Labor Minister Asks Plan To Revise Lake Conditions

LBJ Asks Rait Tieup Delay

By ROBERT RICE
OTTAWA (CP)—Labor Minister MacEachen has unveiled a plan to separate deck officers and engineers from seamen on Great Lakes ships by placing them in two different unions—if they agree.

Great Lakes began when the SIU raided the National Association of Marine Engineers, thus expanding its jurisdiction and its power. The Canadian Labor Congress kicked the SIU here in two different unions—if they agree.

"The trustees have indicated that they do not favor the integration of licensed personnel in the SIU," said Mr. MacEachen.

"They would favor the integration of engineers with other officers so desire."

INTEGRATION FAVORED
The trustees would favor integration of unlicensed personnel into one union, again, if the unlicensed personnel so desired.

In both cases, Mr. MacEachen said, the trustees were endorsing the proposals for union stability in the shipping industry made by Mr. Justice T. Norris as part of his year-long investigation of labor troubles and shipping disruptions. Judge Norris named SIU president Hal C. Banks and his gangsterism for terror, violence and harassment as one of the worst in recent years.

NO UNIONS MENTIONED
While no specific unions were mentioned, the apparent end result of the trustees' plan would be:

The SIU would absorb the seamen members, CMU and the CBRT and become the bargaining agent for all unlicensed seamen such as stewards, oilers, cooks, stewards, wheelmen and others.

The Canadian Maritime Union, the Canadian Merchant Service Guild, the National Association of Marine Engineers, and the Marine section of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway, Transport and General Workers.

Present troubles on the Great Lakes have gone into effect.

Diefenbaker Is Critical Of Plan For Que. Eskimos

OTTAWA (CP)—Opposition Leader Diefenbaker said Thursday the federal government is treating 2,500 Eskimos in northern Quebec like serfs and political prisoners.

He said the government failed to provide for an aboriginal people that cannot be justified.

So such breach of the constitution will occur, argued Justice Minister Pavreau. The program would be a transfer of administration.

Mail Robbery Loot Assessed

OTTAWA (CP)—Postmaster-General Nicholson said Thursday in the Commons the loss of the force that was not diverted by the Conservative backbenchers would be assessed at $600,000 or $800,000. It was replying to Louis-Joseph Pigeon (Montreal) who questioned him about reports the loss was around $2,000,000.

Guerrillas Score Victory In South Viet Nam Strike

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
TAN AN (AP)—Communist guerrillas struck in Quezian Thursday, a day after smashing a defence post on Saigon's doorstep in a bold challenge to South Vietnam's Premier Nguyen Khanh.

About 300 guerrillas ambushed a South Vietnamese battalion moving along a road near Mo Cay, about 10 miles south of Tan An. With the fighting apparently still raging, no casualty figures were available.

The ambush forced the military regime to divert some paratroopers assigned to track down guerrillas who early Wednesday overwhelmed the self-defence post at Go Den, 30 miles north of Tan An. Instead the paratroopers were sped to the Mo Cay area.

The scene of the Viet Communist strikes is in an area Khanh has described as one of the country's two most critical areas. The area has been bolstered by troop reinforcements from the north.

But the guerrillas apparently were unimpeded. In the strike at Go Den they killed three earth-works towers placed at each corner of the triangular post. MacEachen said the post was the lieutenant in charge of the post was wounded. He crawled 30 feet to a gate where he was shot in the neck.

Guerrilla machine-gun fire cut him to pieces.

Two battalions of paratroopers drove up in trucks—part of the force that was not diverted by the attack in the Mo Cay area. They were met by guerrillas. They were killed by guerrillas. They were killed by guerrillas.

Turks Criticize UN Peace Force

CP From AP-Reuters
NICOSIA — Dr. Ralph Bunche, United Nations undersecretary for political affairs, had lengthy talks with leaders of both the majority Greek and minority Turkish-Cypriot communities Thursday here, particularly about the UN peace force on the island republic.

