

Written For The Examiner.

The Blessings of Religion.

I.
O, weary traveller with care oppressed,
Come and accept the promised rest,
Thy cares and failings here may end,
Thy sins now here to bliss will bend.

II.
When far out on the distant shore
Thy steps may wander more and more,
But still to thee in accents sweet,
Thy loving Saviour's voice will greet.

III.
And ever more to Jesus sigh,
For richer blessings by and by,
When in the distant glorious time
You will be in your greatest prime.

IV.
No, never more you'll sigh for peace,
But in its place will faith increase,
And in the distant hallowed days
Will sing His name in songs of praise.

V.
And when this earthly course is run,
From earthly clay to distant sun,
Thy feet in temples will have trod
The realms of thy father's God.
