THE GAUNTLET

Holland College Lunch Hour Film Series - People's Issues - Noon in the Lecture Theatre

Dec. 7th - Thursday: If You Love This Planet

Dr. Helen Caldicott, of Physicians for Social Responsibility, uses a compelling and convincing mixture of reason and emotion to present an impressively marshalled array of facts about the devastating consequences of a nuclear war. The effect is chilling.

Dr. Caldicott makes it clear, the situation is one of the utmost urgency: unless we make a concerted effort to press for disarmament, our chances of surviving until the end of the century are slim.

Dec. 8th - Friday: Killing Us Softly

The record of a slide-tape presentation by Jean Kilbourne, about the nature and characteristics of images of women promulgated by the advertising industry. In a humorous and spirited manner, she points out how these ads are used to sell not only products - but values, goals, concepts, and images of self as well.

Dec. 11th - Monday: Why Men Rape

An unusual documentary about rape. It is the assailant rather than the victim who tells the story of the crime. Ten convicted rapists tell their story. Interviews with lawyers, men and women in a singles bar and mixed groups of teenagers bring out a number of issues related to sexual behavior and attitudes.

Dec. 12th - Tuesday: No Way, Not Me

This film is about women and poverty. Yes, it does happen in Canada. Rosemary Brown, the chair of the Women's Studies Department at Simon Fraser University in Vancouver, British Columbia was involved with the making of the film. Rosemary is a peace activist/feminist/politician/writer who has a long history with the women's movement on the West Coast.

Dec. 18th - Monday: Augusta (16:33) Paradise (animated - 17:00)

Augusta, 88 years young lives in the Cariboo country of British Columbia. She is the daughter of a Shuswap chief who lost her status as an Indian when she married a white man in 1903. The portrait of a woman who, despite her advanced years, remains self-sufficient and dedicated to her people.

Paradise is an award-winning animated film. For relaxation and enjoyment ... not too heavy to carry home for Xmas.

The January schedule will be out soon...

Poetry Contest

Deadline December 31

December 31 is the deadline for entering the American Poetry Association's contest. Entry is free and everyone is welcome to enter.

The Grand Prize is $1,000 and the first prize is $500. In total 152 poets will win cash and publication prizes worth $11,000.

"Every student who writes poetry should enter this contest. Our latest $1,000 winner is a student. Students also won 24 of the other prizes," said Robert Nelson, publisher for the association. "December Break should give students the chance to enter before the deadline."

Poets may enter the contest by sending up the six poems, each no more than 20 lines, name and address on each page, to American Poetry Association, Dept. CT-90, 250-A Potrero St., P.O. Box 1803, Santa Cruz, CA 96061. Entries should be mailed by December 31. A new contest starts January 1.

Each poem is also considered for publication in the American Poetry Anthology, a leading collection of today's poems.

During the eight years of sponsorship the American Poetry Association has run 34 contests and awarded $165,000 in prizes to 1,100 winning poets.
