FAR FROM GLUM!

Liberal candidate Ira Lewis, York smiles with appreciation as he reads a bulletin on Liberal triumphs elsewhere across the nation, although he was defeated in his own riding by a substantial margin. Mr. Lewis, with his hand on the news copy as it rolls off the teletype printer, is standing beside Liberal organizer L.G. MacNevin, as a group of happy party supporters look over their shoulders. A number of enthusiastic and hardy souls braved the almost impossible weather and travelling conditions to receive results at the Community Centre.

Liberals Make Gains In Atlantic Provinces

HALIFAX (CP) — Liberals made gains in three of the four Atlantic provinces Monday in the spring election that turned out to be a winter nightmare in this part of Canada.

A blizzard packing everything from lightning to hurricane-force winds slowed the vote count.

However, all seats in Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick were settled. The Liberals gained one in Newfoundland and two in P.E.I.

The storm, which knocked down telegraph and telephone lines, left three Nova Scotia seats undecided but Liberals had won two seats held by Progressive Conservatives in the last Parliament.

New Brunswick's 10 seats remained unchanged from the last election—six Liberals and four PCs.

SWEEP NEWFOUNDLAND

All seven seats in Newfoundland were swept by Liberals. The gain from PCs was in St. John's East, won in the 1961 election by a PC with 1,914-vote majority.

Prince Edward Island's four seats, all Progressive Conservative since 1957, were split. Conservatives won the two Queens seats, one of which is held by Fisheries Minister MacLean.

In Nova Scotia Fred T. Armstrong of the Liberals took Shelburne-Yarmouth - Clare from the PCs.

John E. Lloyd won one of the two Halifax seats — both held by Conservatives since 1957.

R. J. McCleave, who held the second Halifax seat in the last Parliament for the Progressive Conservatives, showed a narrow lead over Gerald A. Regan, the other Liberal candidate. However, Mr. McCleave told The Canadian Press he doubted his lead would stand up when the armed services vote is counted. He said the service vote would be heavily Liberal.

Malcolm (Vic) MacInnis the New Democratic Party's only member from the Atlantic provinces in the last Commons, was defeated by Donald MacInnis a Progressive Conservative who held the seat from 1957 to 1962.

Father, Son Banquet Held At Cornwall

The annual father and son banquet of Cornwall AOTS Men's Club was held recently with upwards of 60 in attendance.

After a splendid supper served by the Kingston unit of the UCW all took part in a lively sing-song, followed by devotions by Elmer Younker and Lorne Smith.

Rev. I. L. Walls spoke of the great loss the club had experienced since the last meeting in the death of Gordon MacMillan, first president of the club and one who had much to do in founding and promoting every phase of the club's work.

David Murphy showed slides of activities at Abegweit Camp at Augustine Cove and explained some of the improvements planned for the camp in the future. The club decided to contribute $100 to this camp again this year.

At the next meeting which is to be April 17 a special program is planned with eastern field secretary of men's work taking part.

UPSETS MRS. FAIRCLOUGH

TO SHOW OLD MASTERS

OTTAWA (CP)—A collection of 114 drawings by European old masters will be at the National Gallery here April 11-May 12. The works are from a collection of more than 1,500 drawings started by the second Duke of Devonshire in the late 17th century and kept at Chatsworth, the Derbyshire home of the dukes of Devonshire. They include works by Ruebns, Rembrandt, Raphael and Leonardo da Vinci.

DeBlois Bros. Gives $2,000 To Hospitals

The Charlottetown firm of DeBlois Brothers has contributed the amount of $2,000 to the joint hospital campaign for the Charlottetown and Prince Edward Island Hospitals, it was learned yesterday from Jack Johnston, chairman of the joint campaign.

This is the second major contribution from local business firms. The Charlottetown store of Holman's of P.E.I. contributed the amount of $3,000 last week.

Challenge Read To Rotarians

The Rotary challenge was read by past president John Simmonds to a group of recently admitted members of the Rotary Club at the luncheon meeting held in the Charlottetown Hotel yesterday.

Those "challenged" were Lloyd Grant, Bertram Patterson, Walter Auld, A.V. Tredenick and David Scales. They were given a cordial welcome by the president, Dr. G.G. Houston.

