found. The wounded are more numerous than was at first supposed; one ball, in some instances, from the denseness of the crowd, and the short distance, must have wounded two or three. There are many bad sabre wounds, and several men had one ear cut off. Upwards of thirty wounded are known, and every day discloses fresh cases.

The coroner's jury, which held the inquest upon the bodies of the slain, have returned a verdict of justifiable homicide. The jury consisted of seventeen persons, of whom, judging by the names, nine were French Canadians, and the other eight Scotch and English.—Montreal Herald, June 19.

The Montreal Courier in speaking of the late affair at Beauharnois, remarks:—

"Strong hopes are entertained that when the ringleaders are removed, things will proceed quietly. A great many of the worst characters have left the neighbourhood altogether, and those who remain seem generally peaceably disposed, and heartily to repent of their folly. For this they have good cause, as we understand that many of them have suffered severely from the suspension of the works. To such extremities have they been reduced, that strong bodied men have offered to work for 1s. 2d. a day. or in fact for anything to give them food. The loss which they incurred by the non-payment of wages in consequence of the suspension of most of the contracts is stated to amount to nearly 11,000*l.*

Montreal, June 21.—Destructive Fire at Boucherville.—Yesterday, about five o'clock, a fire was observed from town, to be raging in this village, which subsequently increased to so fearful a conflagration as to induce the despatch of the Lady Colborne steamer, with two of the city fire engines and a strong body of our active firemen, to the scene of destruction. The steamer returned to port about half-past twelve, and from one of the firemen we regret to find that by this terrible conflagration, nearly the whole village of Boucherville, including the Parish Church, has been destroyed. The fire is believed to have originated in a spark from the new Chambly steamer, which left port yesterday afternoon, on her first trip. The wind being exceedingly high, and there being no engine in the village, the flames communicated with fearful rapidity, and it is believed that not less than a hundred houses were consumed. A few houses at the upper end of the village are all that have escaped. The Montreal engines arrived too late to be of much service. Our informant describes the condition of the numerous houseless sufferers by this unlooked for calamity as most deplorable; but we were glad to learn that the Colborne, with provisions to relieve their immediate wants, is to be dispatched at half past nine this morning. A gentleman from Varennes, who had come up to Boucherville, stated to our informant, that the large Hotel in the former village, built by Mr. Rasco, was set on fire, it is believed, by a spark from the same steamboat, when at the wharf there on her downward voyage; but that it was fortunately subdued, or Varennes might have shared the fate of the now desolate village of Boucherville.

Kingston, June 27.—The Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada commenced its eighteenth session at Hamilton, on Wednesday, the 12th inst. The Rev. John Ryerson was chosen President, and the Rev. Alex. McNab, Secretary. The net increase of members during the past year is 3,833.

Hon. Mr. Papineau.—This gentleman continues, we understand, to reside in Paris, where his leisure is occupied in making researches into the early history of Canada, the French Minister of the Colonies having thrown open to him the archives of his department. It is not Mr. P's. intention at present to return to his native country. There is no truth in the statement that Mr. P. has been paid the arrears of salary due to him as Speaker of the late House of Assembly of Lower Canada, amounting to $16,000; or that the government had authorised him to draw for those arrears. —Albany Daily Advertiser.

