Bosox, Athletics Split Bill; Twins Trounce Senators

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Boston right hander Don Schwall climbed out of his sophomore slump, scattering four singles, and edged Kansas City 3-1 Monday as the teams split a Labor Day doubleheader in Boston.

The Athletics won the opener 5-3 with Norm Siebern, Ed Charles and George Alusik driving in two runs apiece.

The Red Sox clinched the nightcap when Frank Malzone drew a bases loaded walk in the eighth.

Schwall, American League rookie of the year last season, posted his seventh victory of a disappointing campaign. He's lost 14.

La Clinton's decisive two-run double for Boston in the first inning of the nightcap followed singles by Billy Gardner and Carl Yastrzemski.

At Washington, Camilo Pascual pitched his 17th victory of the season and Bob Allison hit his 22nd and 23rd homers as Minnesota Twins whipped Washington Twice 9-3 and 4-3.

Allison's 23rd homer came in the eighth inning of the second game with two men on and Washington leading 3-1.

The Twins, trying to overtake New York Yankees won the second game behind Ruben Gomez.

The Senators took a 3-1 lead in the bottom of the seventh in the second game when Bob Schmidt crashed his 10th home run off the railing of the upper deck in left. Jim King, who had singled, was on base.

YANKS EARN SPLIT

At New York blanked with two hits through seven innings, Los Angeles Angels warmed up with two runs in the eighth, then drove Jim Cotes and Luis Arroyo to cover with a furious four-run assault in the ninth to defeat the Yankees 6-5 and gain a split in their Labor Day doubleheader. New York won the opener 8-2.

The split, reduced the Yankees' first place lead to three gameso ver Minnesota. The Angels, in third place, remained 4½ lengths behind.

George Thomas, a pinch - hitter, drove in the winning run in the nightcap with a single after Leo Burke, had tied the score with a two-run single.

The Yankees had built a 5-0 lead against Ted Bowsfield of Penticton, B.C. and rookie Juan Navarro, mainly on the strength of Ellie Howard's 17th home run and a two-run double by Mickey Mantle.

The Yankees rallied for five runs in the seventh inning to snap a 2-2 tie in the opener. Tom Tresh and Roger Maris featured the attack against starter and loser Bo Belinsky, each driving in two runs with a double.

The Angels had taken an early 2-0 lead on homers by Burke and Leon Wagner, his 34th, but the Yankee drew even in the fourth when Howard hit a two-run homer.

TRIBE WINS TWO

At Chicago, Cleveland Indians swept a doubleheader from the slumping White Sox 4-3 and 6-5.

Jerry Kindall's bloop single to centre field in the ninth inning of the first game drove across an unearned run to sidetrack Early Wynn in his bid to gain the 299th victory of his career.

In the opener, Luis Aparicio's error opened the door o the winning ninth inning run after Joe Cunningham's eighth home run had drawn the White Sox into a three-all deadlock the inning before.

Tito Francona drove across two runs with his 12th homer in the first game, and in the nightcap Woodie Held smashed his 16th, a fourth inning drive that was good for three runs.

S'side Juniors Leading Series

SUMMERSIDE — After winning two straight games from Charlottetown in the Junior best-of-five series, Summerside dropped a game to the visitors in the Prince County capital yesterday afternoon. They had won previously in Summerside 3-1 in Charlottetown 6-5, and were bested in Summerside in the third game by the score of 8-6.

Donnie Schurman won Saturday's game for Summerside, giving up only three well-scattered hits to the Charlottetown team. Lefty Dunn, on the mound for the visitors, also pitched well but was touched for seven safe bingles.

Lane started for Charlottetown in yesterday's game and was relieved by Dunn in the seventh. Schurman was Summerside's choice for starting pitcher but Paul MacWilliams took his place in the fifth. The home boys mixed some outstanding defensive plays with a comedy of errors.

Geo. Dalton made two nice catches in left field and Richard Perry in short field made a great catch in the second inning and a magnificent stab to prevent extra bases in the ninth. But the Summerside crew made a total of 8 errors. In the fifth frame, they had a chance for a double killing and made a very damaging bobble to allow two runs. Two more runs were collected up by the visitors before this disastrous inning was over.

Singles by Rice, Lane, Doyle, Ellsworth and Duffy all contributed to the Charlottetown scoring.