Government sources recalled that the opportunity to express their views was a pleasant surprise. The Greek Orthodox archbishop, said the republic of Cyprus would be pleased to welcome Khrushchev if he desired to visit the island republic next month at the end of his tour of Egypt.

No official confirmation was available, the paper said, but it was understood that the UN secretary-general had issued an invitation to Khrushchev shortly.

Meanwhile, the island remained calm for the second straight day. Only one shot was reported in Nicosia and one in the mountains near Nicosia. No casualties were reported.

Brazilian Army Cleans Out Reds

BASILIA (AP)—Brazilian armed forces have launched a drive apparently aimed at sweeping extreme leftist groups from the state of Bahia. The drive is in accordance with a plan approved by President Juscelino Kubitschek's administration.

Troops searched the University of Brasilia Thursday within a few hours after military and congressional leaders agreed in Rio de Janeiro on an institutional act to purge Communist and congressional leaders.

WILL BE TABLED
Mr. Pavreau said that if and when an agreement is signed between the two governments,

BASTARD OKAY IN U.K. HOUSE

LONDON (Reuters)—Bastard, as an epithet, has been ruled permissible parliamentary language by the speaker of the House of Commons, Sir Harry Wilson-Potter.

Many words referring to a member's honor, such as liar, are strictly banned.

Winston Churchill was once pulled up for using the word "lie." He substituted "terminological inexactitude."

The tenseness of questioning was broken Thursday when Sir Charles Taylor, a Conservative party member, complained he did not hear A. F. Holt, a Liberal, shout "bastard" at Paul Williams, another Conservative.

Taylor asked the Speaker if that word met with his approval.

The Speaker replied he had great difficulty in landing this epithet in any particular dictionary and added amid merriment of laughter: "There are parts of the country in which it is used as a term of endearment."

Ottawa Reveals Symbol Contest

OTTAWA (CP)—A national temporary nature and must relate to the occasion being celebrated. The contest is open to graphic designers living in Canada, or those who are not fully bilingual abroad, as well as Canadian firms operating in the graphic arts field. Second prize is $1,000 and third prize $500.

The announcement said the purpose of the symbol—which must be bilingual—is to convey the fact that Canadians in 1967 will be marking a century of Confederation.

The brochure announcing the competition said:

"Entries must be of a coin and medallions, banners and other printed matter.

AUXILIARY POLICE PASS TESTS

All 18 members of the Charlottetown RCMP detachment's second auxiliary police class successfully passed their tests of the eight-week course and were presented with their certificates at a ceremony held last night at the "L" Division headquarters. Seen here presenting a certificate to Wayne MacEachen, Cornwallis, is the Hon. J. David Stewart, cabinet minister responsible for civil defense in the Province. Extreme left is Major D.R. Simons, provincial co-ordinator of civil defense, who participated in the passing-out ceremony with Supt. A.S. McNeil and Brig. A.W. Rogers, assistant representative of the Emergency Measures Organization of Canada.

WORKHORSE FOR TWO DECADES

Lloyd McDonald, chief of CP's Ontario service, had a personal interest in Thursday's history of the Lancaster bomber. As Ft. L. McDonald was a navigator on 36 missions over Western Europe during the Second World War and during his tour of operations was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.

By LLOYD McDONALD
TORONTO (CP)—The last of the Lancasters roared low over the parade ground, and the workhorse of the RCAF in two decades of war and peace was formally consigned to history.

The final show-up by the new war version of the bomber that spearheaded the RCAF offensive on Germany was the climax of a ceremony of retirement held Thursday at RCAF Station Downsview, in northwest Metropolitan Toronto less than 10 miles from the runways of Malton Airport where the first Canadian-built Lancaster took off 20 years ago.

Over at Malton the DC-8S and 707S of the post-war jet age took off and landed as the RCAF, through Air Vice-Marshal Max Anns, chief of air staff, Ottawa, paid its final tribute. The four-engine Lancaster, big in its day with its all-up loaded weight of 67,000 pounds, would have been diverted by the new jets.

But at Downsview the mood was mostly nostalgic, and few paid attention to the newer aircraft as the Lancs held their last show.