Past District Governor Edwin Johnstone was given a hearty welcome back from Europe where he spent several months.

Andrew Likely was appointed chairman of committee to deal with attendance at the district conference of Rotary to be held in Halifax June 17-18-19. E. K. MacNutt presided at the meeting.

Rev. P. Rudell, Hunter River and Joseph Robinson, Montreal, were guests.

Que. Throws Weight Behind Liberal Party

QUEBEC (CP)—Quebec province threw its weight behind the Liberal party in Monday's federal election, giving it a one-sided victory over the Social Credit, Progressive Conservative and New Democratic parties.

Perhaps most surprising was the province's reversal of feelings towards the Social Credit party. In the 1962 election, the old parties were stunned when Social Crediters, never before a factor in Quebec politics, won 26 of the province's 75 seats.

Real Caouette, deputy leader of the Social Credit party, had predicted that this time he would win 60 or 62 seats. Although personally re-elected in Villeneuve constituency, it was clear from incomplete returns that Mr. Caouette would be returning to Ottawa with a reduced membership.

The NDP, making its most serious bid for Quebec support, appeared assured of a heavier popular vote; but no seats.

Two members of Prime Minister Diefenbaker's cabinet were defeated. Production Minister Raymond O'Hurley lost to Liberal Auguste Choquette in Lotbiniere constituency. Martial Asselin, appointed forestry minister while the election campaign was in progress, was defeated when the Social Credit party retained Charlevoix riding.

Transport Minister Balcer was re-elected in Trois - Rivieres. Theogene Ricard, appointed minister without portfolio during the election campaign, was re-elected in St. Hyacinthe-Bagot.

Mines Minister Paul Martineau was re-elected in Pontiac-Temiscamingue.

ENVOYS GET NOTE

MOSCOW (Reuters)—The Soviet Union Monday delivered a note—said to deal with the proposed NATO nuclear force—to the United States and British ambassadors. It was understood the West German embassy received one too. Spokesmen at the two Western embassies declined to reveal the contents of the note but predicted the note would be published "very soon."

YPU Plans Presbytery Conference

The theme for the Spring conference of eastern presbytery of the Young People's Union of the United Church will be "You, Your Date and the church," it was announced following an executive meeting held at Mount Stewart this last weekend.

The conference will discuss the role of the church in boy-girl relationships. It will be held at Park Royal church hall, May 11.

Posters have been made and distributed by vice-president, John Matheson, to all the unions in the presbytery. The president, Sandy Clark presided at the executive meeting.

Program Series On Mental Health Held By H&S

The social and emotional development of the child was discussed at the last meeting of the Grand Tracadie Home and School Association. This program like the others of the previous two months centred around the mental health of the child.

Speakers at these meetings have included John MacDonald, liaison teacher with the division of mental health; Miss Etta MacDonald, guidance counsellor, and Miss Mary Elaine Trainor, psychologist.

The home and school members are continuing work on the library project and also plan to supply playground equipment for the school.

LOCAL BRIEFS

BAND CONCERT THURS.

The annual concert by the Queen Charlotte High School band will be presented Thursday, April 11 in the school auditorium. The school choir will also be heard in several selections at the time.

WRONG NAME

An error in yesterday's Guardian reported that Rupert MacLeod was a pallbearer at the funeral of Mrs. George Morrison, Saturday in Charlottetown. The name should have read Rupert MacDonald, not MacLeod.

WORD RECEIVED

Mrs. Sophie Pineau, Spring Park Road, received the sad news of the death of her sister, Phimie, (Mrs. James Farley), at the Melrose Hospital, Melrose, Mass. She leaves to mourn her son, James, and two sisters, Mary, (Mrs. Mary Meek) and Sophie. Also nieces and nephews living in Boston and Prince Edward Island.

DOYLE FUNERAL — The funeral for Mrs. James Doyle, North River, took place Monday morning from the Hennessey Funeral Home to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. F. L. Cass, who also conducted the service at the grave. Rev. George A. MacDonald was present in the sanctuary. Representatives of Star Cab were present at the funeral. Pallbearers were Hasen Howard, Harold Donahue, Ambrose Duffy, Gordon Thompson, John Jewell and Sterling MacKinnon. Interment took place in the Roman Catholic cemetery.
