

POETRY.

SONNETS.

Oh! blessing and delight of my young heart, Maiden, who wast so lovely and so pure, I know not in what region now thou art, Or whom thy gentle eyes in joy assure.
 Not the old hills on which we gazed together,
 Not the old faces which we both did love, Not the old books whence knowledge we did gather,
 Not these, but others now thy fancies move I would I knew thy present hopes and fears, All thy companions with their pleasant talk,
 And the clear aspect which thy dwelling wears;
 So, though in body absent, I might walk With thee in thought and feeling, till thy mood
 Did sanctify my own to peerless good.

Still here—thou hast not faded from my sight, Nor all the music round thee from mine ear; Still grace flows from thee to the brightening year,
 And all the birds laugh out in wealthier light.
 Still am I free to close my happy eyes,
 And paint upon the gloom thy mimic form;
 That soft white neck—that cheek in beauty warm,
 And brow half hidden where yon riolet lies:
 With oh! the blissful knowledges all the while That I can fit at will each curved lid, And my fair dream most highly realize.
 The time will come, 'tis ushered by my sighs, When I may shape the dark, but vainly bid True light restore that form, those looks, that smile.

BLAKE'S Metallic Fire Proof Paint, Or, Artificial Slate.

THIS admirable article has been tested for some years, and proved very valuable, becoming a perfect slate, as hard as marble in a few months, completely protecting whatever is coated with it from the action of weather and fire—a better fireproof than tin or zinc. Several Insurance Companies certify they will insure buildings covered with it at a cheaper rate, than if covered with those metals. It is of two colors, the black is best for roofing—the chocolate the best thing ever discovered for sides of either brick or wood, forming a perfect stone coating of a handsome stone or chocolate color, can be easily changed by a little white lead to suit the taste. There is nothing equal to it for steamboat and car decks, and all kinds of iron, as it forms a coating nearly as hard as the iron itself, and never cleaves off.

BEWARE OF WORTHLESS COUNTER-FEITS.

As the popularity of my paint has induced scores of unprincipled individuals to grind up, and offer as fire-proof paint, all kinds of worthless stuff, much of it nothing but rotten stone that has no cohesive attraction, is held on by the oil with which it is applied; consequently, as soon as the action of the atmosphere destroys the oil, it will wash or rub off like Chalk or Whiting, nothing can yet be known of its lasting qualities, as it is but little over a year since they got them up, whereas mine has been tested about seven, and where first applied is now like a stone.

 Orwell, my authorised Agent for the Island.

To the free and independent Electors of the First District of Prince County.

GENTLEMEN—

HAVING been chosen by the Majority of the House of Assembly to fill the office of Colonial Secretary, under the new system of Government, and his Excellency the Lieut. Governor, in accordance with the wishes of that Majority, having appointed me thereto, my seat in the Assembly has become vacant, and I am required to go back to you, in order that you may ratify by re-electing me, the selection which His Excellency and the Majority of the Assembly have made.

You are no doubt aware, by the published proceedings of the Assembly, that I recorded my vote against giving retiring allowances to the Attorney General and Colonial Secretary. This vote was given by me with much reluctance, but in strict conformity with a pledge I had made to you. I regretted having given the pledge, inasmuch as it compelled me to appear in opposition to that party with whom I have uniformly acted—for, were I not restrained by my pledge, I should have cheerfully voted with the Majority; because I cannot deem that the concession made by the Assembly, and demanded by the Lieut. Governor, in compliance with his imperative instructions, ought to be put in comparison with the immense advantages which will accrue to this Colony from the introduction of Responsible Government. It is not necessary that I should particularise these advantages on this occasion, as I have no doubt they are well understood by most of you, and as I will have a better opportunity of entering into a full explanation of them, should that be required, at the time of the election. Suffice it to say that, independently of the great privilege which the people now possess, under the truly British system of Government conceded to this Island, of controlling the administration of their own affairs—Imperial revenues to the amount of nearly two thousand pounds, hitherto beyond the controul of the Legislature, have been surrendered to the Colony.

In conclusion, I trust that my past conduct is a sufficient guarantee that I have not abused the confidence with which you have honoured me; and cheered by the consciousness of having faithfully discharged my duty, I am now emboldened to solicit your suffrages at the ensuing Election.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
 Your obedient servant,
 JAMES WARBURTON.
