Farewell Address.

The inhabitants of O'Leary and vicinity presented Mr. A. H. Love, Station Agent, on the eve of his departure with the following

ADDRESS:

To A. H. Love, Station Agent.

We the undersigned, residents of O'Leary and vicinity, take this opportunity of expressing our regret at your removal from this station.

For the last eight years we have found you a courteous and obliging official in the capacity of agent, as well as a good citizen and good member of society, and your departure from this place will be deeply regretted, but we hope that what is our loss will be your gain. We also wish to mention your amiable wife whose absence from this place will be deeply felt by her many friends.

We hope that the future will be a bright one for you and your family, and hope you will prosper in whatever sphere of life you may engage in. Yours respectfully,

Signed: James Barclay, Robert Ellis, Sr., P. N. Pate, H. B. Huestis, J. Dorion, H. W. Turner, Joseph Doiron and others.
O'Leary Station, Jan. 12, 1891.

REPLY

To Messrs. James Barclay, Robert Ellis, Sr., P. N. Pate, H. B. Huestis, J.
Dorion, N. W. Turner, Joseph Doiron and others:—

GENTLEMEN.—I thank you for your kind address, and I am glad to know that the inhabitants of O'Leary and surrounding districts have been pleased with me in my official capacity and citizenship during my stay at O'Leary. I have only done my duty as Station Agent and can say that your frank business qualities as a people made it easy for me.

I regret my departure from among you, but changes must take place which, I hope, will be for the better.

Thanking you for your kind wishes for Mrs. Love and myself, your friendship to us during our stay at O'Leary shall always be remembered with pleasure.

I remain,

Yours respectfully,

A. H. LOVE.

Montague Notes.

The temperance question continues to be the most prominent here at present. All the churches are taking an active part in promoting the cause, and the result is that several of the parties who are selling a "drop of the craythur" are being prosecuted.

It is needless to say that foremost in the work is the Rev. Father Phelan, who is an indefatigable worker in the cause generally, and is all in a very special manner looking after the welfare of his own people. I am informed that almost the whole male portion of his congregation signed the temperance pledge last Sunday.

The Rev. James Phelan, who now resides at Montague, is said to be a most effective temperance preacher.

On Monday evening last a large temperance meeting, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., was held in the Methodist Church. Mrs. W. H. Spencer, President of the Society, occupied the chair. Stirring addresses were delivered by Revs. J.
C. Martin, R. Opie, O. B. Emery, and W.
H. Spencer. Messrs. N. J. Macdonald and A. Mellish also spoke effectively, and made some good points in favor of the cause. Mrs. R. Opie presided at the organ, and the whole choir did their part well.

"The Gambler's Wife," a solo by Mrs. Dr.
Robertson, was rendered in her usual style, and was highly appreciated by the audience.
It was, indeed, a great treat to listen to such soul-stirring music. Dr. Robertson's name was on the programme as one of the speakers but owing to professional duties he was unavoidably absent. After the collection the benediction was pronounced, and the audience dispersed highly pleased.

A few days ago the congregation of St.
Mary's Church presented their esteemed pastor, Father William Phelan, with a New Year's gift in the shape of a new eel fish.
It was manufactured by Messrs. McLean & Son, who always keep abreast of the times in style, workmanship and finish. Long may the Rev. Father live to enjoy this fresh token of esteem and respect from his people, is the sincere wish of your correspondent.

Dyspeptics Will Rejoice.

Attention is called to the advertisement of "Dyspeptics" which appears to-day.
"Dyspeptics" has been a valued household remedy for a number of years in St. John, and without any advertising, has been well known in nearly every part of the Maritime Provinces. That it is so well known is due to its wonderful success in really curing not only indigestion and all ordinary stomach troubles, but the worst cases of Chronic Dyspepsia. There are thousands upon thousands of Chronic Dyspeptics who have used so many remedies without success that they will hardly believe a cure is possible; these are exactly the ones that are particularly requested to try the remedy.

The pamphlet (copyrighted) on "Dyspeptics" re-giving a history of its discovery and full of information about diet and digestion, is wrapped around each bottle or will be promptly sent free to any address. The fact of "Dyspeptics" having been thoroughly tested for ten years and being prepared by a responsible druggist, Charles K. Short (Graduate Mass. College Pharmacy Boston) of St. John, N. B., recommends this remedy to the full confidence of the public. [d15 4w

Advice to Boys.

Whatever you are, be brave;
The fiercest a coward and slave, Though clever at ruses
And snark at excuses, He's a snapping and pitiful knave.

Whatever you are, be frank;
'Tis better than money and rank, Still cleave to the right,
Be lovers of light,
Be open, above-board and frank.

Whatever you are, be kind;
Be gentle in manners and mind;
The man gentle in mien, Words and temper I ween,
Is the gentleman truly refined.

Be True.

Thou must be true thyself, If thou the truth wouldst teach; Thy soul must overflow, if thou Another's soul wouldst reach.
It needs the overflow of heart To give the lips full speech.

Think truly, and thy thoughts Shall the world's famine feed; Speak truly, and each word of thine Shall be a fruitful seed.
Live truly, and thy life shall be A great and noble deed.

Crapaud Notes.

The Victoria Skating Rink was thrown open to the youth and beauty of Crapaud, on New Year's evening, and although the skaters fully enjoyed themselves there was a degree of disappointment when it was known the Dartrey Band of Charlottetown had failed to put in an appearance as advertised by the directors. The sending to the city for negro musicians was certainly not a compliment, as I believe that there is local talent enough around here available for a good show at any time.

Mr. James E. Newsom, Mrs. Newsom and Miss Newsom were passengers from here on the 1st instant for Boston. Mr. Newsom, who is of the firm of Moose, Holt & Co., of that city, did a very large business in produce during the past year, and although it was not carried out without the experience of some reverses, through the loss of a couple of cargoes, he hopes to return early in the spring with renewed energy and lots of cash for another rally.

The voters of the first District of Queen's would like to know whether Mr. James M. Sutherland has resigned his seat in the Legislature, or are we to have only one representative in the Assembly.

A large and influential meeting was held last evening in the Methodist chapel, called by the Rev. Mr. King and presided over by Henry Wadman, Esq. It was a grand rally for publicists, and hundreds of names have been appended to the petition for presentation to both branches of the Dominion Parliament.
To the minds of many, the holding of such a meeting in the church may be the correct thing, but have we not public halls in which to hold our meetings. It is now said that Mr. L. H. Davies is to hold forth shortly and in the same place. Surely the trustees will not so far forget themselves as to allow it.
