere thanks for your loyal patronage this past year.

DOUG'S SERVICE STATION

MONTAGUE

Merry Christmas

To every friend near and far

Our wishes follow where you are...

MINNIE'S GIFT SHOP

MONTAGUE

MAC'S SNACK BAR

MONTAGUE

A Very Merry Christmas TO ALL

Happiness betide you on Christmas; and Good Fortune chart your course throughout the New Year.

MONTAGUE

PHONE 136

"Merry Christmas"

To all our friends and customers—may You enjoy the happiest Holiday season ever!

MONTAGUE

5c to $1.00 Store

H. D. MURRAY, Proprietor

"Merry Christmas"

Allow us to drum home a message of good cheer to all those whom we have served this year....

MONTAGUE BAKERY

MONTAGUE

Season's Greetings

Our sincere thanks for your loyal patronage this past year.

DOUG'S SERVICE STATION

MONTAGUE

Merry Christmas

To every friend near and far

Our wishes follow where you are...

MINNIE'S GIFT SHOP

MONTAGUE

MAC'S SNACK BAR

MONTAGUE

A Very Merry Christmas TO ALL

Happiness betide you on Christmas; and Good Fortune chart your course throughout the New Year.

MONTAGUE

PHONE 136

"Merry Christmas"

To all our friends and customers—may You enjoy the happiest Holiday season ever!

MONTAGUE

5c to $1.00 Store

H. D. MURRAY, Proprietor

"Merry Christmas"

Allow us to drum home a message of good cheer to all those whom we have served this year....

MONTAGUE BAKERY

MONTAGUE

Season's Greetings

Our sincere thanks for your loyal patronage this past year.

DOUG'S SERVICE STATION

MONTAGUE

Merry Christmas

To every friend near and far

Our wishes follow where you are...

MINNIE'S GIFT SHOP

MONTAGUE

MAC'S SNACK BAR

MONTAGUE

A Very Merry Christmas TO ALL

Happiness betide you on Christmas; and Good Fortune chart your course throughout the New Year.

MONTAGUE

PHONE 136

"Merry Christmas"

To all our friends and customers—may You enjoy the happiest Holiday season ever!

MONTAGUE

5c to $1.00 Store

H. D. MURRAY, Proprietor

"Merry Christmas"

Allow us to drum home a message of good cheer to all those whom we have served this year....

MONTAGUE BAKERY

MONTAGUE

Season's Greetings

Our sincere thanks for your loyal patronage this past year.

DOUG'S SERVICE STATION

MONTAGUE

Merry Christmas

To every friend near and far

Our wishes follow where you are...

MINNIE'S GIFT SHOP

MONTAGUE

MAC'S SNACK BAR

MONTAGUE

A Very Merry Christmas TO ALL

Happiness betide you on Christmas; and Good Fortune chart your course throughout the New Year.

MONTAGUE

PHONE 136

"Merry Christmas"

To all our friends and customers—may You enjoy the happiest Holiday season ever!

MONTAGUE

5c to $1.00 Store

H. D. MURRAY, Proprietor

"Merry Christmas"

Allow us to drum home a message of good cheer to all those whom we have served this year....

MONTAGUE BAKERY

MONTAGUE

Season's Greetings

Our sincere thanks for your loyal patronage this past year.

DOUG'S SERVICE STATION

MONTAGUE