PUBLIC OPINION.

Sir,—The idea of Hon. Donald Farquharson taking a man of the Pineau stamp into his Government, and shutting Mr. Wise, our honest farmer representative, up in a room as he did the last session of the House, taking his watch out of his pocket and putting it in his desk like a prize fighter preparing for battle, is simply disgusting to the voters of this settlement. But what else can we expect of a man who will make a license law to suit the liquor trade of Charlottetown and afterwards make a pretense to a prohibition law for our poor country fools and let the gents of Charlottetown have all the clubs and drinking hell holes they like in the city. If we are not just as good as those gents in Mr. Farquharson's eyes the sooner we get clear of him the better. I'm pleased he could not get a farmer mean enough to back his villainy; and Dr. Douglas will learn a lesson that will do him more good than a dose of his own medicine. Does Mr. Farquharson think that we don't want to protect our boys who go Charlottetown to finish their education and learn trades? It is said that Clement's Corner was burned down last winter in the early hours of a Sabbath morning on account of a boy's club or hell-hole that was held in the building, playing cards and drinking beer late at night Sunday and Monday. What will become of our next generation helped on by Premier Farquharson? It is enough to make one's blood run cold to think what this man do to hold on to power. He'll use money, rum and anything he can get his hands on. Is it because the gents, lawyers, doctors, etc., have lots of money, or is Mr. Farquharson in as tight a place as Pineau was and is not his own master, —dare not make a prohibitory law for them? Anyway a man of his stamp is utterly unfit for leader of any party, and we do not want him. The temperance men feel they may as well vote for a full-pledged liquor dealer at once as for a sly under-handed assistant taking blood-money and blood-votes to run our country, build our schools, roads and bridges.

His party plays another trick that we won't forget on the 11th of the month. When Sir Louis was campaigning at his last election, a poor school teacher at Clyde River took his house and spent days canvassing for him, thinking the Liberal party was the purest and most reliable, and I believe the poor fellow was in earnest and thought he was serving a party of purity. When Mr. Harris resigned his position in the Post Office this poor fellow made application and was at first promised the place. "Oh, yes, I'll see, sir," was the first reply. The next was, "Oh, yes, I don't see why you can't get it; you're sure, but I'll see," was added. Then he went home and disposed of part of his household effects, &c., and made final arrangements to move to town, when lo and behold! he was told by the same "I'll see" that they were not going to make any appointment, and this unfortunate creature went home a disappointed but a wiser man, inasmuch as he found out how frail a man's promise is, though he pretend to be the leader of the purest party on record. Having disposed of his wares and given up his job, he had to make the best of a bad case and go where he would get clear of liars and deceivers. In about a month or two for this a man was brought from Lot 30 to fill the place who it is said cast only one Grit vote in his life; nor did any of his relatives ever cast a Grit vote. But Mr. Premier Farquharson is in the purchasing business. He should be dubbed Dishonest Donald. Still, this Lot 30 deal may not turn out as the Pineau deal did. Now, Mr. Edi or, I firmly believe that if in some parts of the world a man acted with our representatives and the business of the country as this man has, a crowd would have gone in and like Oliver Cromwell cleared them all out on the street. We are a patient and forbearing people; but what we want and what we will have is an HONEST LEADER.

Earncliffe Notes.

Some people's creed—I, me and myse'f. Boys, if you can't get a girl, get a pipe.

Mrs. Daniel McAulay, of Pinette, paid her relatives here a pleasant visit last week.

We are pleased to learn that Dr. Dickie's Earncliffe patients are recovering under his skillful treatment.

Mr. N. Gay, of Pownal, loaded a vessel with pressed hay at China Point wharf last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sherrin, of Crapaud, returned home on Monday after spending a few days with their Earncliffe friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McLean, of Boston, are visiting friends here. They will spend a few days next week with Mr. McLean's father, the keeper of the Block House.

We regret that our Teacher, Mr. Robert Lawless, is leaving us this week. Mr. Lawless is an excellent teacher, and a very popular young man; and the best wishes of the people of Earncliffe will be with our talented young friend wherever his lot may be cast in the future.

