GRAND RALLY in the Market Hall to night at 7.30 o'clock.

LECTURE.—A lecture on Chemistry and the experiments to-night at the Y. M. C. A. admittance free.

TEA AND SALES.—A very successful tea and fancy sale was held in Philharmonie Hall yesterday afternoon and evening.

SERMON ON PROHIBITION.—The Rev. James Simpson will deliver a sermon on "Prohibition" in St. Peter's Cathedral on Sunday evening next.

AFTER DAMAGES.—It is said that C. R. Barry intends to bring an action for $20,000 damages against the C. P. R. for false imprisonment.—Halifax Herald.

DISASTROUS FIRE.—Simon Foster's house and contents at Park Street, N. S. with about $200 in money, was totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday.

THANKSGIVING DAY was generally observed. There were the usual services in the churches, and the public offices and most of the business places were closed.

NEW MONASTERY.—The Truro News says the Trappist monks are now soliciting subscriptions towards the building of a new monastery at Tracadie, to replace that burned down a year ago.

HAY SHIPPED.—The Sun says it is believed now that large quantities of hay will be shipped from St. John in the near future. The rate on hay from New York to U. K. ports just now is 50s.

THE CITY OF GENT.—A Halifax despatch says: The steamer City of Ghent, from P. E. Island, has a large hole in her plate amidships due to a collision, Monday night, in Sheet Harbor with the schooner Thistle.

THE FASTEST.—The steamer Fastest left on return to Halifax at half-past eleven last evening, with three passengers and a full freight, which included 2096 boxes of cheese for the English market, shipped by Hodgson Bros., of Montreal.

WILL APPEAR TO-MORROW.—The advt. and review of the greatest book of the present day, "The Parliament of Religions and Religious Congresses at the Columbian Exposition," Mr. Theo. L. Chappelle is sole agent for this grand work.

ROVING SPEECHES will be made at the grand rally meeting in the Market Hall this evening at 7.30 o'clock. The people's candidates—Owen and Fitzgerald—will be present, and roving speeches will be made. Let there be a full and punctual attendance.

UNDERGROUND RAILWAY.—The last proposition in New York, looking to rapid transit, is a proposition to build an underground railway from the Battery via Broadway, the Boulevard and Tenth avenue, to Fort George. Two tiers of double-track will be utilized.

MARINE NEWS.—The schooner Etouffe Du Matin sails to-morrow for Pictou with 4,200 bushels of oats; also the schooner Reburn, for Boston or Providence, with 4,200 bushels of potatoes. Both cargoes were shipped by H. K. McLeod, Esq., of Eldon.

LEAGUE OF THE CROSS.—An entertainment in aid of the League of the Cross will be given in the Lyceum, on Tuesday, Dec. 5th. A programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental music by some of the best talent in this city is being prepared, and it is proposed to make it a grand success.

Y. M. C. A.—Prof. Harcourt gives the first of a series of practical talks on Chemistry in the lecture room to-night at 8.30. He will illustrate his remarks by experiments. Admittance to this talk only will be free. For the remaining ones coupon tickets are being distributed to the members, which will entitle them to admittance, with privilege of bringing a lady or gentleman friend.

FIRE.—We learn with regret that the store of John P. Sullivan, Esq., M. P. P., at Head St. Peter Bay, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday evening last. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss in the store were saved. The loss is about $500. There is no insurance. Mr. Sullivan has resumed business in a building belonging to John McLean, a short distance from the scene of the conflagration.

THANKSGIVING.—The usual Thanksgiving Tea took place at the Poor House on Thursday afternoon. There are 47 inmates, and they thoroughly enjoyed the good things which were bountifully supplied by many kind friends. Mr. Scott, Evangelist of Kensington Hall, gave a short address. Mrs. Herbert Beer joined the singing. "Home Sweet Home," "O! Folk at Home," and several hymns were much appreciated by the poor old people.

