

The Highest Types.

BOB BURDETTE'S ADVICE TO BOYS WHO TALK ABOUT "MERE BUTTERFLIES OF FASHION."

(From the Burlington Hawkeye.)

"You say you demand the noblest type of womanhood in your wife. If that is the sort of woman you want, marry Nora Milligan, your landress's daughter. She wears cowhide shoes, is guiltless of corsets, never had a sick day in her life, takes in washing, goes out house cleaning, and cooks for a family of seven children, her mother and three section men, who board with her. I don't think she would marry you, because Con Regan, the track-walker, is her style of a man. Let us just examine into your qualifications as a model husband after your own matrimonial ideas, my boy. Can you shoulder a barrel of flour and carry it down to the cellar? Can you saw and split ten cords of hickory wood in the fall so as to have ready fuel all winter? Can you spade up half an acre of ground for a kitchen garden? Do you know what will take the limy taste out of the new cistern, and you can patch the little leak in the kitchen roof? Can you bring home a pane of glass and a wad of putty to repair damages in the sitting-room window? Can you hang some cheap paper on the kitchen? Can you fix the front gate so it will not sag? Can you do anything about the house that Con Regan can? My dear boy, you see why Nora Milligan will have none of you; she wants a higher type of true manhood. You expect to hire men to do all man's work about the house but you want your wife to do everything that any woman can do. Believe me, my dear son, nine-tenths of the girls who play the piano and sing so charmingly, whom you in your limited knowledge set down as 'mere butterflies of fashion' are better fitted for wives than you are for a husband. If you want to marry a first-class cook and experienced housekeeper, do your courting in the intelligence office. But if you want a wife, marry the girl you love, with dimpled hands and a face like the sunlight, and her love will teach her all these things, my boy, long before you have learned one-half of your own lesson."

Not long since a smart seven-year old son of one of our preachers, after service was over and the family had returned home from church, said:

"Papa, do you ever look at me while you are preaching?"

The father, thinking he was a little hurt by supposed neglect, said, "Certainly my son, I often look at you and think of you when I am preaching."

"But to-day did you notice me at all?"

"Yes, I did, son, several times," said the father.

"Well, papa, did you see me wink at you two or three times?"

"No, my son. What did you wink at me for when I was preaching?"

"I winked at you, papa, to get you to stop; you were spinning it too long."

AN ANALYTICAL SANITARY INSTITUTION

54, HOLBORN-VICTORIA, E.C., LONDON, AUG. 8, 1879.

REPORT ON THE LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY:

"We have visited the bottling stores of Greenlees Brothers, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were very fine, mellow, and of pleasant flavor, and possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whisky of the first quality."