Escape of Slaves.—The Canada Mission have published their annual report, in which they state that during the year 1842, fifteen hundred slaves escaped from their masters in the United States, and are now in Canada.—N. Y. Eve. Post.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Halifax, July 11.—Shipwreck of the Royal Mail Steam Ship Columbia.—We have an unpleasant duty to perform this week, in recording the wreck of the Royal Mail Steamship Columbia, in a thick fog, on Sunday the 2d instant, on her passage between Boston and Halifax. The rock on which she struck is called the Devil's Limb, and is a mile and a half from the Light House on Seal Island, near to Cape Sable, the extreme southwest point of Nova Scotia, and generally the first land made from Boston. The distress of the passengers, 84 in number, may be conceived, but a description of the scene, even to a participator in it, could scarcely equal the intensity of feeling which the accident occasioned. All exertions were made to relieve the ship from her perilous situation, but proved useless—alarm guns were fired, which were answered from the Island, and at 4 o'clock a boat made its welcome appearance, and communicated the dangerous situation of the vessel, when immediate preparations were made for landing the passengers. The ladies were taken on shore, and as many of the gentlemen as chose to go, but a number stayed by the vessel during the night, and rendered all the assistance in their power. As an instance of the force of the current at the place where the Columbia struck, and which may in a great degree account for the disaster. it is right to mention, that the packet Brig Acadian, Capt. Jones, from Boston, was drawn into the Bay, and in beating off from her supposed situation, found herself within view of the Columbia, where she had struck. The Acadian stayed by the steam ship for some hours, and arrived here on Tuesday evening last. The third mate of the Columbia came in her to Halifax, and communicated the intelligence, which created a great sensation, and immediate means were taken to forward assistance. The Steamer Margaret, the reserve boat of the line, was promptly equipped, and sailed early on Wednesday morning, Mr. Cunard himself proceeding in her to the scene of disaster. The arrival of the Margaret was eagerly hailed by the large number of persons who, cooped up on a small island, were much straitened for accommodation, notwithstanding the extreme hospitality shown towards them by the few residents, and by the keeper of the Light House, whose noble and generous conduct upon the occasion has called forth the warmest expressions of gratitude. The subsequent endeavours to save the vessel have all proved abortive, the force with which she struck, carried her far on the reef, and elevated her bows, resting her as upon a pivot, the result of which position was, that she became hogged on Wednesday last, and there is every probability will soon go to pieces, though hopes are entertained of saving a part at least of the machinery. The crew of the Columbia are still on the spot, and the pilot, Captain Stairs, whose knowledge of the coast is undoubted, and who, during an experience of 45 years in its navigation, never before met with accident, was left there when the Margaret sailed. The Margaret arrived at Halifax on Friday afternoon last, and brought up the mails and passengers.—Times.

A brig belonging to Sunderland, and bound from St. John's, N. F. to St. John, N. B. was ashore when the Columbia struck, on Mud Island, at a short distance from the Devil's Limb.

The Margaret, Steamship, left on Sunday afternoon, with the Mails of the Columbia, and the passengers, for Liverpool.

The Columbia had on board 14,000 letters, and 50 bushels newspapers.

H. M. Ships Illustrious and Tweed sailed this morning for Quebec. The Admiral goes on a visit to the Governor General.

The Company of Royal Sappers and Miners, under the command of Captain Hawkshaw, and the Company of Artillery under the command of Capt. Tuite, embarked on board H. M. Steamer Dee, for England, this morning.

The left wing of the 64th Regiment embarked yesterday morning, on board the new ship Alert, lying at Cunard's wharf, and sails to-day.

The Mormon absurdity has reached Halifax, and a preacher of that foolery has been holding forth recently to the inhabitants. The thing may do to laugh at, but the people of Halifax will hardly be so credulous as to encourage the imposture.

The Colonial Herald.

SATURDAY, JULY 15, 1843.

By the Halifax papers received this week, we regret to perceive the loss of the Royal Mail Steamship Columbia, on the 2d inst., on her voyage from Boston to Halifax, by striking on a rock near Cape Sable, in a thick fog, while running at the rate of 10½ knots. Fortunately no lives were lost, and the passengers' luggage, with part of the materials of the vessel, were saved.

Going Back.—The New York Commercial states that a large importation of British dry goods, invoiced at £15,000 sterling, recently arrived in the ship Glasgow, from Liverpool, is in the course of re-shipment to Europe.

The 83d Regiment British Army has sailed from Quebec for England. The Quebec Gazette states that within 30 days from the date of the order from the Horse Guards, recalling the regiment, they were embarked and under sail for home.

The repeal meetings seem to have had some check in the United States, from the discussion, at a Philadelphia repeal meeting, of a recent anti-slavery speech by Mr. O'Connell, in which he said, "We will assist in rescuing the slave from every land on the face of the earth." There are about three millions of slaves in the United States, for whose freedom the Congress refuses even to receive petitions.

The civil war between Mexico and Yucatan seems to be terminated for the present, by some arrangement, both parties having become nearly exhausted in men and money.

We take the following from the Novascotian of the 10th inst., which, considering that that paper has been accused of entertaining republican principles, and has been denounced by no less an authority than the Islander as being "an ungrateful, levelling, treacherous republican," is not so very bad:—

"Steam in the United States.—The amount of receipts on the Boston and Albany Railroad, for the week ending June 24th, was $13,783.—Well done, brother Jonathan, we guess you are rapidly progressing in locomotive improvements. Perhaps, however, these enormous receipts are, in part, attributable to the temporary impulse given to travelling by the thousands who were simultaneously rushing to witness the celebration of the Bunker Hill Monument, which has been erected on a spot where British blood was spilt, and where British bravery obtained a victory over a swarm of rebels in 1775. We, as Britons, owe our republican neighbours a debt of gratitude for striving to immortalize what was already immortal—the invincibility of British troops."