FOR BOSTON.—The steamer Worcester left for Boston yesterday afternoon at four o'clock with a general cargo which included 3500 pcks. potatoes, 1800 cases lobsters and canned meats, 600 cases eggs, 200 lbs. mackerel, 42 lbs. skins, and 50 pcks. household effects. The passengers were: Solomon Tulloch, J. McDonald, Mrs. Berry, Miss Berry (2), Mrs. Moffatt, Mrs. Morrison, Mr. T. Arsenault, Mr. N. Howe, Mr. A. Hamill, Mr. W. Sterling, Mr. H. Peterson and Mrs. M. Stewart.

THE ORGAN RECITAL.—For happy selection and good performance, the organ recital in St. James' Church last evening was, to our mind, the best of the three given by Mr. Earle. The programme was so varied it could not well be expected to please everyone by its every number, but all tastes could find gratification in some of the selections, whether familiar, simple, melodious, intricate or most elaborate. Mrs. Roome, Mrs. Malcolm McLean, Mrs. Williston Brown, Miss E. Brown and Mr. F. Davies contributed the vocal parts. A fairly large audience was present, and those who were absent were decidedly the losers. We hope that this is not the last of these recitals for the season—they are educating and elevating, and we are glad to recognize a growing appreciation for the "king of instruments."

ARE YOU PREPARED?

The mornings are growing very chilly, and children on the way to school should be well wrapped up.

THE COGHLAN MATTER.

Charles Coghlan and His New Wife May Not Find It Smooth Sailing.

A recent despatch from St. Louis to the New York Herald: When Maurice Barrymore, the leading man of Palmer's stock company, left the city yesterday morning he had in his pocket a telegram from Rose Coghlan, offering him $300 a week to take the leading part in "A Woman of No Importance," which is to be produced in New York on December 11.

This would seem to indicate that Mrs. Charles Coghlan No. 1 is a woman of some importance in Rose Coghlan's eyes, and that there are several kinds of trouble ahead for Mrs. Coghlan No. 2, nee Miss Kuehne Beveridge, and the man she married at midnight in Indianapolis. When Mr. Coghlan and his new wife were here he gave out that all matters had been amicably arranged with the woman whom he had called his wife for twenty-five years. It has been learned that Charles Coghlan refuses to take the leading part, for which he was cast, unless Miss Kuehne Beveridge plays too.

The offer to Mr. Barrymore is the sequel. If he accepts there will be no place for Charles Coghlan. Mr. Barrymore was not prepared to say whether he would accept the offer or not when he left. But he has only a seven week's contract, half expired, with the Palmer company, and as the terms offered by Miss Coghlan are better than those of the Palmer, it is very probable that he will go to her.

New York advices here to-day were to the effect that Charles Coghlan was arrested for bigamy as soon as he set foot in New York and that criminal proceedings, growing out of the alleged marriage, would also be brought against Kathie Beveridge.

At J. D. McLeod & Co's.—Many of our readers will be glad to learn that J. D. McLeod & Co. have now opened their store with a fine new stock of goods. The shop is now situated next to Miller Bros., and only three doors north of the old stand, known for so many years as "J. D. McLeod's Corner." It is one of the most attractive looking stores in Charlottetown and worth visiting.

WILL ENFORCE THE LAW.—Mayor Keef, of Halifax, has notified the steamship agents in that city that the law regarding the landing of paupers and cattlemen would be vigorously enforced, and that the agents would be made to pay the penalties imposed in such cases when they arrive. A penalty of $400 has been imposed on the captain of a Halifax West India schooner because on his way to Halifax he called in at Negro Head for the purpose of bringing his wife to Halifax and neglected to enter or clear there as required by law.

THE DUART CASTLE.—We learn from the New York Herald that "the steamer Duart Castle, from St. John, N. B., arrived at Bermuda on the 14th inst., with slight damage to her machinery, a few bolts loose, having experienced heavy weather on the passage down. She will be delayed a few days to tighten up machinery." The Duart Castle had quite a number of horses on board, fifteen of which belonged to Mr. Hooper of Summerside.

