THE "Edgar Stuart" sailed from Halifax for Georgetown, on Tuesday night. THE "Nova Scotia," on Monday, brought out the largest mails yet landed in Halifax. THE International Hotel, at Shubenacadie, N. S., was destroyed by fire a few nights ago. THE thermometer registered 9° above zero early this morning; but the wind was high and keen. THAT genial gentleman and humorist Tony Pastor, was cured of rheumatic pains by St. Jacob's Oil. He strongly endorses it. CALL on the Farmer's Grocery for good Tea, Molasses, Kerosene Oil, Vinegar, Raisins, Currants and Confectionery, cheap. [Jan 4 wly] DON'T FORGET the concert on Friday evening in the Methodist Brick Church. First-class programme. Commencing at eight o'clock. Admission only 15 cents. DON'T forget the lectures of Senator Howland in St. Patrick's Hall to-night. The subject is an interesting one, and from the Senator's experience in public life, ought to be ably treated. SOME rascal in St. Peter's, over a forged check, sent to THE EXAMINER a notice of the death of Mr. Lestock Anderson. We are glad to hear that Mr. Anderson is alive and well. We understand that Councillor Byrne will not again contest Ward 2. Those who are favorable to the levying of the assessment on the holders of real estate and not upon the tenant, should lose no time in selecting his successor. FARMERS and others desiring a genteel, lucrative agency business, by which $5 to $20 a day can be earned, send address at once, on postal, to H. C. WILKINSON & Co., 195 and 197, Fulton Street, New York. [Jan 4 6m wly] BY private advices we learn that the failure of Carville & Sons, England, will be very much felt in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. A firm in the latter Province which has had considerable business connection with the Carvilles has, it is reported, been stuck badly. THE Halifax agency of the Phoenix Fire Insurance Company, lately held by J. S. Macdonald, the hero of the late failure in that city, has been transferred to J. C. P. Clarkson, Esq., who has been long connected with the Insurance business. Mr. C. was formerly a captain in the British Army, but long since retired. THE regular meeting of the Educational Institute will be held in West Kent Street School Building, on Friday evening next, to commence promptly at 7.45 o'clock. Prof. Anderson will give an address on Arithmetic, and Miss Maria Lawson will read a paper, asking for her subject "Should we teach children what they cannot understand?" OMISSION.—In yesterday's issue, by an oversight in copying, we inadvertently omitted mention of Rev. W. B. King's excellent reading of the "Witch of Berkeley," at St. Peter's reading. Mr. King read this weird selection with effect upon the audience who enjoyed it as one of the best readings of the evening. DR. BENNET will be at the Rankin House, Charlottetown, on the 12th, 13th, 14th, and 15th of January, to give audience to those wishing advice and treatment. Dr. Bennet's treatment is entirely his own method and invention, and is, without doubt, unsurpassed in the annals of medical science. At Summerside on the 16th and 17th inst., at Clifton Hotel. [Jan 4] Fort Augustus. Before service on New Year's Day, the teachers of Fort Augustus Parish waited on their pastor, the Rev. A. J. McDonald, and presented him with the address and accompanying purse. During service, the Rev. gentleman replied in suitable terms. He encouraged them in the important work of teaching and training the young, and hoped, in conclusion, that society and religion would be both greatly benefited by their diligent and efficient services.— REV. ALLAN J. McDONALD, P. P. REV. AND DEAR SIR,—The undersigned Teachers of Fort Augustus most respectfully present from with this address and purse, as a small acknowledgement of our esteem and affection. As your mission, since you became our Pastor, has been one of continual exertion for the cause of religion and the welfare of our parishioners, we hope that your endeavors have had their desired effect, and that our after lives will show that the many good lessons you taught us have not been forgotten. Allow us to congratulate you on the success that has crowned your efforts in the completion of our new Church, which is a credit to you and an honor to the parish. We trust that its beautiful new altar, excellent paintings, and exquisite finish, will be revered memorials of the success of your pastorate and your love of religion. On behalf of ourselves and our pupils, we humbly solicit your blessing and sympathy. Your presence in our schools will be regarded as a mark of distinction. Wishing you the compliments of the season, and hoping that you may be spared many happy New Years as our pastor and guide. We remain, Rev. Sir, your humble Servants, MICHAEL LAVERTY, THOMAS J.
