Welcome J.C.'s To Charlottetown

Charlottetown, smallest capital city in Canada, is located close to the geographical centre of rural Prince Edward Island and overlooks beautiful Hillsborough Bay on the south shore of the Garden Province. It is known as the "Birthplace of Canada" because it was here in 1864 that the first meeting was held to discuss Confederation.

This city, the Capital of Prince Edward Island, was named for Queen Charlotte and was founded back in 1763 and incorporated as a city in 1855. The site was chosen for the capital by Captain Samuel Holland, Canada's first surveyor.

We Welcome You To Prince Edward Island . . . May Your Deliberations Be Fruitful