We understand that the merchants and other inhabitants of Miramichi are exerting themselves to raise by subscription the amount which the proprietors of the St. George steamboat were led to expect from the Provincial funds, relying upon so frail a guarantee as an Act of the New Brunswick Legislature, subject to the construction which the Crown lawyers might choose to put upon it. Under these circumstances the St. George has been again dispatched to Miramichi, so as not to break up the communication while any prospect of a satisfactory arrangement remains.

We invite attention to the statement in our first page, made by the Directors, of the proceedings adopted by them upon the receipt of the intelligence that the Legislative Council of New Brunswick had refused to sanction the vote of the House of Assembly for the services of the Steamer last summer.

Supreme Court.—A cause grounded on the breach of a Jail limit bond, was decided on the 1st inst. The Defendant was considered to have gone beyond the limits, in going off the end of the Queen's Wharf in Charlottetown, on board a vessel then lying at the Wharf. Several very nice points were involved in this case, which terminated in a special ver. dict—subject to the opinion of the Court, "That the Defendant exceeded the limits of the Jail by going off the Wharf, but returned within the same, before action was brought. Damages £33."

The Queen v. Macneill, on the prosecution of Henry Robertson. This was an action brought against the Defendant, who was formerly Road Commissioner of the District, for shutting up part of an old road which formerly wound along the shore, between Rustico and New London, and which was stated to have been long since disused, in consequence of a much better road having been made a short distance from the shore, nearly parallel to the former, but in a more direct line. The part of the road alluded to appears to have been shut up by the defendant, acting upon his own responsibility as Road Commissioner, with consent, it was urged, of every person supposed to be interested, and as it had long ceased to be used as a road. It appears to have been done several years previous to 1833, when the Act was passed for regulating the mode of closing roads which had ceased to be used. The complaint was, that some persons were excluded from access to the shore, for the purpose of fishing, and obtaining sea-weed for manure, in consequence of the road being shut up, and that the defendant had overstepped the bounds of his authority in closing it.

The case, which was a Special Jury one, came on on Thursday the 6th inst., and from the number of witnesses called on both sides, occupied the Court for two days, when the jury returned a verdict finding the defendant "not guilty."

The same action was tried last Hilary Term, before a common jury, who found the defendant guilty; but, on motion, the Court set aside the verdict, and granted a new trial.

On Saturday last, John Godkin, for stealing a piece of cloth from the shop of Mr. Dennis Reddin, was sentenced to three months imprisonment; and Joseph Haseltine, a private in the 2d battalion Rifle Brigade, was sentenced to two months imprisonment (having been incarcerated for five months previous to his trial), for robbing a young man named Edward Macdougall, of six shillings, in the house of Archibald Macdougall, Publican, Pownal Square.

Persons in the habit of bathing would do well to keep in mind that all persons above the age of eight years are prohibited from bathing, in an unclothed state, in open day, between the Four Gun Battery on the West, and the creek, called Big Marsh Creek, on the East of Charlottetown, under a penalty of five shillings, with costs, for the first, and ten shillings, with costs, for every subsequent offence, or in default of payment, be committed to prison for ten days. All Constables are not only authorized, but required, to apprehend every person whom they shall see so offending, without any warrant being necessary, and take the offender before a Justice. Justices also are authorized to punish offenders, either upon view, or on the oath of one witness. Bathers, therefore, had better beware what they are about, as the Magistrates and Constables of Charlottetown are on the alert, and are determined to prevent, as far as in them lies, public decency being violated, by any infringement of the law in this particular.

Our Fish-market, for some days past, has been well supplied with fresh Salmon from the Morel, and with abundance of fine Mackerel, from various quarters. Salmon may now be had at the rate of 4d. a lb. and Mackerel for 1s. 3d. per doz.—a rare thing in Charlottetown.

An Inquest was held on the 12th inst., on the body of Patrick Dunn, Labourer. It appeared from evidence before the Coroner, that the unfortunate man had been drinking at a house near the Barracks, in company with several other persons who were very much intoxicated. The deceased was exceedingly quarrelsome, and was anxious to fight several of the party, and struck at two or three of them. At length he seized a man, and threw him on the table, when both fell on the floor, Dunn uppermost. In consequence of the fall, he ruptured his bladder, which caused his death.—Verdict, "Accidental death, while in a state of excessive intoxication."—Gaz.