Sunday at Charlottetown's Memorial Field, Summerside Juniors picked up their second straight win behind the pitching of Richard Perry.

Abbies opened the scoring with a pair in the second but the westerners went ahead with four big markers in the third. Abbies finally tied it with two in the fifth but Summerside roared into a 6-4 lead with two runs in the top of the sixth. Abbies got only one of these back, htat came in the eighth. Poor base running cost them a chance of at least tying the game in this stanza.

Perry went the distance for the victors, allowing six hits over the nine innings. Richard walked five and had three strikeouts to his credit. John Lane started for the Abbies and was relieved by Len Ellsworth after five complete frames. Lane yielded five hits and four runs while on the mound. He fanned three and walked three. John also hit one batsman. His reliefer, Ellsworth, was charged with the defeat. He gave up only two base knocks but his wildness cost him the game in the sixth when he walked four batters. Two others in later frames got free passes to first base. Len struck out four.

Don Arsenault and Romer Sewchuk led the winners at bat, each garnering two singles. Moe MacIsaac and Jim Duffy of the Abbies each picked up a pair of one base knocks.

Cyril MacDonald each with 3 hits in 5 tries, were Charlottetown's best hitters.

George MacNeill went 2 for 4 for Summerside.

Billy Weatherble, Charlottetown pitcher, struck out 5 and issued no free passes to first. George MacNeill, Summerside flinger, whiffed eight and walked none.

A good catch by Charlottetown's Cyril MacDonald in the seventh inning was the game's fielding gem.

TRURO (CP) — J. Scott Hal, owned by Valley Stables of Florenceville, N.B. won the fourth annual Donnie Turner Memorial stake race here Monday in 2.10 1-5 for the richest harness racing purse ever offered in the Maritimes.

The horse earned $3,981.60, topping the summary in the $11,000 race.

Brewer's Lad, owned by Edgar Himmleman of Halifax, came home second. Both horses were double dash winners in the preliminaries.

Another double was Dave Gratian, who took races three and seven.

Singles went to Sunrise and Barbara Will. The exactor paid $81.50. Other pays were low.

Souris Finalists Split Victories

The Souris Town Baseball League final series is tied at 1-all following Labour Day weekend action.

Sunday afternoon Larter's Centretowners downed MacLean's Uptowners 1.20 but yesterday the Uptowners avenged this initial setback by their rivals 9-5.

In Sunday's contest Terry Clinton went the distance for the winners and Danny Mahar was charged with the loss.

Eugene MacDonald paced the Centretowners at the plate with two hits in four appearances. Guy MacIntosh was 1-for-2 for the losers.

Yesterday Mahar once again handled the pitching chores for the Uptowners and twirled a 6-hitter for the victory. He also issued five free passes to first while fanning 10.

David Jennings, Wayne MacDonald and Terry Clinton combined to throw a three-hitter for the losers. They also issued a total of eleven walks and their teammates gave them shaky backing. The losing moundsmen also registered nine strikeouts.

Guy MacIntosh topped the winners at the plate with one hit in three outings. Brendon MacAulay was 2 for 4 for the Centretowners.

The series resumes Wednesday night at 5.30.

Crozier Grabs Rich Stakes

NEW YORK (AP) — Crozier, from Fred Hooper's stable held on in a blistering four - horse stretch duel Monday and won the $106,300 Aqueduct Stakes before a roaring crowd of 70,-123 at Aqueduct race course.

Mrs. Robert L. Dotter's Guadalcanal, 14 - to - 1 outsider, rushed up in the late stages to grab second place.

There was a photo finish, and Crozier finished half a length in front of Guadalcanal, who was second by a head over Ridan. Carry Back was half a length in front of Guadalcanal, who was second by a head over Ridan. Carry Back was half a length back of Ridan in fourth place.

Maxwell Cops Dallas Tourney

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Billy Maxwell played down the middle with deadly approaches Monday to win his first tournament in a year — the $35,000 Dallas Open — with a closing one-over-par 71 for 277 and $5,300 first money.

Starting the final round with 206 and a four-stroke bulge over Johnny Pott, the Texas redhead never gave the stretch finishers a chance and won by four strokes.

Pott made a run for it but wound up with 71 for 281 and second money of $3,400.

Charles Sifford, the only Negro on the tour, and Juan Rodriguez, the little Puerto Rican, would up tied for third at 282. Each won $2,650.