THE LAMB MARKET.—Joseph Hayes, who has just returned from Boston, says that the lamb market is flat. It is hard to sell lamb at anything like paying prices, and it is doubtful if any more shipments will be made until the market improves somewhat.—St. John Sun.

Personal. At the Davies Hotel this forenoon there were registered: Chas. Henderson, St. John; A. Roy Macdonald, Truro; T. W. Higgins, St. John's; O. E. Smith, Halifax; E. Weidern, St. John; W. R. Carmichael, Montreal. Mr. D. J. Kane, wife and family, of Bangor, Me., arrived here on Thursday and registered at the Hotel Davies. Mr. Kane has been appointed Consul for the United States at Charlottetown.

Headaches and fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

Mr. T. B. Mothersill, the energetic and popular agent of the New York Life Insurance Co. has netted one of the largest fish ever taken in this Province, in the shape of a $25,000 life insurance policy in the above named company. There is but one other policy of this size in the Island and it is in the same company. Mr. Mothersill is meeting with deserved and well-merited success in his business in this Province.

PROHIBITION MEETING.—A second Prohibition meeting will be held in the Philharmonie Hall, Tuesday, Dec. 5th. nov 22 dy 1w.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A correspondent wishes us to obtain information regarding the whereabouts of Thomas Henry Taylor, who was brought up in an Orphanage School in Liverpool, England, and was last heard of in Prince Edward Island nine years ago. Before that time he had been in New Glasgow, N. S., and in Port Mulgrave. He is 25 years of age, red hair, blue eyes and marked with small pox. His brother is very anxious to hear of him. Please send any communication to Rev. Wm. Hamlyn, St. Paul's Rectory, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

MARRIED. At San Francisco, Cal., on Oct. 18th inst., Dr. John G. McKay, late of Stanley, P. E. I., to Miss Catharine Nicholson, second daughter of the late John Nicholson, Hazel Grove, P. E. I.

At the residence of the bride's mother, Great George St., on the 22nd inst., by the Rev. Geo. C. P. Palmer, John H. Wonnacott to Caroline E. Ashley, all of Charlottetown.

Don't You Think

That SANDERSON & CO'S. is about the best place in town to buy GROCERIES?

Think! My dear sir, I don't think at all; I know it for a fact. Just look here at the Bargains I got there last week:—5 lbs. choice Tea for $1.10, and they have a brand there for 90c., good Tea, too; prime Porto Rico Molasses, 30c. a gallon; Porto Rico (Raw) Sugar, 5c. a pound; Raisins and Currants (new fruit), Candied Peels and Essences at the lowest prices you ever heard of. And, say, if you want some Choice Family Flour, they keep it good and cheap.

Well, well. That, I think, suits me better than any place I have heard of yet, and I will give them a trial anyhow.

TO-DAY the World's Fair prize winners' exposition opens at the Grand Central Palace, Forty-third Street and Lexington Avenue, New York City. Many prominent features of the Chicago Show besides the winning exhibits, including the Midway Plaisance, will be transferred to the new Fair, which will attract thousands of visitors and is certain to be a huge success.

Our trade this fall has been a success so far, and our expectations have not abated for the future in the slightest. The run on Overcoats and Suits is all the evidence we want that our values are par excellence; and we want to keep it before the people that the Star Tailor is here to give the people what they want in Style, Fit and Finish, not to be duplicated within the confines of this Province. Have you made up your mind to get any Clothing? Don't be silly enough to risk your spare money on something that is not likely to prove satisfactory to you. If I want to buy anything I go where I am sure to get satisfaction. This is what you ought to do. We have heaps of Overcoatings, Suitings, Underwear and Furnishings of most every kind, and to satisfy you in price is what you want and what we can do. Christmas is coming, another month; be ready, donned with the Star Tailor's best.