Conviction.—James D. Fraser, Tavernkeeper, St. Eleanor's, was fined before Thomas Hunt and John Morris, Esquires, J. P. in the sum of Two Pounds, for not keeping the necessary accommodations and also, Twenty shillings for not having a Signboard.

To Correspondents.

As the institution to which A Dissenter alludes is supported by voluntary contribution, and not out of the public funds, it does not appear to us to be a fit subject for animadversion, however much it may excite others to emulation. That the Dissenters are not so powerless as his fears would lead him to imagine, is sufficiently evinced by their successful opposition to the educational clauses in the Factory Bill now before the British Parliament; a concession to the conscientious scruples of the dissenters wrung from a reluctant ministry.

REPEAL! REPEAL!!

At a Meeting of Irishmen, and the friends of Ireland, held, by requisition, at Mr. Patrick Coughlan's Hotel, on Thursday the 6th of July, inst., for the purpose of appointing a body of Repeal Wardens, to act in conjunction with the Loyal National Repeal Association of Ireland, Mr. John Slattery, of St. Andrew's College, being called to the chair, the following Resolutions, which were prefaced with appropriate speeches, were proposed and unanimously adopted.

Proposed by Mr. Richard Walsh, seconded by Mr. P. B. Doyle—

1. Deeming it an imperative duty, in the present crisis of the affairs of Ireland, to express our sympathy with our Countrymen, in our native land, who are seeking, by peaceable and constitutional Agitation, for the Repeal of that obnoxious statute, the Act of Legislative Union between Great Britain and Ireland, Resolved, That a Committee of Repeal Wardens be appointed in this Town, and its vicinity, who may legally meet together for the transaction of business, without taking any controul out of the hands of the Parent Society.

Proposed by Mr. James Mackenna, seconded by Mr. William Fitzpatrick—

2. The right of petitioning Parliament being one of the true, ancient, and indubitable rights and liberties of the people of this realm, the people of Ireland, by their multitudinous, but legal and constitutional, meetings to petition the Imperial Parliament for the Repeal of the Act of Union, have violated no law.

Proposed by Mr. Dennis Reddin, seconded by Mr. Walter Phelan—

3. That we hereby unhesitatingly express our unbounded admiration of the fearless intrepidity with which the Most Reverend Doctor MacHale, and the Right Reverend Doctors Higgins, Kennedy, and the other Irish Catholic Prelates and Clergy, have manifested their unalterable determination of adhering to the cause of Repeal.

Proposed by Mr. James Slattery, seconded by Mr. Thomas Broyderick—

4. That the thanks of this meeting (which is but a very feeble expression of its gratitude) are eminently due and are hereby given to that illustrious Patriot, the Father of his Country, Daniel O'Connell, for his indefatigable and unparalleled exertions in asserting the rights of his native land, and advocating the cause of civil and religious liberty throughout the world.

The following persons were appointed to act as Repeal Wardens, viz:—

Dennis Reddin, Warden and Treasurer,
Walter Phelan, Warden and Secretary,
Richard Walsh, Warden, Thomas Broyderick, do.,
James Mackenna, do., William Fitzpatrick, do.
P. B. Doyle, do.,

Proposed by Mr. John Slattery, Chairman, seconded by Mr. Dennis Reddin—

5. That three cheers be given for our gracious and beloved Sovereign, Queen Victoria.

Proposed by Mr. Walter Phelan, seconded by Mr. Richard Walsh—

Proposed by Mr. James Slattery, seconded by Mr. James Mackenna—

7. That three cheers be given for honest Tom Steele, Head Pacificator of all Ireland.

Proposed by Mr. James Mackenna, seconded by Mr. P. B. Doyle—

8. That three cheers be given for the Reverend James Lowrie, and the Presbyterians of the North of Ireland, the descendants of the glorious volunteers of 1782, who have joined in the Repeal movement.

Proposed by Mr. John Slattery, Chairman, seconded by Mr. Walter Phelan—

9. That three cheers be given for the independent Clergymen of Old Scotia, who separated from the Established Church rather than allow their religious rights to be trampled upon.

Proposed by Mr. James Slattery, seconded by Mr. Thomas Tobin—

10. That three cheers be given for the British Army, the bravest soldiers in the world.

Proposed by Mr. John Slattery, Chairman, seconded by Mr. Dennis Reddin—

13. That a Report of the proceedings of this meeting be inserted in the Colonial Herald, Newspaper.
