THE DELINEATOR FOR JULY

The midsummer fashions with a wealth of illustrations in color and in black-and-white are attractively portrayed in THE DELINEATOR for July. Helen Berkeley-loyd tells how the Summer girl will be frocked and furbelowed, and the Dress of Paris is discussed by M. Edouard La Fontaine, one of the best-known critics in Paris. In the literary section the most notable feature is the opening chapters of "The Chauffeur and the Chaperon," a new story by C. N. and A. M. Williamson, authors of "The Lightning Conductor." The story which deals with a group of interesting people cruising in a motor boat over the quaint waterways of Holland, promises to be the brightest and cleverest novel that these renowned writers have yet produced. Mrs. Mary Hinman Abel contributes a chapter on "Flies and Food" in THE DELINEATOR'S Campaign for Safe Foods, and Clara E. Laughlin opens a series of "Stories of Painter's Lives," with "Millet—the Peasant Painter." Burton E. Stevenson has the second part of the tale "The Rose of Sharon," and there is a short story entitled "The Baby," by Zora Gale. "The President of Otago," Helen M. Winslow's entertaining club story, is concluded. For the children, there are Stories and Pastimes, among them the first of the series of "Tales of the Mountain Giants" and a clean story by Edmund Vance Cook, "Down the King's Chimney." For the housewife there are many articles of timely interest, including Novelties for Summer Feasts, Strawberry Favorites and New Vegetables Cleverly served.

ONE GIVES RELIEF

Mrs. James Taylor, who resides at No. 82 Bailey avenue, Kingsbridge, New York, on the 14th of December, 1894, said: "My age is 65 years. For the past two years I have had liver trouble and indigestion. I always employ a physician, which I did in this case, but obtained no beneficial results. I never had any faith in patent medicines, but having seen Ripans Tablets recommended very highly in the New York Herald I concluded to give them a trial. After using them for a short time, I found they were just what my case demanded. I have never employed a physician since, which means $2 a call and $1 for medicine. One dollar's worth of Ripans Tablets lasts me a month, and I would not be without them if it were my last dollar. They are the only thing that ever gave me any permanent relief. I take great pleasure in recommending them to any one similarly affected. (Signed) MRS. J. TAYLOR."

Ripans Tablets are sold by druggists, or by mail if the price (50 cents a box) is sent to The Ripans Chemical Company, No. 10 Spruce St., New York. Sample vial, 10 cents.