Mr. Dingwell Jenkins, Seal River, is building a new house. Mr. Charles Irving raised the framework of a new barn last week, and when it is completed it will be one of the largest and finest structures of its kind in Cherry Valley.

Watched my old woman throw a clod at a hen, the other day. The house and I were behind her during the operation.

Result,—a black eye and a broken window pane. Yes, women are great shots!

An interesting event occurred in China Point the other night. A young man was escorting the girl home, when a dog suddenly appeared on the scene to interview the lovers. With wonderful presence of mind the youth climbed a tree, while the girl procured a stick, and—the dog is running yet.

This year the farmer paid for his best turnip seed thirty cents per pound. Three or four years ago the same kind of seed cost fifty cents. Now this is troubling my conscience. When I buy a pound of seed from our city seedsmen for thirty cents, do I cheat them out of twenty cents? Or when I paid fifty cents, did the seedsmen appropriate twenty cents of my money for —well, to buy clothes for the heathen?

There were two errors in my last letter. McEachern's bridge cost in 1899, $27.50 (twenty-seven fifty) not $57.50. Again, we were made to say that "you can fool all the people all the time." Now, Sir, if we were a follower of the tri-colored Tarte or Donald Pineau that is just what we would say; but as we have not fallen that low, the quotation we meant to give the boodlers to put in their pipes and smoke was: You can fool all the people some of the time and some of the people all the time; but you can't fool all of the people all the time.

The article in THE EXAMINER under the heading of "Ten Years Behind the Times" which tells of people in England who have not heard of the war, reminds us, though the name of this place was changed to "Earncliffe" in 1896 that there are some people in this vicinity who have not yet heard of the change as they continue using the old name. They are, therefore, only four years behind the times.

An agent for songs and tombstones visited us last week. When you read the songs you were supposed to be ready to order your monument. A tree and a machine agent also called on us, and all escaped uninjured. The farmer has been so busy this spring that he has scarcely had time to stop to kiss his wife or kill a book agent. But the crop is in at last; now for those "gentlemen of leisure." Clock repairers and other "fleas" will please bring their tombstones with them—the ammunition and epitaphs will be free.

Our annual school meeting was held on the 19th inst. A supplement of $10 was voted. The retiring trustee, Mr. Roderick McInnis, was re-elected; the other trustees being William Carey, and Mr. Malcolm McLeod, secretary.

We would like to know why our young men are denied the privilege of voting at those school meetings. If our boys has intelligence enough to vote at the Dominion elections surely he has sense enough to carry him through a school meeting. It has always been a conundrum to your correspondent why the young man must be lower than an Indian at the school meeting. Can any one solve it for Bay View and Other Notes.

The roads and bridges throughout Bay View District have been put in good repair. Our new supervisor, James M. Stevenson, is doing his duty fearlessly without any political favors. Even the Grits get a good officer to meet us.

As there is an election pending in the Second District of Queens, order have been issued for a large expenditure or "Charity Law." There is one voter at the south end of it who was supposed to be a little shaky on the Pineau Government, and Pineau would want all the votes he can get by hook or by crook for the Doctor.

If Wise contests the Second District in the interests of the Conservatives many of his old Liberal friends at this end of the district will vote for him rather than support the "Pineau-Farquharson" show with its hooding and bribery attachments.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Clark, of Bay View, expect to leave on Saturday the 30th on a trip to Winnipeg to attend the meeting of the B. Y. P. U. Convention. During the return journey they will be present at and attend the sessions of the National Division S. of T. which meets at Dalton, Mass., on July 11th.

The Cavendish Presbyterian congregation, after having the matter of a church site decided by the Presbytery, are making a final attempt to build, and have appointed a person who will have charge of the work.

Rev. D. F. Looker, who is rusticated at his old home in Cavendish, preached acceptably for the Rustic and Stanley congregations last Sunday.

The milk supply at Stanley factory has increased greatly this season. On Monday last 32,500 pounds was received and made into 45 cheese. The factory though enlarged last spring is still too small to handle the increased supply.

Grain is looking well since the rain, but the hay is short and does not promise to be a full crop.
