Three men charged with being drunk and incapable appeared. One was sentenced to five days in jail and the other two were each fined $5 and costs or 10 days in jail. The cases were held before Mr. J. A. Beutlev, K.C., acting in the absence of City Magistrate K. M. Martin. Magistrate Martin is at present attending a law conference at Washington.

NEGATIVE RESPONSE — Commenting on the report presented at Tuesday night's Board of Trade meeting and published in yesterday's Guardian respecting a proposal for providing water-works, fire protection and sewerage facilities to the suburban areas of Charlottetown, Hon. Eugene Cullen, Minister of Industry and Natural Resources, stated that the Provincial Government had no intention of creating a precedent by supplying these services as they would be swamped with requests of a similar nature from other parts of the Province. Mayor B. Earle MacDonald was also quoted as saying that the City of Charlottetown was in no financial position to consider making any contribution to such a project.
